70. Arunkumar Chattarji.—সেই অভিশপ্ত রাত্রি—

[Sei Abhiśapta Rātri. That cursed night. The story of the tragic end of a youth in the full bloom of life, on a charge of murdering his father. Portrays the youth's incessant inward conflict of ideas caused by his deep abhorence of the social evils which are alleged to be due to the worthless, parasitic, and vain glorious life of the rich. His behaviour hunts his parents and tells so much upon the health and mind of his father that he begins to lose self-control and often cruelly handles his wife for her supposed complicity in their son's waywardness. Finding his father mishandling his mother in a fit of rage, one night the youth rushes to her rescue and separates him with a push, to which he unfortunately succumbes owing to his extreme weakness. In consequence he is tried for murdering his father and suffers sentence of death which he gladly courts as a measure of relief from his own internal struggle.] Pages 120. 112. Prithvischandra Bhattacharjya.—পতিতা ধরিত্রী—

[Patitā Dharitrī. Fallen Earth. A story about the life of a youth and his younger brother, hailing from village and residing in Calcutta for study. They are very poor and prosecute their studies under very precarious circumstances so much so that they have to read in the light of street lamp, and that one of them lies alternately to suspend his studies and to toil for earning so that the other may in the meantime study undisturbed by the cares of financial matter. The elder is seen to be deeply moved by the sufferings and difficulties of the poor and to have great ideas of bringing about an economic revolution through proletaraih agitation He is therefore dogged by the police. In his need of money for his association, he is seen to make no scruples in asking a girl member of his association, to earn money for his cause by any means even to the extent of selling her body; and considers himself justified in his action, in view of his high ideal. His younger brother appreciates his elder's ideal but owing to his inherent weakness and ease-loving nature, fights shy of it, and is, in contrast to his brother, found to be content to live on the earnings of a girl who has been forced to adopt the life of shame by sheer penury. Towards the finis the elder brother is seen to reject his brother's request of giving up his dangerous ideal, by saying that there is unfortunately no place for people like him in this degraded and down-trodden earth.] Pages 196. 222. Kalidas Mukharji.—যৌন ক্ষুধা ও নারীর সতীত্ব—

[Yauna-Kṣudhā O Nārīr Satītva. Sex-hunger and woman's chastity. Points out that sex-hunger of human beings is an eternal urge and that sex-urge has been manifested in different forms and stages according to cultural advancement and civilization, and that the present social laws for ensuring sexual purity of females in the Indian society has proved to be repressive and unreasonable to a great extent inasmuch as they are contrary to natural instincts. Attempts to show that earliest stages of sexual life of India were very similar to those of other countries, and that sexual conditions and relations and laws relating to them, obtaining in India in earliest times, e.g., the age of Rigveda were far different from those obtaining at the present time and would appear almost repugnant to modern taste. It further considers sexual life of the age of Mahabharata in order to point the freedom enjoyed by females in respect of their sexual life. Also contains an article on the changes that have crept in society in respect of widow remarriage and the system of Niyoga, i.e., begetting child by a male other than the husband.] Pages 12+94. [Contains three articles including one meant for the 70th Anniversary of Mr. Gandhi, and four speeches delivered from time to time at different places of India, which discuss the important topics of the day as mentioned in the title. Attempt has been made to give a critical study of the philosophy of the political views of Mr. Ghandhi and to expose and even to condemn his ideals and to show that he is inconsistent in his views and a supporter of imperialism even to the extent of being the Fascist although hitherto believed to be a staunch socialist. Also attempts to explain socialism and Natiomnalis with their essential eventualitiet and the relation between them and to poins out how far Mr. Ghandhi's views fall short of the true significance of the two terms. Holds that socialism has a back ground of philosophy which requires proper study for its right appreciation, and has an important bearing on the country's struggle for freedom, and suggests that the country (India) is not yet ripe for a Socialist revolution due to its economic backwardness and that proper steps should be taken to remedy the defect by overthrowing the Imperialism.] Pages 2+2+130. NOTIFICATION.

No. 651Pl.—2nd March 1942.—The following draft of amendments which, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 70 of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1939 (IV of 1939), the Governor proposes to make in the Bengal Motor Vehicles Rules, 1940, published under notification No. 1930Pl., dated the 21st September 1940, at pages 2655-2829, Part I of the Calcutta Gazette, is published for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby.

2. The draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 25th March 1942, and any objection or suggestion with respect thereto which may be received by the undersigned before that date will be duly considered:—

Draft amendments.

1. To rule 2 of the said rules the following clause shall be added, namely:—

"(g) 'producer' for the purposes of the rules in Chapter V means the whole of the generator, pipes, coolers, filters and accessories necessary for the generation of gas and its supply to the engine".

2. In Chapter V of the said rules, after rule 181 the following shall be added, namely:—

"Producer gas for motor vehicles.

181A. On or after the 1st April 1942, no producer shall be fitted to a motor vehicle unless the producer— Fitting of a producer to a motor vehicle.

(a) has been made by a manufacturer approved in this behalf by the Provincial Transport Authority;

(b) is of a type of model approved by, and in accordance with specifications approved by, that authority for use on the type of vehicle concerned;

(c) has affixed to the generator in such a manner as to be clearly visible, a metal plate having legibly displayed upon it the name of the manufacturer, the manufacturer's serial number and the description, name, mark or number assigned to it by the Provincial Transport Authority under sub-rule (1) of rule 181C.

181B. (1) Any person seeking the approval of the Provincial Transport Authority under rule 181A shall make application in writing to the said Authority accompanied by duplicate copies of the specifications, of clear drawings or prints of the producer and of the instructions for working it, and shall state the type or model of motor vehicle and the size and horse-power of the engine for which the producer is intended. Application for approval of the producer.

(2) If so required by the said Authority, a person who has made an application under sub-rule (1) shall—

(a) submit the producer to such test in such laboratory or workshop and by such person as the said authority may specify; and

(b) furnish at his own expense a vehicle fitted with the producer for such test on the road (including a road journey of not less than 50 miles continuous) as the said authority may specify.

181C. (1) When the Provincial Transport Authority approves of any type or model of producer, it shall inform the applicant in writing accordingly and shall intimate the description, name, mark or number under which it may be offered for sale. Approval of the producer.

(2) No person shall sell or offer for sale any producer which does not conform in every material respect to the specification approved by the Provincial Transport Authority in relation to the name, mark or number displayed on the generator in accordance with clause (e) of rule 181A.

(3) A manufacturer who proposes to modify or alter in any way the design or specification of an approved type of model of producer shall, before offering the modified type or model for sale, make application to the Provincial Transport Authority with particulars of the modification or changes proposed and shall obtain the approval of the said Authority thereto.

(4) Upon receipt of an application under sub-rule (3) the said Authority may, if it thinks fit, require the modified type or model to be subjected to the tests specified in sub-rule (2) of rule 181B.

Design and construction of the producer.

181D. (1) Before according approval to any type or design of producer the Provincial Transport Authority shall satisfy itself that the design and construction proposed are in accordance with the provision of these rules and in particular that—

(a) the design is reasonably simple and suitable to the type of vehicle for which it is intended and is such that it can be fitted to the vehicle in such a way that the driver's vision and control of the vehicle are not impeded, the convenience and safety of passengers is not endangered, the weight of the producer can be reasonably distributed over the chassis, and the filters, coolers, pipes and other parts requiring frequent cleaning and attention can be fitted in readily accessible places;

(b) the effective capacity of the generator, hopper and filters is sufficient to provide fuel to propel the vehicle for a distance of not less than 50 miles without re-charging the hopper or cleaning the filters;

(c) the producer is capable of providing gas to propel the vehicle by the gas alone along a level road with its full lawful load at a sustained rate of speed of not less than—

(i) in the case of a goods vehicle not being a heavy transport vehicle, 20 m.p.h.,

(ii)) in the case of a goods vehicle being a heavy transport vehicle, 15 m.p.h.,

(iii) in any other case, 25 m.p.h.;

(d) the materials and methods of construction specified by the applicant are, save as otherwise declared by the applicant, calculated to withstand fair wear and tear for a period of not less than two years under the normal conditions of working of the type of vehicle for which the producer is intended.

(2) The instructions for the working of the producer shall be subject to the approval of the Provincial Transport Authority which shall cause to be endorsed thereon a statement of the materials and parts declared by the applicant not to be calculated to withstand two years' fair wear and tear.

Instructions for the working of the producer.

181E. A copy of the instructions for the working of the producer as approved and endorsed under sub-rule (2) of rule 181D, and bearing upon it the particulars specified in clause (c) of rule 181A shall be attached to, or tendered with, every producer offered for sale.

Prevention of danger from fire, etc.

181F. Every producer shall be designed, manufactured, fitted and maintained with all reasonable care necessary to prevent danger from fire, gas poisoning, and burns, and in particular—

(a) all pipes, joints, valves and all covers to the hoppers, generators, cooling chambers, filters and other accessories shall be free from gas or air leaks; and

(b) if an escape funnel is fitted to the generator for use during the blowing of air through the generator, the mouth of the funnel shall be placed above the level of the roof of the vehicle.

Placing of the producer in a motor vehicle.

181G. (1) No part of any producer shall be placed so as to reduce the field of vision of the driver by means of the mirror prescribed in rule 117 or otherwise, or so as to impede the driver in his control of the vehicle.

(2) In a public service vehicle—

(a) no part of the producer shall be placed within the passengers' compartment; and

(b) the generator shall be centrally placed in rear of the passengers' compartment, either completely outside it or recessed into the rear panel, and shall be insulated and have the clearance prescribed in rule 181H.

Provided that notwithstanding the provisions of sub-rule (a) of rule 106, the generator and a reserve of fuel not exceeding one hundred and fifty pounds in weight may be carried on a trailer attached to a public service vehicle.

(3) No public service vehicle fitted with a producer shall have any opening or door in the rear end of the vehicle.

(4) In a transport vehicle other than a public service vehicle the generator shall not be placed forward of the rear of the driver's cab and shall be insulated and have the clearance prescribed in rule 181H.

Generator of a producer.

181H. (1) On any motor vehicle, if any part of the generator is so placed as to be within a distance of six inches in a horizontal plane from any part of the vehicle, the vehicle shall be insulated from the generator by a sheet of asbestos one eighth of an inch thick, or by such other insulating material as the Provincial Transport Authority may by general or special order in writing specify in this behalf, not less in height than the height of the generator (including the hopper) and of such a width as—

(a) where the generator is recessed, to completely line the recess; and

(b) where the generator is not recessed, to project for a distance of not less than six inches on either side of the generator.

(2) No part of a generator shall have a clearance between it and the insulating material prescribed in sub-rule (1) of less than two inches.

Generator in a Goods Vehicle.

181I. (1) In the case of a goods vehicle the generator may be placed centrally at the rear of the vehicle as prescribed for a public service vehicle or, behind the driver's cab.

(2) When the generator is placed behind the driver's cab it shall be adequately enclosed in a separate compartment, and no goods shall be carried in that compartment.

Placing of t generator.

181J. No generator and no pipe connecting the generator to the gas filters shall be so placed that any part of the generator or pipe is within a distance of less than—

(a) two feet from any part of the petrol tank; or

(b) four feet from the filling point or orifice of the petrol tank:

Provided that if the filling point or orifice is screened off from the generator by an adequate partition, clause (b) shall not apply in relation to the generator.

Filters and gas coolers in transport vehicles.

181K. On any transport vehicle the filters and gas coolers shall be so placed as to be readily accessible for cleaning at any time.

Pipes, valves and other parts of the producer.

181L. Every part of the producer shall be firmly and securely fixed in place, and all pipes, valves, joints and hopper lids or covers shall at all times be maintained in a gas-tight condition.

Instructions to be followed by drivers, or persons in charge of motor vehicles.

181M. No driver or other person in charge of a motor vehicle to which a producer is fitted shall—

(a) at any time when there is fire in the generator, cause or allow the vehicle to stop or remain stationary at a distance of less than ten yards from any other motor vehicle or of less than 20 yards from any petrol pump or place where petrol is supplied in tins;

(b) at any time when there is fire in the generator, pour petrol or cause or allow petrol to be poured into the petrol tank;

(c) carry, or cause or allow to be carried, in the vehicle (save in the regular petrol tank thereof) any petrol or other inflammable or explosive substance;

(d) clean or rake out the generator at any appointed bus stand or stopping place or within a distance of less than 20 yards from any other motor vehicle, or cause or allow the same to be done by any person;

(e) where a park, bus stand, or halting place or a part of a park, bus stand or halting place is set apart for vehicles fitted with producers, allow the vehicle to stop or remain stationary in any other park, bus stand or halting place or other part thereof, as the case may be;

(f) place the vehicle, or cause or allow it to be placed, in any garage or shed unless the garage or shed is provided with a permanent opening or openings for sufficient ventilation other than doors and windows that may be closed.

Projection of a producer.

181N. (1) The projection of any part of a producer beyond the rear of the vehicle shall be deemed not to be a part of the vehicle for the purposes of rules 129 and 131 of the Bengal Motor Vehicle Rules, 1940.

(2) No producer shall be fitted to any motor vehicle in such a way that the vehicle thereby contravenes the provisions of rule 128 or rule 130 of the Bengal Motor Vehicles Rules, 1940.

Note.—The fitting of a producer gas plant to a motor vehicle is, in effect, an alteration for the purposes of section 32 of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1939 (IV of 1939). The owners, who fit such plants to their vehicles, are therefore advised in their own interest, to have the vehicles inspected by the Registering Authorities concerned and the alterations noted on the registration certificates and the certificates of fitness before putting the vehicles into use."

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH AND LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT

NOTIFICATIONS.

Darjeeling.—No. 543M.—2nd March 1942.—In exercise of the power conferred by sub-section (1) of section 327 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932 (Bengal Act XV of 1932), as modified in its application to the district of Darjeeling, the Governor is pleased to make the following amendments in the rules contained in Schedule VI(A) to the said Act relating to the use of building sites and the execution of building work within the Darjeeling Municipality, and published with notification No. 343M., dated the 4th March 1939: —

Amendments.

(1) In part VI of the rules of the said Schedule, for the heading "Part VI—Dwelling-houses" substitute the heading "Part VI—Free passage about buildings".

(2) Above rule 25 of the rules of the said Schedule insert the heading "Part VI (A)—Dwelling-houses".

Tippera.—No. 509M.—26th February 1942.—In exercise of the power conferred by sub-section (5) of section 56 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932 (Bengal Act XV of 1932), the Governor is pleased to extend the term of office of the Commissioners of the Comilla Municipality in the district of Tippera, for the period commencing from the date of expiry of the term of four years provided by clause (a) of sub-section (1) of the said section and ending on the 31st October 1942, the special circumstances in which it has been thought fit to extend the said term of office being that, the last general election of the Commissioners of the said municipality having been held in the year 1937-38 under sub-section (3) of section 24 of the said Act, the next general election is required to be held in the year 1941-42 but as the four-year term of office of the present Commissioners of the said municipality, prescribed in clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 56 of the said Act, commenced on the 16th September 1938, they will not complete the said term of office if the general election were held in the year 1941-42.

Murshidabad.—No. 527M.—27th February 1942.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 506 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932 (Bengal Act XV of 1932), the Governor is pleased to confirm the by-law framed by the Commissioners of the Jiaganj-Azimganj Municipality in the district of Murshidabad under clause (a) of section 245 of the said Act and published for information under notification No. 4M., dated the 2nd January 1942.

Dacca.—No. 530M.—27th February 1942.—In exercise of the power conferred by sub-section (5) of section 56 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932 (Bengal Act XV of 1932), the Governor is pleased to extend the term of office of the Commissioners of the Dacca Municipality for the period commencing from the date of expiry of the term of four years provided by clause (a) of sub-section (1) of the said section and ending on the 31st October 1942, the special circumstances in which it has been thought fit to extend the said term of office being that if the election is held in the current financial year a considerable number of ratepayers of the municipality will be disfranchised owing to their inability to pay the municipal rates and taxes and to get their names included in the electoral roll as a result of the riots in the city of Dacca.

Darjeeling-Mymensingh.—No. 531L.S.-G.—27th February 1942.—In exercise of the power conferred by sub-section (1) of section 92 of the Government of India Act, 1935, the Governor is pleased to direct that the Bengal Local Self-Government (Amendment) Act, 1941 (Bengal Act III of 1941), shall apply to the Darjeeling district and to the partially excluded areas of the Mymensingh district with effect from the date of publication of this notification in the Calcutta Gazette, subject to the following modifications, namely: —

(1) that in sub-section (1) of section 9 of the said Act,—

(a) for the words "commencement of this Act" occurring in the first place, the words "the application of this Act to the Darjeeling district and to the partially excluded areas of the Mymensingh district" shall be substituted, and

(b) for the words "commencement of this Act" occurring in the second place, the words "application of this Act to the said district and to the said areas" shall be substituted,

(2) that in sub-section (2) of section 9 of the said Act—

(a) for the words "commencement of this Act" occurring in the first place, the words "application of this Act to the Darjeeling district and to the partially excluded areas of the Mymensingh district" shall be substituted, and

(b) for the words "commencement of this Act" occurring in the second place, the words "the application of this Act to the said district and to the said areas" shall be substituted.

Tippera.—No. 532M.—27th February 1942.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 506 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932 (Bengal Act XV of 1932), the Governor is pleased to confirm the by-laws framed by the Commissioners of the Comilla Municipality in the district of Tippera under section 434 of the said Act and published for information under notification No. 1145M., dated the 23rd June 1941.

Dacca.—No. 533L.S.-G.—27th February 1942.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 22 of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act, 1885 (Bengal Act III of 1885), the Governor is pleased to approve the election by the members of the Dacca district board of Mr. S. A. Salim, M.L.A., to be their Chairman.

No. 545M.—3rd March 1942.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 25 of the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1923 (Bengal Act III of 1923), and in supersession of the rules published with notification No. 4734M., dated the 24th November 1924, as subsequently amended, the Governor is pleased to make the following rules for the preparation and publication of the electoral roll for the purposes of the election of the Councillors under the said Act:—

Rules for the Preparation and Publication of the Electoral Roll.

1. In these rules unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(1) "the Act" means the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1923 (Bengal Act III of 1923);

(2) "constituency" means one of the constituencies specified in Schedule III to the Act.

2. (1) The electoral roll of every constituency shall be prepared and published by the authority (referred to in these rules as the "Registering Authority") appointed in this behalf by the Provincial Government by notification in the Calcutta Gazette.

(2) For the purpose of the preparation and publication of the electoral roll, the Registering Authority may employ such agency as he thinks fit.

3. No person shall be included in the electoral roll of a General, Muhammadan or Anglo-Indian Constituency by virtue of the qualifications specified in clause (b) or clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 20 of the Act unless his name is entered in the register maintained under the said clause on an application made by him in that behalf under that clause to the Executive Officer.

Every such application shall be made in Form A or Form B, as the case may be, annexed to these rules and it shall contain a declaration signed by the applicant as to the correctness of the particulars mentioned therein, and the Executive Officer shall satisfy himself about the correctness of the statements made in the application by such inquiry as he considers necessary and the applicant shall produce such evidence, documentary or otherwise, as the Executive Officer may require for the purpose of such inquiry:

Provided that in the case of an application in Form B annexed to these rules it shall not be necessary for the applicant to make the declaration contained in the said form if the name of the applicant appears in the Bustee Inspection Register maintained by the Corporation as owner of the hut in question during the period mentioned by him in his application and the Executive Officer shall satisfy himself about the correctness of the statements made in the application by reference to the said Bustee Inspection Register and by such further enquiry as the Executive Officer may consider necessary.

4. The electoral roll of every constituency shall be prepared in English, but in order to give it wide publicity, the Registering Authority may, if he thinks fit, also prepare and publish or cause to be prepared and published a copy of the roll in such other language or languages as he may consider necessary.

5. On or before the 15th day of November immediately preceding each general election, the Registering Authority shall prepare or cause to be prepared a complete electoral roll (hereinafter referred to as the preliminary roll) for each constituency containing the names of all persons who appear to the Registering Authority to be entitled to be registered as electors for that constituency.

6. In the case of a General, Muhammadan or Anglo-Indian constituency, the preliminary roll shall be prepared ward by ward, but the Registering Authority may, if he thinks fit, prepare a consolidated preliminary roll for several wards comprising a constituency or part of a constituency. The Registering Authority may also sub-divide the roll in such other manner or into such other parts as he may deem expedient for the purpose of facilitating the preparation of the roll.

7. (1) The names of electors registered in the preliminary roll or any part of the preliminary roll of any such constituency as aforesaid shall be arranged in accordance with the alphabetical order (in English) of the names of the streets and the serial numbering of the premises in such streets contained in the said roll or part of the roll as the case may be.

(2) In the case of a constituency in which a seat is reserved for members of the Scheduled Castes, the caste of each elector belonging to the Scheduled Castes shall be indicated in the preliminary roll against the name of such elector.

(3) Where a person is registered as the representative of any company, body corporate, firm, joint family or other association of individuals, or as the manager of a lunatic or the guardian of a minor, a distinctive sign or mark shall be placed against his name in the preliminary roll to indicate the fact.

(4) Persons qualified as electors under clause (b) or clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 20 of the Act shall also have a distinctive sign or mark placed against their names in the preliminary roll unless it is decided to publish their names in a separate part or parts of the preliminary roll.

8. In the case of a special constituency, the preliminary roll shall be in such form as the Registering Authority may direct. It shall contain the names of the persons registered as electors arranged alphabetically (in English) with their addresses.

9. In the case of the labour constituency, the preliminary roll shall be prepared ward by ward, but the Registering Authority may, if he thinks fit, prepare a consolidated preliminary roll for the entire labour constituency. The Registering Authority may also sub-divide the roll in such other manner or into such other parts as he may deem expedient for the purpose of facilitating the preparation of the roll. The names of the electors registered in the roll or any part thereof shall be arranged in accordance with the alphabetical order (in English) of the names of the Trade Unions of which they are members.

10. (1) Before the preparation of the preliminary roll of the labour constituency is taken in hand, the Registering Authority shall cause a notice to be issued, calling upon each trade union which has its registered office within the limits of Calcutta and which is recognized in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 18 of Part IV of the Government of India (Provincial Legislative Assembly) Order, 1936, to submit to him within such time and in such form as he may specify in this behalf:—

(a) a list of its ordinary members who are qualified as electors of the said constituency under sub-section (4) of section 20 of the Act,

(b) in respect of every such member, a copy of a certificate issued by the engager or employer of such member to the effect that such member has been actually engaged or employed within the limits of Calcutta in an industry with which the trade union is connected, and

(c) a copy of the certificate of recognition issued to it in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 18 of Part IV of the said order.

(2) Notice under sub-rule (1) shall be issued to each trade union referred to in that sub-rule, and a copy of the notice shall also be published in the manner provided in clause (c) of rule 12, as well as in such local newspapers as the Registering Authority may think fit.

(3) For the purpose of complying with the provisions of clause (b) of sub-rule (1), a trade union referred to in that sub-rule shall be entitled to apply, to the engager or employer of any of its members referred to in clause (a) of that sub-rule, for the issue of the certificate referred to in clause (b) of that sub-rule, and such engager or employer shall not be entitled to refuse the issue of such certificate in respect of any such member so engaged or employed by him.

11. For the purpose of satisfying himself as to the correctness of the list of members submitted by a trade union under rule 10, the Registering Authority may require any trade union to produce before him within such time as he may fix in this behalf, any register, record or document of such union, and may call upon any officer or member of a trade union to appear before him for oral examination on a date or dates to be fixed by him.

12. The preliminary roll prepared as above for every constituency shall be published by the Registering Authority not later than the 15th day of November referred to in rule 5 in the manner following and otherwise as he may think fit to give it wide publicity in the constituency:—

(a) In the case of a constituency other than a special or the labour constituency, by affixing for public inspection a complete copy of the roll at the Central Municipal Office and at the following other places:—

(i) the Municipal District office or offices, and such other Corporation office or offices as the Registering Authority may think fit, situated within the constituency concerned, or within the jurisdiction of which the constituency or any part of it may be situated,

(ii) one or more of the police-station or stations situated within the constituency or within the jurisdiction of which the constituency or any part of it may be situated,

(iii) one or more of the Post Offices, as the Registering Authority may think fit, situated within the constituency, and

(iv) municipal markets and such public reading rooms and public libraries as the Registering Authority may think fit.

(b) In the case of a special constituency, by affixing, for public inspection, a complete copy of the roll at the Central Municipal Office and at the office or offices of the Chamber, Association or the Commissioners of the Port of Calcutta, constituting the constituency as the case may be.

(c) In the case of the labour constituency, by affixing for public inspection a complete copy of the roll at the Central Municipal Office, at the registered office of each trade union which has such office within the limits of Calcutta and which is recognised in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 18 of Part IV of the Government of India (Provincial Legislative Assemblies) Order, 1936, and at such other places as the Registering Authority may consider necessary.

13. Printed copies of the preliminary roll shall be sold to the public at such prices as may from time to time be fixed by the Executive Officer.

14. For the purpose of the disposal of claims for being included and objections to the inclusion of any name in the electoral roll, the Registering Authority may, with the previous approval of the Provincial Government, appoint in writing a person or persons to perform all or any of the duties of the Revising Authority in respect of any constituency or part of a constituency:

Provided that no Councillor, Alderman or officer or servant of the Corporation shall be a Revising Authority.

15. Along with the preliminary roll of every constituency, published as above, a notice shall be simultaneously published in the constituency, and a notice of the publication of the preliminary roll shall also be given by advertisement in local papers, specifying for such constituency or any part of it, the Revising Authority to whom, the place at which, the period within which, and the manner in which, claims for being included in the electoral roll or objections to the inclusion of any name in the electoral roll shall have to be preferred.

16. Claims and objections shall be preferred in respect of the preliminary roll of any constituency not later than the 20th day of December next following the month of November referred to in rule 5. The Revising Authority shall not entertain any claim or objection received by him after 5 p.m. on that date.

17. All claims and objections shall be in writing and signed by the person making them and shall state the grounds on which they are based, and where they relate to an entry in the preliminary roll shall give the reference to or the particulars of that entry.

18. Every person whose claim or objection is received in time shall be served with a notice by the Revising Authority specifying the place where and the time when his claim or objection will be heard, and he may produce or cause to be produced such evidence as he may wish to adduce, but in the absence of such evidence the Revising Authority shall decide the matter on the entries appearing in the records of the Corporation.

19. When objection is made by any person whose name is on the preliminary roll to the inclusion of the name of any other person recorded therein, the Revising Authority shall serve on such other person a notice stating the grounds of such objection and specifying the place and the time fixed for the hearing of such objection, where and when such other person may attend with such evidence as he may wish to adduce:

Provided that if any objection shall appear to the Revising Authority to be frivolous or to have been made on irrelevant grounds he shall cause to be served on the person making the objection a notice calling upon him to appear and substantiate his objection either in person or by agent on a specific date, and in such a case no notice shall be served upon the other persons until the Revising Authority is satisfied that the objection is well founded, and if the person making the objection shall for any reason fail to appear and substantiate his objection, either in person or by agent on the specified date, the Revising Authority shall proceed as if no objection had been made.

20. Every notice issued by the Revising Authority shall be in writing and shall be served at the address as entered in the preliminary roll or at such other address as may be specified by the claimant or objector in his notice of claim or objection, the person objected to being served only at the address given in the roll, provided that a notice may be served by the Revising Authority by sending it to the person concerned by post.

The notice to be issued to the person objected to shall be either posted seven days before the date fixed for hearing the objection, or served three days before that date if served otherwise than by post.

21. The Registering Authority shall cause to be published from time to time on the notice-board at the Central Municipal Office, a notice showing generally the date on which and the places at which the Revising Authority will sit for hearing claims and objections.

22. The Revising Authority shall dispose of all claims and objections by a date to be fixed by the Registering Authority.

23. On the date fixed for the hearing or on such other date to which the hearing may be adjourned, the Revising Authority shall hold a summary inquiry into the claims or objections preferred, and shall record his orders either allowing or disallowing the claims or objections. He shall also decide on any application or reference made by the Registering Authority for making corrections in the preliminary roll. For the purposes of the inquiry the preliminary roll as published shall be presumed to be correct and complete until the contrary has been proved.

24. (1) The orders of the Revising Authority shall be communicated by him to the Registering Authority, who shall cause the roll to be amended in accordance therewith and shall endorse the same in token that this has been done.

(2) The roll thus amended shall be the final electoral roll and shall thereupon be published by the Registering Authority in the manner prescribed for the publication of the preliminary roll in rule 12.

25. It shall be the duty of the Executive Officer to produce all relevant or necessary documents or papers in his power or possession and otherwise render necessary assistance to the Registering Authority and the Revising Authority in the discharge of their duties.

26. Printed copies of the final electoral roll shall be sold to the public at such prices as may from time to time be fixed by the Executive Officer.

27. All costs incurred in connection with the preparation and printing of the electoral roll, the publication of notices and taking any other action under these rules, shall be payable from the Municipal Fund:

Provided that if the Registering Authority and other persons employed in connection with the preparation and publication of the electoral roll are servants of the Crown, they shall be paid by the Provincial Government such emoluments as may be fixed by the Provincial Government and the Corporation shall, out of the Municipal Fund, pay to the Provincial Government the amounts of emoluments so fixed.

HOME DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATIONS.

New Delhi, the 7th February 1942.

No. 3/6/42-Intt.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Foreigners Act, 1940 (II of 1940), the Central Government is pleased to make the following Regulations determining the conditions of discipline and the punishment of offences and breaches of discipline of internees:—

1. (1) These Regulations may be called the Internees (Discipline) Regulations, 1942.

(2) They shall apply to internees confined or detained in any place (hereinafter referred to as an internment camp) in pursuance of section 4 of the Foreigners Act, 1940 (II of 1940), but shall not apply to internees detained at Dehra Dun and Ramgarh.

2. The Central Government shall appoint a Commandant for every internment camp.

3. (1) Subject to the provisions of these Regulations, the custody of, and the maintenance of discipline among, internees shall be regulated by orders issued by the Commandant.

(2) A copy of such orders shall be forwarded without delay to the Central Government and the Central Government may cancel or modify such orders as it thinks fit.

(3) Orders issued under this regulation shall be communicated to internees in a language which they understand.

4. Any internee who contravens, or fails to comply with, any order made under regulation 3, or whose conduct is otherwise prejudicial to the maintenance of discipline among internees, shall be deemed to have committed an internment camp offence:

Provided that where the act constituting such offence constitutes an offence punishable under the Indian Penal Code with imprisonment for a term exceeding one year, it shall not be deemed to be an internment camp offence.

5. The Commandant upon receiving information of a charge made against an internee under his custody of having committed an internment camp offence, shall dismiss the charge, if he is of opinion that it ought not be proceeded with.

6. If the Commandant is of opinion that the charge ought to be proceeded with, he may either deal summarily with the case, or, if he is of opinion that the offence could not be adequately punished by him, he may forward the internee for trial, together with a statement of the circumstances of the case, to the Court of a Magistrate of the first class having jurisdiction.

7. If the Commandant decides to deal summarily with the case, the accused person may demand that the evidence shall be taken on oath, and in such case the same oath or solemn declaration as that required to be taken of witnesses before a court established under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, shall be administered to each witness.

8. Where the Commandant proceeds to deal with the case summarily, he may award the accused person any of the following punishments (hereinafter referred to as summary punishments), namely:—

(i) Detention for any period not exceeding twenty-eight days.

(ii) Confinement to quarters for any period not exceeding 14 days during which period the offender may be required to answer his name at uncertain hours during the day and may be employed on extra fatigue duties; or

(iii) Suspension of such privileges, not being privileges attaching to his status, as the Commandant may order;

Provided that—

(a) if an internee is awarded detention for a period of ten days or more, he shall not be committed to the detention barrack within three days of the termination of any previous award of detention, and shall not again be committed to the detention barrack within three days of the termination of the said period of ten days or more;

(b) an internee on whom a summary punishment is inflicted shall not be deprived of the privileges attaching to his status;

(c) an internee undergoing a summary punishment shall not be subjected to treatment less favourable than that prescribed, as regards punishment of the same kind, for persons of the like status subject to military law as soldiers.

9. A summary punishment of detention shall be awarded in hours up to a maximum of 168 hours, or in days, when the sentence exceeds that period. A period of detention in hours shall be deemed to begin at the time when the internee under sentence is received at the camp detention barrack on the day of the award, or, if for any reason he has not been committed to the barrack on that day, on the day after the day of the award at the hour fixed for the commitment and release of persons under sentence of detention. A period of detention in days shall be deemed to begin on the day of the award.

10. A summary sentence of detention awarded by the Commandant shall be executed in such manner as the Central Government may from time to time direct:

Provided that a class A internee who is sentenced to a summary punishment of detention shall not be placed in the same premises as a class B internee undergoing the same punishment.

11. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, an internee who has been forwarded to a criminal court under regulation 6 for trial shall not be released on bail, nor remanded to custody otherwise than in the internment camp.

(2) Where an internee has been remanded to custody in an internment camp under sub-regulation (1) he shall be kept under confinement in the camp detention barracks or elsewhere, as the Commandant may direct:

Provided that the internee shall not, by virtue of such confinement, be subject to any other conditions which may be imposed on persons undergoing summary punishment.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, where an internee is found by the criminal court to be guilty of an internment camp offence, the court shall, before determining the punishment to be awarded to the internee, receive and take into consideration such evidence as may be offered as to the previous conduct of the accused, and the general state of discipline, in the internment camp.

12. An internee shall not be liable to be tried by a criminal court on any charge which has been dismissed or dealt with summarily under these Regulations, and shall not be liable to be dealt with summarily under these Regulations for any offence of which he has been acquitted or convicted by a competent criminal court.

13. (1) An internee who escapes from an internment camp and is recaptured before he has been able to escape from India shall be liable, for such escape, to a summary punishment only.

(2) An internee who, having escaped from India, is again captured, shall not be liable to any punishment for his previous escape.

(3) An internee who abets the escape, or attempt to escape, of another internee shall be liable only to summary punishment for such abetment.

14. An internee shall not be liable to be punished for submitting a petition or complaint with regard to the conditions of his internment, even though such petition or complaint is found to be groundless.

15. An internee convicted by a criminal court of an internment camp offence shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year and shall also be liable to fine.

16. (1) All trials under these Regulations shall be held within the limits of the internment camp and members of the public shall be excluded.

(2) The Commandant may leave the prosecution in the hands of the normal prosecuting agency or appoint such person as he thinks fit to conduct the prosecution.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, or any other law, no pleader as defined in the said Code shall be entitled to appear or act on behalf of the accused without the previous consent of the court.

Office of the Inspector of Schools, Burdwan Division.

NOTIFICATION.

Chinsura, the 6th February 1942.

Examination in the Art and Practice of Teaching, Burdwan Division.

An examination in the Art and Practice of Teaching for teachers of English subjects in Boys' Secondary Schools (aided and unaided) will be held at the Hooghly Training School on Monday, the 20th April 1942, at 11 a.m., and on the following date, if necessary. The examination of teachers of vernacular subjects and oriental classical languages of the same schools will also be held on the same date and at the same place and hour.

2. The following teachers are eligible for the examination:—

(a) Teachers of English subjects, who have passed (i) the Matriculation or some higher University Examination, or (ii) the Middle English Scholarship Examination or the terminal examination at the end of the middle stage of instruction. The examination of these teachers will be conducted in English.

(b) Teachers of vernacular subjects, who have passed the same examinations, or the Middle Vernacular Scholarship Examination, or the terminal examination at the end of the middle stage of instruction. The examination of these teachers will be conducted in vernacular.

(c) Pandits and Maulvis employed in teaching an oriental classical language other than Pandits in Sanskrit tols and Maulvis in Madrasahs. They must have passed the Sanskrit Title Examination or the Final Examination of a Senior Grade Madrasah. The examination in the case of these classes of teachers will be conducted either in English or vernacular at the option of the candidate.

3. The examination will consist of—

(a) A practical examination in class control, the candidate being required to keep a class of at least a dozen boys attentive and fully occupied throughout a lesson.

(b) A practical test of teaching ability, the candidate being required to give two lessons on any two of the subjects—English, Bengali, Sanskrit, Arabic, Persian, Urdu, History, Geography, Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry, etc.

(c) An oral examination, in which the Inspector of Schools or other examiner will ask questions on the Art of Teaching, object lessons, class management, organisation and discipline.

4. The following books are recommended for study by the candidate:—

(a) For teachers of English subjects—

(1) Indian Teachers' Guide, by P. Wren, (2) Indian School Organisation, by P. Wren, (3) Suggestions for the consideration of Teachers (Board of Education, Whitehall), (4) Talks to Teachers (James), (5) Art of Teaching, by D. Salmon, (6) Direct Method, by Tate and Rajagopalchari.

(b) For teachers of vernacular subjects—

(1) শিক্ষা-বিজ্ঞান, by Khan Bahadur Abdur Rahman Khan, (2) শিক্ষা by Ramani Ranjan Sen Gupta, (3) Teachers' Manual, by Khan Bahadur Ahsanullah, (4) পাঠ টীকা লিখিবার পদ্ধতি, by Jagannath Dey, (5) মনোবিজ্ঞান, by S. C. Brahmachary, (6) ভূগোল শিক্ষা প্রণালী, by I. Haque.

(c) Teachers of oriental classical languages may study any of the above sets of books.

5. Intending candidates from High Schools should submit their applications through the Head Masters, and teachers of Middle Schools, and Junior Madrasahs through the District Inspectors, so as to reach this office not later than the 21st March 1942. Every candidate will produce at the time of the examination the certificate of his having passed the University or other examination, which admits him to the present examination. The following information should accompany the application:—

(1) Name (in full).
(2) Name of father (in full).
(3) Names of native village and district.
(4) Last examination passed.
(5) Year of passing.
(6) Period of service as a teacher.
(7) Present appointment with date (mention whether he is a teacher of English subjects or vernacular subjects or of oriental languages).
(8) Two class subjects in which he wishes to be examined.
(9) Signature of applicant with full address.

6. Every candidate must bring with him at the time of examination two lesson notes on the subjects in which he wishes to give lessons. These notes should be made over to the examiner at the time of the practical examination.

7. Candidates should state whether they sat for the examination previously; if so, how often, giving dates.

8. Only limited number of candidates (50) will be admitted to the examination and application received after the date prescribed in rule 5 above, or after the limit is reached will not be considered. They will have to wait for the next examination.

No. 702F.—In exercise of the powers conferred by article 4 of the Statutes of this Faculty published with Government of Bengal resolution No. 2545Medl., dated the 11th August 1914, the Governing Body have been pleased to elect the undermentioned gentlemen to be Fellows of this Faculty honoris causa:—

(1) Dr. Bamandas Mukherjee, L.M.S., M.R.C.O.G.

(2) Dr. Naliniranjan Sengupta, M.D.

(3) Dr. Kumudsankar Ray, M.A., B.SC., M.B., Ch.B.

(4) Dr. Muslehuddin Ahmed, B.A., L.M.P., D.D.S.

(5) Dr. Narendrakisor Ray, L.M.P.

(6) Dr. Krishnachandra Chakrabarti, L.M.F.

Office of the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal.

NOTIFICATION.

Calcutta, the 21st February 1942.

Subject to the usual conditions of good conduct and satisfactory progress, the Durga Charan Laha Junior Scholarship of Rs. 10 a month for the year 1941 is awarded to Jitendrakumar Ghosh, who passed the Matriculation Examination of Calcutta University held in 1941 from the Jessore Sammilani Institution.

The scholarship is tenable at the Asutosh College, Bhowanipur, Calcutta, for two years with effect from 1st June 1941.

J. M. BOTTOMLEY,
Director of Public Instruction, Bengal.

Office of the Inspector of Schools, Burdwan Division.

Syllabuses—Session 1942-43.

Faculty of Science.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS.

B.Sc. (Pass) Degree Examination, 1944.

I. (a) Properties of Matter.

Laws of motion; work, power and energy; units and dimensions of physical quantities; motion in straight and circular paths; frictions; elasticity; moments of inertia (simple cases only); gravitation; simple harmonic motion; pressure in liquids and gases; viscosity of fluids; specific gravities; capillary action.

(b) Sound.

Wave motion; production and propagation of sound; noises and musical notes and their characteristics; musical scale and intervals; interference, consonance and dissonance; vibrations of strings and air columns; resonance.

II. Heat.

Temperature and thermometers; expansion; calorimetry; change and continuity of state; properties of vapours; hygrometry; first law of thermodynamics; conduction, convection and radiation; elementary ideas of steam and other heat engines.

Laboratory work (two periods of three hours each per week).—The spherometer; specific gravities; Young's modulus; modulus of rigidity; simple pendulum and determination of "g"; atmospheric pressure and Boyle's law; surface-tension of water and mercury; velocity of sound; determination of pitch; the sonometer; Melde's experiments; expansion of solids, liquids and gases; determination of specific and latent heats; cooling; hygrometry.

III. Light.

Propagation of light; photometry; reflection and refraction; prisms, mirrors and lenses; the human eye and defects of vision; optical instruments; dispersion and aberration; velocity of light; polarisation and double refraction; elementary ideas of the wave-theory; reflection and refraction of plane and spherical waves from plane and spherical surfaces; interference and diffraction in simple cases.

IV.—Magnetism and Electricity.

Fundamental ideas of magnetism; magnetic measurements; terrestrial magnetism; dip, declination; fundamental ideas and general theorems in electrostatics; capacity and condensers; electrical machines, electrometer; atmospheric electricity, primary and secondary cells; general effects of currents; currents and magnets; Ampere's hypothesis; aperiodic galvanometer; elementary principles of dynamos and motors; divided circuits; Ohm's law; electromotive force; resistance, Joule's law; thermo-electricity; electro-magnetic induction; induction coils; electrical units, electrolysis, radioactivity—elementary theory only; X-Rays, elementary theory.

Laboratory work:—Refraction through prisms; refractive indices; focal lengths of mirrors and lenses; magnifying powers; the spectrometer; law of inverse square in the case of magnets; determination of "H"; lines of force, dip; verification of Ohm's law; the tangent galvanometer; comparison of resistances and electromotive forces; the potentiometer; Wheatstone's bridge, electro-chemical equivalents.

The final examination at the end of the 2nd year will consist of two theoretical papers of three hours each and one practical examination for six hours.

Paper I.

Part I. Properties of Matter and Sound.

Part II. Heat.

Paper II.

Part I. Light.

Part II. Magnetism and Electricity.

III. Practical Examination.

Text-books recommended:—

Watson. Text-book of Physics.
Ramsey. Geometrical Optics.
Wagstaff. Properties of Matter.
Catchpool. Sound.
Poynting and Thomson. Sound.
Edser. Heat for Advanced Students.
Houston. Intermediate Light.
Edser. Light.
Hadley. Electricity and Magnetism.
Hutchinson. Intermediate Text-books of Electricity and Magnetism.
Starling. Magnetism and Electricity.
Allen and Moore. Text-book of Practical Physics.
Datta. Text-book of Practical Physics.
Ganguly Practical Physics.

HONOURS SCHOOL OF PHYSICS.

B. Sc. (Honours) Degree Examination, 1945.

I. Mechanics and Properties of Matter.

Motion in straight and circular paths; laws of motion, work, power and energy; units and dimensions of physical quantities; collision and impact; rotatory motion; moments of inertia, simple harmonic motion and motion about a fixed axis; simple and compound pendulums; attractions; potential gravitation; theory of elasticity; hydrostatics; liquids in motion; Bernoulli's theorem; discharge through an orifice; water-wheels, turbines, centrifugal pumps, surface-tension and capillarity; viscosity.

II. Heat.

Temperature and thermometers; expansion; calorimetry; conduction and convection of heat; change of state; properties of vapours, hygrometry, kinetic theory of gases; the continuity of states; steam and heat-engines; diffusion of gases; theory of pumps.

III. Sound.

Wave motion; propagation of sound; noises and musical notes; musical scale; interference, transverse vibration of strings; longitudinal and torsional vibrations of bars; plane waves of sound; vibration of air-columns in pipes; resonance, analysis of vibrations; combination tones, consonance and dissonance; the ear and musical instruments.

Laboratory work (three periods of three hours each per week):—The balance; sensibility curve; calibration of weights; the cathetometer; density determination with corrections; determination of elastic constants; determination of "g" by simple and compound pendulums; surface-tensions; viscosity; moments of inertia, expansion of liquids; expansion of solids and liquids by weight thermometers; calibration of thermometer tubing; experiments on specific heat; steam calorimeter; hygrometry; vapour-density; conductivity; mechanical equivalent of heat.

IV. Light.

(a) Geometrical Optics.—Photometry; reflection and refraction; mirrors, prisms, lenses; Fermat's law; aberration; caustics; dispersion and achromatism; optical instruments; velocity of light.

(b) Physical Optics.—Wave theory; interference and diffraction; polarisation and double refraction; spectroscopy; theories of dispersion and radiation.

V. Statical Electricity and Magnetism.

(a) Statical Electricity.—General phenomena and general theorems; potential and energy in electrified system; capacity; dielectrics and specific inductive capacity; atmospheric electricity.

(b) Magnetism.—General phenomena and general theorems; inverse square law; magnetic fields; induced magnetisation; magnetic properties of materials; magnetic susceptibility and permeability; para ferro and diamagnetism; terrestrial magnetism; magnetism and light.

VI. Thermodynamics and Radiation.

The laws of thermodynamics and their applications to various problems; equilibrium of systems; the phase rule; theory of the galvanic cells; thermo-electric phenomena; the Nernst heat-theorem; theory of radiation; Kirchhoff's law; theory of exchange; Stefan's law, Wien's displacement law; Planck's Radiation formula.

Laboratory work (three periods of three hours each per week).—

Light: Laws of geometrical optics; mirrors, prisms and lenses; optical bench; optical instruments; magnifying powers; the spectroscope and the spectrometer; bi-prisms; Newton's rings; polarimeter.

Sound: Velocity of sound; frequency of vibrations of strings; vibrations of air column.

Magnetism: Fundamental properties and laws; magnetometry; oscillations of a magnet in a magnetic field; the earth's magnetic field.

VII. Current Electricity.

The electric current: Ohm's law; electromotive force and resistance; electrolysis; thermo-electricity; electro-magnetics; varying currents; alternating currents; units and dimensions; electro-magnetic radiation.

Electromagnetic theory—fundamental equations; early experimental verifications; refraction in isotropic media; dispersion.

VIII. Modern Physics.

Gaseous conduction; the atomic nature of electricity; electron, determination of charge and mass; X-Rays, modes of production; fluorescent and continuous radiations; works of Barkla, Moseley and Bragg; determination of characteristic wave length; radioactivity; elementary ideas of the Quantum Theory.

Laboratory work (five periods of three hours each per week).—

Current electricity: measurement of current, electromotive force and resistance; electrolysis; induced currents; comparison of capacities.

IX. Wireless.

Modes of generation and reception. Principles of wireless telephony.

Examinations.—Five papers of three hours each and a practical examination for 18 hours.

B. Sc. Honours.

Text-books recommended:—

Loney. Dynamics of a Particle and of Rigid Bodies.
Newman and Searle. The General Properties of Matter.

Allen and Moore. Practical Physics.
Worsnop and Flint. Advanced Practical Physics.

Physics for the M. Sc. Degree Examination.

Two years' course for Ordinary students.

Part I.—M. Sc. Course for 1943.

Light.—Physical Optics (same as for B.Sc. Honours); static and current electricity and magnetism (same as for B.Sc. Honours); radiation and thermodynamics (same as for B.Sc. Honours); gravitation, theory of elasticity, including theory of vibration; capillarity and viscosity of liquids and gases; kinetic theory of matter.

Part I.—M.Sc. Examination will consist of three theoretical papers and a two days' parctical examination.

Paper I.—General Physics and Thermodynamics.

Paper II.—Physical Optics and Radiation.

Paper III.—Electricity and Magnetism.

Practical Examination for two days.

Part II.—M.Sc. Course for 1944.

Part II (by Examination).

Paper I.—Electro-magnetic Theory, Electron Theory, Classical Optics.

Paper II.—Quantum Theory including its application in X-Rays, Spectroscopy, Magnetism and Constitution of matter and general ideas about radioactivity.

Paper III.—One of the following subjects:—

(b) X-Rays and Crystallography.

(c) Relativity and Wave mechanics.

Paper IV.—(100 marks) Practical Examination on the general subjects extending over two days.

Paper V.—(100 marks) Practical Examination on the special subject extending over two days.

Practical.

General subjects.

Measurement of Self Inductance and Mutual Inductance, and capacity.

Lorentz's method of determining the absolute value of an Ohm.

Determination of e/m by a diode valve.

Characteristic curves of diodes and triodes.

Heterodyne method of determining dielectric constant.

Lecher wire waves.

Spectrum Photography (ultra-violet and visible).

Michelson's Interferometer.

Dispersion of birefringence and rotation of the plane of polarisation of quartz.

Debye-Scherrer photograph.

Practical.

Special subjects.

(I) Wireless Telegraphy and Telephony.

Miller's method of measuring the amplifying power and slope resistance of a valve.

Construction of undamped Oscillatory Circuits: (Hartley and Tuned anode); measurements of wavelengths.

High frequency measurement of self and mutual inductance and resistance of coil; verification of self-inductance by calculation.

Determination of the antenna constants.

Construction of damped Oscillatory Circuits and its calibration.

Production and reception of damped waves—determination of decrement (for the aerial and the wavemeter circuits).

Generation of unmodulated waves—determination of wavelength by heterodyne principles.

Reception of wireless waves: (a) construction of a two-valve set (tuned-anode coupling); (b) addition of a Reaction coil; (c) addition of an L. F. stage transformer coupling.

Construction of thermionic voltmeter and its calibration.

Determination of the field-strength.

Generation of ultra-short waves and determination of wavelengths by Lecher-wires: measurement of the dielectric constant of a liquid.

Generation of modulated waves and its reception.

Determination of the degree of modulation.

Simple experiments with cathode-ray oscillograph.

(II) X-Rays and Crystallography.

Setting up of a Hadding Tube.

Spectroscopy of X-Rays.

Absorption Spectroscopy of X-Rays.

Powder Photograph.

Laue Photograph.

Rotation Photograph.

(III) Spectroscopy (For Group C).

(Intensity measurements and absorption measurements.)
Concave Grating.
Zeeman Effect by Lummer-Gehrke Plate.
Raman Effect.
Fabry and Perot Etalon—Fine structure of spectral lines.

CHEMISTRY.

B. Sc. Pass.

Physical Chemistry.

Theoretical.—Essential features of chemical and physical change. Laws of chemical combination by weight and volume, atomic theory: Avogadro's hypothesis and its application; determination of molecular weights; dissociation of gases, elementary knowledge of (1) the Kinetic Theory of Gases, (2) Theory of Solutions, (3) Electrolytic Dissociation Theory, (4) Chemical equilibrium, (5) Velocity of chemical reactions, (6) Catalysis, (7) Thermal changes accompanying chemical reactions, and (8) Colloidal solutions.

Books recommended as texts:—

1. Introduction to Physical Chemistry, by Sir James Walker.

2. Physical Chemistry, by G. Senter.
3. Text-book of Physical Chemistry, by P. C. Raychoudhury.

Organic Chemistry.

Theoretical.—General principles of organic analysis. Preparation and properties of the following:—

Methane and ethane and their simple derivatives, viz., halogen derivatives, alcohols, ethers, aldehydes, ketones, acids, esters, acetyl chloride, acetic anhydride, acetamide, amines, cyanogen compounds, ethylene, acetylene, glycol, glycerine, cane-sugar, dextrose, fructose, starch, lactic acid, oxalic acid, succinic acid, malic acid, citric acid, tartaric acid, urea, benzene and toluene and their simple derivatives, viz., monohaloid, nitro, amino, hydroxy and sulphonic acid, benzyl alcohol, benzaldehyde, acetophenone, benzoic acid, salicylic acid.

Practical.—Identification of the following organic substances given single:—

Methyl alcohol, ethyl alcohol, chloroform, ether, acetone, formaldehyde, glycerine, formic acid, acetic acid, oxalic acid, tartaric acid, citric acid, cane-sugar, glucose, starch, urea, benzene, aniline, phenol, benzoic acid.

Determination of melting and boiling points of organic compounds.

Text-book recommended:—

Cohen's Organic Chemistry.

Inorganic Chemistry.

Theoretical.—Preparation and properties of the following elements and their chief compounds:—

Oxygen, hydrogen, nitrogen, helium, argon, fluorine, chlorine, bromine, iodine, sulphur, boron, carbon, silicon, phosphorus, arsenic, sodium, potassium, calcium, strontium, barium, magnesium, manganese, iron, nickel, cobalt, tin, lead, antimony, bismuth, gold, silver, copper, zinc, mercury, cadmium, aluminium, chromium.

Chemical notation and nomenclature. Interpretation of chemical formulæ. Classification and mutual relation of elements. Compound radicals. Double decomposition, allotropy.

Practical.—Qualitative analysis of inorganic substances containing not more than two salt radicals.

Volumetric estimation of alkalis, alkaline carbonates, acids, iron, silver, barium, copper and iodine.

Gravimetric estimation of copper sulphate or any similar substance.

Inorganic Chemistry, by Partington.
Qualitative Chemical Analysis, by Mollow Perkin.
Quantitative Chemical Analysis, Part I, by Caven.

B.Sc. Honours.

Physical Chemistry.

Paper I.—

Theoretical.—Laws of chemical combination by weight and volume; atomic theory and Avogadro's hypothesis; molecular weights of gases; Kinetic theory of gases;

Liquefaction of gases; viscosity and surface tension of liquids. Law of conservation of energy; energy changes in chemical transformation.

Second Law of thermodynamics; vaporisation of liquids and fusion of solids. General treatment of the Third Law of thermodynamics.

Osmosis; theory of solution; thermodynamic treatment of the properties of solutions.

Laws of electrolysis; molecular conductivity of electrolytic solutions.

Transport number of ions; electrolytic dissociation theory.

Chemical changes in homogeneous system; Law of mass action; reaction isochore; velocity of mono and bimolecular reactions; determination of the order of reaction, equilibrium in electrolytic solutions; theory of indicators. General treatment of activity coefficient.

Chemical changes in heterogenous systems; catalysis, Phase rule.

Theory of Galvanic cells; absolute value of single electrode potential, decomposition potential; concentration and gas cells.

Determination of Avogadro's number.

Elements of quantum theory, specific heat.

Colloidal solutions. Coagulation. Ultramicroscopy. Cataphoresis, Electro-osmosis and Streaming Potential. Adsorption. Iso-electric point. Emulsion. Colloidal Electrolytes. Electrodialysis. Ultrafiltration.

Practical—

1. Determination of Mol. Wts.—
   (a) Chemical Method.
   (b) Victor Meyer's Method.
   (c) Freezing point Method.

2. (a) Partition co-efficient of I_2 between water and carbon tetrachloride.
   (b) Study of the equilibrium $KI + I_2 = KI_3$.

3. (a) Partition co-efficient of aniline between water and benzene.
   (b) Degree of hydrolysis of aniline hydrochloride.

4. Density of liquids at different temperatures.
5. Viscosity of liquids at different temperatures.
6. Refractive index of liquids at different temperatures.
7. Polarimeter—
   (a) Specific rotation of cane sugar.
   (b) Rate of inversion of cane sugar.

8. Comparison of strength of acids by hydrolysis of methyl acetate.
9. Saponification of ethyl acetate.
10. Absorption of acetic acid by charcoal.
11. (a) Preparation of arsenic sulphide sol.
   (b) Coagulation values of KCl, $BaCl_2$ and $AlCl_3$.

12. Solubility product.
13. Transport number.
14. Heat of solution.
15. Heat of neutralisation.
16. Conductivity measurements—
   (a) Cell constant.
   (b) Verification of Ostwald's dilution law.
   (c) Solubility of sparingly soluble salts.
   (d) Degree of hydrolysis of aniline hydrochloride.
   (e) Conductometric titration.

17. E. M. F. measurements—

(a) Preparation of calomel electrode.
(b) Single electrode potential.
(c) Potentio-metric titration.

Books recommended for reference:—

Physicochemical Calculation, by Knox.
Electro-chemistry, by Leblanc.

Practical text-books:—

Practical Physical Chemistry, by Findlay.
Practical Physical Chemistry, by Fajans and Wyst (English translation).

Organic Chemistry.

Paper II.—

A thorough knowledge of general organic Chemistry including the Chemistry of Ketonic esters and diketones, of the heterocyclic systems, furane, thiophene, pyrrole, diazoles and diazines, pyridine, quinoline, iso-quinoline; of the amino acids, polypeptides and purines; of condensation reactions; of the polymethylene group including the application of Baeyer's Strain Theory; of the carbohydrates, glucose, arabinose, xylose and fructose; of the terpenes terpeneol, dipentene, pinene, camphor, citral and ionone; of the alkaloids' piperine, cocaine and papaverine; the stereo chemistry of carbon; the more important types of synthetic drugs; a general knowledge of isomerism and isomeric change.

Practical.—

(a) Detection of the following groups of compounds given singly:—

Hydrocarbon, aldehyde, ketone, acid, ester, ether, phenol, nitro, primary, secondary and tertiary amine, amide, imide, substituted amide, purines, mercaptan, sulphide, sulphone, sulphonic acid, haloginated hydrocarbon, aldehyde, acid, phenol, etc.

(b) Preparation of the following classes of derivatives where possible:—

Picrate, ether, ester, oxime, hydrazone, semicarbazone, phenyl hydrasone, osazone, nitro, amino, azo, nitroso-derivatives, oxidation, reduction and halogination products.

(c) Preparation of the following substances:—

methyl iodide, amyl nitrite, acetylchloride, nitromethane, ethyl malonic acid, nitrobenzene, aniline, acetanilide, p-nitraniline, p-iodotoluene, sulphanilic acid, methyl orange, floureseein, salicyl aldehyde, methyl benzoate, cinnamic acid, anthranilic acid, lactose from milk, tryptophane, cystin and cholesterol.

Inorganic Chemistry.

Paper III.—

Theoretical.—

1. Physical and Chemical properties of the typical elements.
2. Groups of elements in Mendeleeff's classification and their chemistry.
3. Principles of metallurgy and elements of metallography.
4. Types of chemical compounds, e.g., polar and non-polar, double and complex salts, peracids and persalts, carbonyl and nitroxyl compounds.
5. Elements of crystallography.
6. Views on valency.
7. Chemical and radio-active properties of radio-elements.
8. Isotopy.
9. Main features in the structure of atoms.
10. Properties of the fundamental particles.

Practical.—Qualitative analysis of inorganic substances or mixtures containing not more than five radicals.

1. Estimation of Iron as Fe_2O_3; Barium as $BaSO_4$; Zinc as $ZnNH_4PO_4$; Silver as AgCl and Manganese as $Mn_2P_2O_7$.
2. Separation of Iron and manganese; estimation of Iron volumetrically; Manganese as $Mn_2P_2O_7$. To prepare a solution of $KMnO_4$ and to standardise it with—

(a) $FeSO_4$, $(NH_4)_2SO_4$, $6H_2O$.

(b) $Na_2C_2O_4$.

To estimate Fe^{+++} with $KMnO_4$ in presence of chloride (using Re-inhart's solution).

To estimate manganese in the presence as well as absence of iron by Volhard's method.

To estimate Fe^{+++} with $K_2Cr_2O_7$ with external indicator and with internal indicator.

3. Separation of Cu and Ni; Cu and Zn.

Cu-Volumetrically.
Ni-by dimethyl glyoxime.
Zn-as $Zn_2P_2O_7$ or $ZnNH_4PO_4$.
To prepare a standard solution of Iodine. To standardise a Thio-sulphate solution by I_2, $K_2Cr_2O_7$ or $KMnO_4$. To prepare a starch solution.

4. Separation of Ca and Mg, estimation of Ca-Volumetrically, estimation of Mg-by 8-oxyquinolin. To prepare standard $KBrO_3$ and KBr solution.
5. Estimation of silver by Volhard's method with estimation of Chloride by $AgNO_3$, Fluorescein as adsorption indicator.
6. Estimation of Phosphoric acid.
7. Estimation of Lead.
8. Practice in charging electroscope at voltages corresponding to the scale divisions and calibration of electroscope.
9. Measurement of relative radio-activity of different sources.
10. Estimation of absorption co-efficient of the beta rays.

Paper IV.

Either

Applied Chemistry.

Theoretical.—Technology of fuels. A general study of the following (including methods of manufacture):—

Sulphuric acid, sodium and potassium salts, caustic soda, hydrochloric acid, chlorine, bleaching powder, nitrogen compounds, fertilisers, aluminium sulphate, cement, glass and ceramics.

Fuels, carbonisation of coal, petroleum and coal tar industry; distillation of wood; oils, fats and related industries; sugar, starch, cellulose and related industries; general properties of enzymes and their industrial application.

Metallurgy of iron.

Practical.—

1. Analysis of coal.

(a) moisture, (b) volatile matter and coke, (c) ash, (d) sulphur.

2. Analysis of water—

(a) total solid, (b) hardness—temporary and permanent, (c) chlorine, (d) organic matter, (e) ammonia, (f) iron, (g) dissolved oxygen.

3. Gas analysis.

(a) CO_2, (b) O_2, (c) olefines, (d) CO.

4. Estimation of cane sugar and glucose by (i) Fehling solution method and (ii) Benedict method.

5. Analysis of oils and fats.

(a) Saponification value, (b) Iodine value, (c) Reichart-Meissel value, (d) Polenske value, (e) acid value.

6. Soap analysis—(a) moisture, (b) total alkali and acid, (c) filling matter if any.

7. Estimation of tannin (Hide powder method).

8. Lubricating Oil (Sp. gr., Fl. Pt., viscosity, volatility).

9. Milk analysis—Sp. gr., fat, total solid.

Or

Bio-Chemistry.

Theoretical.—Cell structure.

Carbohydrates, classification and general knowledge of structure and properties. Photosynthesis. Metabolism.

Proteins—their composition and hydrolysis, amino-acids, group analysis by Van Slyke and other important methods. Their structure and molecular weight, colloidal behaviour and isoelectric point of protein solutions. General reactions of proteins.

Protein classification. Metabolism in plants and animals. Biological value of proteins.

Lipoids, Waxes and Fats. Classifications of fatty acids. Methods for the characterisation of fats and oils, rancidity of fats and oils. Metabolism of fats, oxidation.

Enzymes—Classification. Study of the principal enzymes.—

Extraction, purification, pH dependence, activation and inhibition of enzymes, mechanism of enzymes action.

Mechanism of biological oxidation—Respiration in plants and animals. Alcoholic fermentation. Chemistry of muscular contraction.

Mechanism of acetic fermentation.

Food-stuff—composition, digestion in the mouth, stomach and intestine. Absorption. Metabolism including inorganic metabolism. Vitamins including general knowledge of the occurrence, properties, methods of assay and chemical structure.

Elementary knowledge of carotinoids, sterols and bile acids.

Hormones including the thyroid, parathyroid, pituitary, adrenal, pancreatic and sex hormones.

Elements of microbiology including a general knowledge of protozoa, fungi, yeast and bacteria. Classification of bacteria. Study of soil micro-organisms and their effect on plant nutrients.

Practical.—

1. Microscopy; technique of staining the stock cultures; Gram staining. Isolation and purification of bacteria (Nitrogen fixing). Bacteriological examination of soil.
2. Methods of extraction, purification and estimation of invertase, of proteolytic ferments—trypsin, pepsin, papain and of oxidising enzymes.
3. Calorimetric determination of pH.
4. Test for proteins and sugars—identification of sugars.
5. Determination of saponification value, iodine number and Reichert-Meissel value of fats.
6. Estimation of amino acids by (i) Willstatter's method, (ii) Sorensen's method.
7. Van Slyke's method for determination of amino nitrogen and Kjeldahl's method of estimation of total nitrogen.
8. Estimation by an enzyme (starch by Takadiastase).
9. Biochemical preparations—cystine, glutamic acid and pure casein.
10. Estimation of glucose, calcium, phosphorus and albumin in urine.

Physics and Chemistry of Soils and Colloids.

PART I.

Theoretical—

Geology and Mineralogy of Soils—The origin of soil. Structural basis of mineral soils and study of ordinary soil minerals like felspar, kaolin, halloysite, talc, muscovite, beidellite, montmorillonite, glauconite, hornblende, olivine, etc. The main types of geological deposits, their occurrences and the conditions for their formations.

Processes of Development of Soil Profiles—The Science of Pedology. Weathering processes and development of the soil profile. Nature of subsoils. How soil profiles are modified by agricultural operations.

Knowledge of the gradual development of Soil Science in different countries of the world. The relation of Soil Science with practical agriculture.

Principles and uses of soil classification. The Great Soil Groups of the world. General methods of soil survey and soil mapping. Geographical distribution of soils, with special reference to India.

Composition of soils from physical and chemical standpoints—The nature and usefulness of sand, silt, clay, organic matter and calcium carbonate from agricultural point of view. Distinction between crystalline and amorphous products of weathering. The nature of soil organic matter. Fractionation of humus.

Mechanical Analysis and soil structure—General principles of mechanical analysis. The relation between the properties of soils and their mechanical analysis. Soil Texture and soil crumbs and their influence in determining plant growth. Soil tilth. Aggregate analysis. Soil factors bearing on cultivation.

General Physical properties of soils—True and apparent density. Pore space. Heat relationships. Shrinkage. Plasticity.

Soil colloids, base exchange and soil nutrients—Base exchange in soils. Soil reaction, acidity and lime requirement. Roles of ordinary plant nutrients, phosphorus, nitrogen and potassium. Total and available plant food material, how made available by agricultural operations.

Soil moisture and soil temperature—Forms in which moisture is held by the soil. Soil moisture constants. Variations of soil temperature.

Movement of salts in soil. Rise of moisture in soil. Drainage, conservation of moisture, the water-table, effects of precipitation and evaporation; formation of pans. Drought and water-logging. Influence of manures and agricultural practices on the conservation of soil moisture.

Types of soil erosion. Methods of preventing soil erosion and their relation to agricultural practices. Role of boron, silicon, manganese, copper, etc., plant nutrition.

General principles of soil reclamation. Reclamation of different types of soils, e.g., peat, alkali soils, etc.

Soil microbiology—The role of soil micro-organisms. Different types of soil organisms. Carbon and nitrogen cycles. The mode of formation of soil organic matter and the usual percentages of carbon present in it. The significance of carbon nitrogen ratio of the soil organic matter. Effects of partial sterilisation.

Artificial Manures—General principles of artificial manures. Retention of manures by soils.

PART II.

Theoretical—

Gibb's Theorem and adsorption, detailed study of electro kinetic phenomena, Protective colloids. Detailed knowledge of colloidal electrolytes, gels—detailed study of their properties—swelling thixotrophy—Liesegang Ring. Donnan Membrane Equilibrium. Perrin's distribution law. Nature and structure of soil colloids. Analogy of clay complexes with isoelectric precipitates, crystalline character of the clay complex. Suspension effect.

Practical—

1. Chemical analyses of soils,—silica, iron, aluminium, titanium, manganese, calcium, magnesium and potassium.
2. Determination of organic carbon in the soil by wet combustion method.
3. Determination of total nitrogen in the soil by Kjeldahl's method.
4. Determination of more important available soil nutrients (P, K, NO_3-nitrogen and NH_4-nitrogen).
5. Determination of carbonates in soils.
6. Determination of total exchangeable bases and lime requirement of soils. Determination of the degree of saturation.
7. Determination of maximum water-holding capacity of soils (Keen-Raczkowski Box Expt.), swelling of soils, density and porespace.
8. Mechanical analysis of soils.
9. Determination of moisture content at the point of stickiness.
10. Determination of pH of soils by colorimetric method and by quinhydrone method.
11. Determination of pH of soils by Hydrogen Electrode.
12. Potentiometric and conductometric titration of acid clays.
13. Determination of Heat of wetting of soils.
14. Determination of organic carbon by dry combustion method.
15. Preparation of Bredig's gold sol, sols and gels of ferric hydroxide, silicic acid, aluminium hydroxide.
16. Determination of electric charge of colloidal particles.

M. Sc. Examination.

PART I.

Physical Chemistry.

Theoretical.—Laws of chemical combination by weight and volume, atomic theory and Avogadro's hypothesis; molecular weight of gases.

Kinetic theory of gases.

Liquefaction of gases: Viscosity and surface tension of liquids. Law of conservation of energy; energy changes in chemical transformation. Second Law of thermodynamics; vaporisation of liquids and fusion of solids. General treatment of the Third Law of Thermodynamics.

Osmosis; theory of solution; Thermodynamic treatment of the properties of solutions.

Laws of electrolysis; molecular conductivity of electrolytic solutions. Transport number of ions; electrolytic dissociation theory. General treatment of activity coefficient.

Chemical changes in homogeneous system; Law of mass action; reaction isochore; velocity of mono and bimolecular reactions; determination of the order of reaction, equilibrium in electrolytic solutions; theory of indicators.

Chemical changes in heterogeneous system; Phase rule; catalysis; colloidal solutions.

Theory of galvanic cells.

Decomposition potential; concentration and gas cells. Determination of Avogadro's number.

Practical.—Practical work in the Laboratory is the same as in Honours Course.

Books recommended as text-books are the same as in the B.Sc. Honours in Physical Chemistry.

System of Physical Chemistry, by Lewis.
Physical Chemistry, by Taylor.
Osmotic Pressure, by Findlay.
Electro-Chemistry, by Leblanc.
Kinetics of chemical change in gaseous system, by Hinshelwood.

Practical text-books:—

Practical Physical Chemistry, by Findlay.
Practical Physical Chemistry, by Fajans and Wyst (English translation).

Inorganic Chemistry.

Theoretical.—

1. Groups of elements in Mendeleeff's classification and their chemistry.
2. Elements of Radio-Chemistry.
3. Different types of chemical compounds, e.g., double salts, complex salts, per acids and their salts, etc.
4. Views on valency, specially modern ones.
5. Isotopes.

Practical.—

1. Gravimetric estimation of (i) iron, (ii) Manganese, (iii) Zinc, (iv) Barium, and (v) SO_4 radical.
2. Volumetric estimation of (i) iron in a sample containing ferric salt, including standardization of $KMnO_4$ solution with sodium oxalate; (ii) Iron in a sample containing ferric salt, including standardization of $K_2Cr_2O_7$ solution with ferrous ammonium sulphate with a standardized $KMnO_4$ solution; (iii) Copper in sample containing cupric salt, including standardization of sodium thio-sulphate; (iv) Silver in a sample, including standardization of KCNS solution; (v) Silver in a sample, using adsorption indicator.

Separation and estimation of—

(i) Iron and Manganese.

(ii) Copper and Zinc.

(iii) Zinc and Nickel.

(iv) Calcium and magnesium.

Organic Chemistry.

Same as the Honours Course, omitting the abnormal valency of Carbon. Practical.—Organic preparations—same as in Honours Course.

PART II.

1. Organic Chemistry.

A thorough knowledge of the subjects included in the preliminary M.Sc. course together with the following:—

A general treatment of terpenes, alkaloids, carbohydrates, glucosides and tannins, natural colouring matter, proteins of the more important natural and synthetic dyestuffs and drugs; of the stereochemistry of C and N; of the valency of C, N, and O in organic compounds; of the phenomenon of unsaturation; of isomerism and isomeric changes; of the orientation in benzene series.

Practical.—

1. Organic detection—same as Honours.
2. Organic estimation and estimation of the following groups:—

Aldehyde, ketone, acid, nitro, amino, hydrazine, hydroxy, acetyl, methoxyl, carbohydrate (glucose, pentose, cane sugar). Estimation of halogen, nitrogen and S in organic compounds.

II. Either Applied Chemistry or Biochemistry.

(a) Applied Chemistry.

Theoretical.—

Paper I.—A more comprehensive study of the subjects included in the Honours course.

Paper II.—(a) Energy relations in electrochemical processes. Polarisation and energy efficiency. Cathodic and anodic processes. Over-voltage, Secondary cells, Theory of refining of metals. Electroplating. Alkali-chlorine cells. Preparation of hypochlorites, chlorates. (Theory and technique.) Electric furnaces.

(b) Typical metallurgical processes; the metallurgy of copper, aluminium and iron (including that of special steels), electrometallurgy. The physical properties of alloys. The micro-structure of pure metals and alloys.

Practical.—

Applied (General)—

1. Same as Honours B.Sc.

2. Following experiments so far as time permit.

(a) Sugar in molasses, (b) estimation of glycerine, (c) analysis of a sample of NaOH, (d) estimation of pentose, (e) estimation of cellulose, (f) Evaluation of oil cake.

Applied (Inorganic).—

I. Applied Electrochemistry—

A. Potentiometric estimation of chloride, bromide and iodide individually and from their mixtures.

B. Potentiometric titrations with Potassium Permanganate and Potassium Iodate.

C. Electrolytic separation of Copper, Nickel, Silver and Lead individually and analysis of mixtures containing Copper and Lead, Copper and Silver, Silver and Lead and Copper and Nickel.

D. Electrochemical preparation of two substances.

II. Inorganic Chemistry—

A. Analysis of Pig Iron—

Estimation of the following items:—

(a) Manganese, (b) Phosphorus, and (c) Sulphur.

B. Analysis of Cement—

Estimation of the following items:—

(a) Calcium, (b) Fe_2O_3 and Al_2O_3, (c) Silica, and (d) Magnesium oxide.

C. Analysis of a typical alloy.

Biochemistry.

Paper I.

1. A more comprehensive study of the subjects as included in the syllabus of the Honours Course.

2. Chemistry of food and nutrition with special reference to:—

(i) Enzymes and digestions.

(ii) Fate of Carbohydrates, fats and proteins in metabolism.

(iii) Nutritional Chemistry of proteins with reference to (a) Biological value of proteins, (b) the essential amino acids, and (c) supplementary relation between proteins.

(iv) Mineral metabolism including (1) The role of calcium, phosphorus iodine, Fe. Cu, Mn, sodium and chlorine in nutrition; (2) Acid base balance in food.

(v) Energy metabolism including basal metabolism.

(vi) Vitamins including occurrence, properties, assay and structure.

Paper II.

3. (i) Biochemistry of blood including its function, composition, platelets, leucocytes, errythrocytes, Haemolysis, plasma and serum proteins and blood coagulation.

(ii) The carriage of the blood gases and the acid base equilibrium of the blood.

4. Biochemistry of the brain with reference to carbohydrate and protein metabolism; sterols, phosphatides and cerebrosides of brain.

5. Detoxication.

6. Immuno-chemistry.

7. Detailed study of vitamins and hormones.

Practical.—

In addition to the experiments for the Honours course, the following experiments are to be performed:—

1. Estimation of moisture, proteins, fibre, fats, total ash, silica calcium and phosphorus in food-stuffs.

2. Determination of biological value of proteins—

(a) by the balance sheet method, and

(b) by growth of young rats.

3. Estimation of (a) Vitamin A by—

(i) The Lovibond Tintometer, and

(ii) The biological method.

(b) Vitamin B by the biological method.

(c) Vitamin C by indophenol titration.

(d) Vitamin D by biological methods.

4. (i) Preparation of urease and estimation of urea in urine.

(ii) Preparation and estimation of Catalase.

(iii) Use of Warburg's Respirometers and Thunberg's methylene blue tubes.

5. Estimation of Creatinine in urine.

6. Determination of—

(i) blood sugar,

(ii) blood urea,

(iii) blood gases by the volumetric apparatus of Van Slyke.

B. Sc. Pass.

PHYSIOLOGY.

Theoretical.

Paper I.

1. Elementary knowledge of the chemistry of (a) carbohydrates, (b) proteins, (c) fats, (d) other constituents of food-stuffs.

2. Organs involved in digestion and absorption of food.

3. Chemical processes involved in digestion (enzyme action). Digestion in the mouth, stomach and intestines.

4. Chemistry of milk.

5. Preliminary knowledge of the chemistry of blood.

6. General physiology of blood.

7. The circulation of blood.

8. Respiration—internal and external (the transport of O_2 and CO_2).

9. Properties and general physiology of contractile tissues.

10. Minute anatomy of salivary glands, œsophagus, stomach, small and large intestines, pancrease, liver, trachea, lungs, blood and lymph.

Paper II.

1. Chemistry of urine—important constituents only.

2. Excretion by kidneys, skin, lungs and liver.

3. Nutrition.

4. Hormones—insulin, adrenaline, thyroxin and pituitary hormones.

5. Intermediate metabolism of (a) carbohydrates, (b) proteins, (c) fats.

6. Vitamins A, B, C and D; broad classification, occurrence and properties.

7. Function and general physiology of nerve cells and nerve fibres.

8. Physiology of the brain and spinal cord and of the sympathetic nervous system.

9. Physiology of the organs of sense.

10. Mechanism of locomotion, voice and speech.

11. Histology and development of the cell.

12. Production and regulation of heat.

13. Minute anatomy of elementary tissues, spleen, lymphatic glands, kidneys, skin, tongue, spinal cord, cerebellum, cerebrum, thyroid and thymus.

Practical.

Chemical Physiology:—

1. Proteins—general reactions; test for albumins, glutelins and peptones; detection of these proteins.

2. Carbohydrates—glucose (monosaccharide), sucrose, lactose (disaccharides), starch and glycogen (polysaccharides); detection of these carbohydrates.

3. Fats—general reactions. Sterols—colour reactions.

4. Digestion—salivary and gastric (only with pepsin).

5. Urine—qualitative tests for (a) urea, uric acid and creatinine, (b) albumin, blood, bile, (c) quantitative examination of chlorides, albumin and sugar.

6. Milk—tests for the chief constituents.

Simple muscle curve (S.M.C.).

Effect of temperature on S.M.C.

Effect of load on S.M.C.

Effect of fatigue on S.M.C.

Effect of drugs on S.M.C.

Tetanus effect on S.M.C.

Summation curves (different stage).

Histology:—

1. Use of a compound microscope.
2. Circulation of blood in tadpole's tail.
3. Examination of (a) frog's blood, (b) avian blood, (c) human blood.
4. (a) Differential count of white blood corpuscles of human blood.

   (b) Total count of R. B. C. and W. B. C. of human blood.
5. Hæmin crystals of blood.
6. Microscopical examination of (a) lymph, (b) milk.
7. Preparation and staining of the mesentery of a frog.
8. Demonstration slides showing minute anatomy of the elementary tissues, salivary glands, œsophagus, stomach, small and large intestines, pancreas, liver, spleen, lymphatic gland, thymus, thyroid, kidney, trachea, lung, skin, tongue, spinal cord, cerebellum, cerebrum.
9. Staining and examination of the above tissues.
10. Study of the following instruments (Physiological):—

(i) Thoma-Zeiss Hæmo-cytometer.

(ii) Hellige Neoplan Hæmometer.

(iii) Sphygmomanometer.

(iv) Sartorious students' rocking and Swift's freezing microtomes.

(v) Ergograph.

(vi) Sphygmograph.

Text-books recommended:—

Office of the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal.

NOTIFICATION.

Calcutta, the 23rd February 1942.

The Second Grade Senior Scholarship of Rs. 15 a month reserved for Scheduled Caste boys awarded to Kshitindranath Ray, who passed the I.A. Examination from the Rangpur Carmichael College in 1941, in this office notification, dated the 5th August 1941, published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated 14th August 1941, is hereby withdrawn with effect from 1st June 1941.

The scholarship thus withdrawn is re-awarded to the following Scheduled Caste boy on the combined results of the Intermediate Examinations in Arts and Science of Calcutta University held in 1941, for a period of two years, with effect from 1st June 1941. The scholar is entitled to free tuition in the college to which he has been admitted for further studies from the beginning of the session:—

Notices

Advertisements, Notices, etc., intended for insertion in this part of the Gazette must be sent to Press before 12 noon on Saturday, and all costs deposited and proofs returned by 4 p.m. on Monday. Manuscripts and postal remittances must be addressed to Superintendent, Government Printing (Publication Branch), Bengal Government Press, Alipore.

For the convenience of advertisers located in Calcutta, arrangements have been made to accept advertisements and prepayment of charges at Sales Office, Ground Floor, Writers' Buildings, Calcutta. The latest time for receipt of advertisements for current week's Gazette has been extended till 4 p.m. on Mondays.

Land Sale Notices.

Notification A.

NOTICE is hereby given, under sections 6 and 13 of Act XI of 1859, that the undermentioned estates in the district of Mymensingh will be put up for sale at the office of the Collector of that district on 26th March 1942 at 12 noon for arrears of revenue, the instalments of which were due on or before 29th Agrahayan 1348 B.S. and of which the latest date of payment was on 12th January 1942 and the other public demands which by law are realisable as arrears of land revenue.

When in columns 5, 7 and 9 of the following statement it is stated that only a share is to be sold, it is to be understood that a separate account is kept for that share :—

Tauzi No.	Name of mahal of pargana.	Sadar jama of the whole estate.	Whether the whole estate is to be sold.	If only a share is to be sold, specification of such share or shares.	Names of proprietors of property to be sold.	If only a share is to be sold, the sadar jama of such share.	If the whole estate is to be sold, the arrears due from it. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL

Dacca, the 9th February 1942.

Final Forecast of the Cotton Crops of Bengal, 1941-42.

(Note.—On an average of the five years ending 1939-40, the area under cotton in the territories in Bengal to which this forecast relates has represented some 0·2 per cent. and that in the Bengal State some 0·1 per cent. of the total area under cotton in India.)

There are two crops, early and late. The early crop is chiefly grown in the Chittagong Hill Tracts and in the Tripura State and to a small extent in other districts. The late crop is grown in Bankura and Midnapore.

Character of the season.—Since the issue of the third forecast in December last the weather has been favourable for harvesting the crop.

Area sown.—The total area sown with early cotton is returned at 106,188 acres this year against 107,084 acres in the corresponding forecast of last year and that with late variety at 635 acres both this year and in the corresponding forecast of last year.

Outturn.—The outturn of the early crop is estimated to be 28,941 bales this year against 32,674 bales in the corresponding forecast of last year and that of late variety at 70 bales both this year and in the corresponding forecast of last year.

M. CARBERY,

Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL

Dacca, the 25th February 1942.

Monthly Weather and Crop Report of Bengal for January 1942.

I. Character of the season.—The rainfall during the month was defective except in the Jalpaiguri, Darjeeling and Rangpur districts where it was above the normal. The usual rainfall statement is appended.

II. Progress of agricultural operations.—Harvesting of spring crops, winter rice and preparatory tillage for autumn crops commenced at places. Threshing of winter rice was in brisk progress.

III. State of standing crops.—The state of standing crops was reported to be fairly favourable.

IV. Prospects and probable outturn.—The outturn of sugarcane was estimated at 77 per cent. of the normal as against 81 per cent. of the last year.

V. Damage to standing crops.—Insect-pest caused some damage to sugarcane.

VI. Condition of agricultural stock.—The condition of livestock was, on the whole, good excepting stray cases of cattle-disease in eleven districts of the province as also in the Cooch Behar and Tripura States.

VII. Failure of pasturage and fodder.—Fodder was reported to be rather insufficient in parts of the 24-Parganas.

VIII. Prices of food grains.—During the second fortnight of the month the retail prices of common rice of the cheapest quality rose in one district, fell in 14 districts and remained stationary in the rest of the province. The price ranged from 6 seers per rupee in Darjeeling to 10½ seers per rupee in Khulna district.

IX. Condition of agricultural population.—The condition of agricultural population was, on the whole, fair except in the distressed areas of Hooghly, Mymensingh and Tippera districts where relief measures were in operation.

M. CARBERY,
Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

Orders and Notifications by the Government of India republished for general information

DEPARTMENT OF LABOUR.

RESOLUTION.

New Delhi, the 6th February 1942.

No. A.-826.—The Government of India have decided, with the consent of all Provincial Governments, to assume, for the duration of the war, full authority for controlling and restricting the supply of electricity by public electricity supply undertakings throughout India to such extent as may be found necessary and will issue from time to time such orders under the Defence of India Rules as may be found necessary for exercising such control or imposing such restriction. To enable them to exercise these and other ancillary functions, the Government of India have set up with effect from the 6th February 1942, a Central Electric Power Control Board composed of:—

Chairman.

H. C. Prior, Esq., C.I.E., I.C.S., Secretary, to the Government of India, Department of Labour.

Members.

H. M. Mathews, Esq., Electrical Commissioner with the Government of India.

Colonel R. W. Cardew, M.C., Director, Electrical and Mechanical Services, Engineer-in-Chief's Branch, General Headquarters.

T. S. Pillay, Esq., O.B.E., M.A., B.L., Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Commerce.

Secretary.

D. S. Joshi, Esq., I.C.S., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Labour.

The functions of the Board will be—

(a) to advise the Government of India where in its opinion it is considered necessary that any measure of control should be applied to any public supply undertaking;

(b) to administer such control, as may have been approved by the Government of India in the case of any public electric supply undertaking and, in particular, to issue permits for new supplies of electricity or for restriction of existing supplies in accordance with the general principles laid down by the Government of India;

(c) to collect such information from public electricity supply undertakings as it considers necessary in order to be in a position to advise Government regarding the necessities of control and as to the areas in which surplus electric power is likely to be available; and

(d) to collect such information as may be required to assist in co-ordinating the development and utilisation of electric power on the best lines in furtherance of the general interests of the war effort and industrial development of India.

ORDER.—Ordered that this Resolution be communicated to all Provincial Governments, all Chief Commissioners, the several Departments of the Government of India [including Financial Adviser, Military Finance and Financial Adviser (Communications), the Additional Financial Adviser, Supply Finance], the Political Department, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency the Viceroy and the High Commissioner for India.

Ordered also that the Resolution be published in the Gazette of India, for general information.

Draft Trade Marks Rules.

PART I.

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These Rules may be called the Trade Marks Rules, 1942.

(2) They shall come into force on the

2. Definitions.—In these Rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "Act" means the Trade Marks Act, 1940.

(b) "Form" means a form set forth in the Second and Third Schedules to these Rules.

(c) "Journal" means the Trade Marks Journal.

(d) "section" means a section of the Act.

(e) "specification" means the designation of goods in respect of which a trade mark, or a registered user of a trade mark, is registered or proposed to be registered.

3. Fees.—(1) The fees to be paid in respect of applications and registration and other matters under the Act shall be those specified in the First Schedule to these Rules, hereinafter referred to as the prescribed fees.

(2) (a) Fees may be paid in cash at the Patent Office, or may be sent by money order or postal order or cheque, payable to the Registrar.

(b) Cheques not carrying the correct addition for commission, and other cheques on which the full value cannot be collected in cash within the time allowed for payment of the fee, shall be accepted only at the discretion of the Registrar.

(c) Stamps shall not be received in payment of fees.

4. Forms.—The forms set forth in the Second and the Third Schedules to these Rules shall be used in all cases to which they are applicable and may be modified as directed by the Registrar to meet other cases.

5. Size, etc. of documents.—(1) Subject to any other directions that may be given by the Registrar, all applications, notices, statements or other documents except trade marks authorised or required by the Act or these Rules to be made, left or sent, at or to the Patent Office or with or to the Registrar or the Central Government, shall be written, typewritten, lithographed or printed in the English language in large and legible characters with deep permanent ink upon strong paper, and, except in the case of affidavits, on one side only, of a size of approximately 13 inches by 8 inches, and shall have on the left hand part thereof a margin of not less than one inch and a half.

(2) Duplicate documents including trade marks shall be filed at the Patent Office, if at any time required by the Registrar.

6. Signature of documents.—(1) A document purporting to be signed by a partnership shall be signed by at least one of the partners and a document purporting to be signed by a body corporate shall be signed by a director or by the secretary or other principal officer of the body corporate. A document purporting to be signed by any other association of persons shall be signed by the President, Chairman or Principal Secretary of the Association or by any other person who appears to the Registrar to be duly qualified. The capacity in which an individual signs a document on behalf of a partnership or a body corporate or other association of persons shall be stated below his signature.

(2) Signatures to any documents if written in characters other than Roman, or if not clearly legible shall be accompanied by a transliteration in English and in block capitals.

7. Service of Documents.—All applications, notices, statements, papers having representations affixed thereto, or other documents authorised or required by the Act or these Rules to be made, left or sent, at or to the Patent Office or with or to the Registrar or the Central Government, or any other person may be sent through the post by a prepaid letter; any application or any document so sent shall be deemed to have been made, left or sent at the time when the letter containing the same would be delivered in the ordinary course of post. In proving such sending, it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter was properly addressed and put into the post.

8. Particulars of applicants and other persons.—(1) Names and addresses of applicants and other persons shall be given in full, together with their nationality and such particulars, if any, of caste or calling as are necessary for identification. In the case of a firm, the full name and nationality of every partner thereof shall be stated.

(2) The address given shall in all cases be as full as possible, for the purpose of enabling any person easily to find the place of trade or business of the person whose address is given.

(3) In the case of a body corporate or firm or an association the country of incorporation and the nature of registration, if any, as the case may be, shall be given.

9. Address for service.—(1) Every applicant or opponent or agent in any proceeding under the Act or these Rules, who does not reside or carry on business within British India shall give an address for service in British India, and such address may be treated as the actual address of that person for all purposes connected with the proceeding in question.

(2) Every person who is registered as a proprietor or registered user of a trade mark or who is about to be registered as such shall give upon Form TM-50 an address for service in British India for entry in the register, and such address entered in the register may be treated as the actual address of that person for all purposes connected with the trade mark. All applications on Form TM-50 under this Rule shall be signed by the person about to be registered or the registered proprietor or registered user, as the case may be, or by an agent expressly authorised by him for the purpose of such application.

(3) Any written communication addressed to a person as aforesaid at an address for service given by him, shall be deemed to be properly addressed.

(4) Unless an address for service as required in sub-rules (1) and (2) is given, the Registrar shall be under no obligation to send any notice that may be required by the Act or these Rules, and no subsequent order or decision in the proceedings shall be called in question on the ground of any such non-service of notice.

10. Agency.—The authorisation of an agent for the purpose of section 80 shall be executed on Form TM-48.

CLASSIFICATION.

11. Classification of goods.—For the purposes of the registration of trade marks and of these Rules, goods shall be classified in the manner specified in the Fourth Schedule to these Rules.

APPLICATION FOR REGISTRATION.

12. Specification.—(1) An application to the Registrar for the registration of a trade mark shall be signed by the applicant or his agent. For a trade mark other than a defensive trade mark, the application shall be made on Form TM-1, if in respect of non-textile goods. For a defensive trade mark, the application shall be made on Form TM-3.

(2) Every application for the registration of a trade mark shall be in respect of goods in one class only of the Fourth Schedule to these Rules.

13. Separate applications.—Applications for the registration of the same trade mark in different classes shall be treated as separate and distinct applications, and in all cases where a trade mark is registered under the same official number for goods in more than one class, whether on conversion of the specification under rule 74 or otherwise, the registration in respect of the goods included in each separate class shall be deemed to be a separate registration for all the purposes of the Act.

14. Application for old marks.—An application to register a trade mark which has been continuously used by the applicant or his predecessor in business since before the 25th day of February, 1937 (either in its original form or with additions or alterations not substantially affecting its identity) shall contain a statement of the period during which, and the person by whom it has been used in respect of the goods mentioned in the application. The Registrar may require the applicant to file an affidavit testifying to such user with exhibits showing the mark as used.

15. Representation of mark.—Every application for the registration of a trade mark, and where additional copies of the application are required, every such copy shall contain a representation of the mark in the space provided on the application form for that purpose. Where the representation exceeds such space in size, the representation shall be mounted upon linen, tracing cloth or such other material as the Registrar may consider suitable. Part of the mounting shall be affixed in the space aforesaid and the rest may be folded.

16. Additional representation.—Every application for registration of a trade mark shall except as hereinafter provided, be accompanied by four additional representations of the mark. The representations of the mark on the application and its duplicate (if any) and the additional representations shall correspond exactly with one another. The additional representations shall in all cases be noted with all such particulars as may from time to time be required by the Registrar. Such particulars shall, if required, be signed by the applicant.

17. Representations to be durable.—All representations of trade mark must be of a durable nature and each additional representation required to be filed with an application for registration shall be mounted on a sheet of strong paper of the size of approximately 13 inches by 8 inches, leaving a margin of not less than one inch and a half on the left hand part of the sheet.

18. Specimens of the mark in exceptional cases.—Where a representation of a trade mark cannot be given in the manner set forth in rule 17, a specimen or copy of the trade mark may be sent either of full size or on a reduced scale, and in such form as the Registrar may think most convenient.

19. Series of trade marks.—Where application is made for the registration of a series of trade marks under sub-section (3) of section 11, copies of representations of each trade mark of the series shall accompany the application in the manner set forth in rules 15 and 16.

20. Transliteration and translation.—(1) Where a trade mark contains a word or words in characters other than Roman, there shall, unless the Registrar otherwise directs, be endorsed on the application form, and on each of the accompanying representations, a sufficient transliteration and translation to the satisfaction of the Registrar of each of such words, and every such endorsement shall state the language to which the word belongs and shall be signed by the applicant.

(2) Where a trade mark contains a word or words in a language other than English, the Registrar may ask for an exact translation thereof together with the name of the language, and such translation and name, if he so requires, shall be endorsed and signed as aforesaid.

21. Applications under reciprocal arrangements.—Every application for the registration of a trade mark claiming priority under section 83, shall be made on Forms used for ordinary applications for the registration of a trade mark and shall state the name of the territory in which the application was made and the date of the application made there. The applicant shall furnish a certificate by the registering authority of that territory or shall otherwise verify the application made therein to the satisfaction of the Registrar.

PROCEDURE ON RECEIPT OF APPLICATION FOR REGISTRATION OF A TRADE MARK.

22. Search and notice to depositor.—(1) Upon receipt of an application for the registration of a trade mark in respect of any goods the Registrar shall cause a search to be made amongst the registered marks, and amongst pending applications, for the purpose of ascertaining whether there are on record in respect of the same goods or description of goods any marks identical with the mark sought to be registered, or so nearly resembling it as to render it likely to deceive or cause confusion, and the Registrar may cause the search to be renewed at any time before the acceptance of the application, but shall not be bound to do so.

(2) In connection with all applications for the registration of trade marks, made during the period of five years from the coming into force of these Rules, the Registrar shall also cause a search to be made amongst the trade marks deposited under section 85, for the purpose mentioned in sub-rule (1).

(3) Where it appears to the Registrar that a trade mark submitted for registration in respect of any goods so nearly resembles a trade mark deposited under section 85 in respect of the same goods or description of goods, as to be likely to deceive or to cause confusion, the Registrar may give notice of the application for registration to the depositor. Such notice shall be addressed to the depositor at his address given in the application for deposit. After the expiration of one month from the date of such notice to the depositor the trade mark, if any, of the applicant and the trade mark of such depositor shall be omitted from the list of deposited marks.

23. Objection to acceptance. Hearing.—(1) If, on consideration of the application, and of any evidence of use or of distinctiveness or of any other matter which the applicant may or may be required to furnish, the Registrar has any objection to the acceptance of the application or proposes to accept it subject to such conditions amendments, disclaimers, modifications or limitations as he may think right to impose, the Registrar shall communicate such objection or proposal in writing to the applicant.

(2) Unless within one month from the date of the communication mentioned in sub-rule (1), the applicant alters his application according to the proposal aforesaid, or sends his observations to the office or applies for a hearing, the application shall be deemed to have been abandoned.

24. Decision of Registrar.—(1) The decision of the Registrar at a hearing under rule 23, or without a hearing if the applicant has duly communicated his observations in writing, and has stated that he does not desire to be heard, shall be communicated to the applicant in writing, and if the applicant intends to appeal from such decision he may within one month from the date of such communication apply on Form TM-15 to the Registrar requiring him to state in writing the grounds of, and materials used by him in arriving at, his decision.

(2) In a case where the Registrar makes any requirements to which the applicant does not object, the applicant shall comply therewith before the Registrar issues a statement in writing under sub-rule (1). The date when such statement is sent to the applicant shall be deemed to be the date of the Registrar's decision for the purpose of appeal.

DEFENSIVE TRADE MARKS.

25. Application for registration and proceedings relating thereto.—An application for the registration of a defensive trade mark under section 38 shall be made on Form TM-3 and shall be accompanied by a statement of case setting forth full particulars of the facts on which the applicant relies in support of his application, verified by an affidavit made by the applicant. The applicant may send with this affidavit or subsequently, such other evidence as he may desire to furnish, and the Registrar shall consider the whole of the evidence before deciding the application. In all other respects and where they are appropriate and it is not otherwise stated, these Rules shall apply to such application as they apply to applications for the registration of ordinary trade marks.

ADVERTISEMENT OF APPLICATION.

26. Manner of advertisement.—An application for the registration of a trade mark required or permitted to be advertised "by sub-section (1) of section 15 shall be advertised" in the Journal during such times and in such manner as the Registrar may direct. In the case of an application with which the Registrar proceeds only after the applicant has lodged the written consent to the proposed registration of the registered proprietor of another trade mark or of another applicant the words "By Consent" shall appear in the advertisement. If no representation of the trade mark be included in the advertisement of the application, the Registrar shall mention in such advertisement the place or places where a specimen or representation of the trade mark may be inspected.

27. Wood block or Electro-type.—For the purposes of advertisement in the Journal, the applicant may, at the appropriate time, supply or be required to supply a printing block (or more than one, if necessary) of the trade mark satisfactory to the Registrar, of such dimensions as may from time to time be apporved or directed by the Registrar, or shall supply such information or other means of advertising the trade mark as may be required by the Registrar; and the Registrar, if dissatisfied with the printing block supplied by the applicant or his agent, may require a fresh block before proceeding with the advertisement.

28. Advertisement of series.—Where an application relates to a series of trade marks "differing from one another in respect of the particulars mentioned" in sub-section (3) of section 11, the applicant may be required to supply a printing block (or more than one if necessary) satisfactory to the Registrar of any or of each of the trade marks constituting the series; or the Registrar may, if he thinks fit, insert with the advertisement of the application a statement of the manner in which the several trade marks differ from one another.

OPPOSITION TO REGISTRATION.

29. Notice of opposition.—The time within which a notice of opposition to the registration of a trade mark may be given, shall be two months from the date of advertisement of the application for registration, in the Journal. Such notice shall be on Form TM-5.

30. Particulars to be given in the Notice.—The notice shall be given in duplicate, and shall include a statement of the grounds upon which the opponent objects to the registration. If registration is opposed on the ground that the trade mark in question resembles a mark or marks already on the register, the registration numbers of such trade marks and the dates of the Journals in which they have been advertised shall be set out.

31. Counter-statement.—The counter-statement required by sub-section (3) of section 15 shall be sent in duplicate on Form TM-6 within one month from the receipt by the applicant of the duplicate notice of opposition. The applicant shall also set out in the counter-statement what facts, if any, alleged in the notice of opposition, are admitted by him.

32. Evidence in support of opposition.—(1) Within one month from the receipt by the opponent of the duplicate counter-statement the opponent shall leave with the Registrar such evidence by way of affidavit as he may desire to adduce in support of his opposition and shall deliver to the applicant copies thereof.

(2) If an opponent leaves no evidence under sub-rule (1) he shall, unless the Registrar otherwise directs, be deemed to have abandoned his opposition.

33. Evidence in support of application.—Within one month from the receipt by the applicant of the copies of affidavits in support of the opposition, the applicant shall leave with the Registrar such evidence by way of affidavit as he desires to adduce in support of his application and shall deliver to the opponent copies thereof.

34. Within fourteen days from the receipt by the opponent of the copies of the applicants' affidavits, the opponent may leave with the Registrar evidence by affidavit in reply and shall deliver to the applicant copies thereof. This evidence shall be confined to matters strictly in reply.

35. Further evidence.—No further evidence shall be left on either side; but, in any proceedings before the Registrar, he may at any time, if he thinks fit, give leave to either the applicant or the opponent to leave any evidence upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as he may think fit.

36. Exhibits.—Where there are exhibits to affidavits filed in an opposition, copies or impressions of such exhibits shall be sent to the other party on his request and at his expense, or, if such copies or impressions cannot conveniently be furnished, the originals shall be left with the Registrar in order that they may be open to inspection. The original exhibits shall be produced at the hearing unless the Registrar otherwise directs.

37. Hearing.—Upon completion of the evidence the Registrar shall give notice to the parties of a date when he will hear the arguments in the case. Such appointment shall be for a date at least fourteen days after the date of the notice, unless the parties consent to a shorter notice. Within seven days from the receipt of the notice any party who intends to appear shall so notify the Registrar on Form TM-7. Any party who does not so notify the Registrar within the time last aforesaid, may be treated as not deserving to be heard and the Registrar may act accordingly.

38. Security for costs.—The security for costs which the Registrar may require under sub-section (5) of section 15, may be fixed at any amount which he may consider proper; and such amount may be further enhanced by him at any stage in the opposition proceedings.

NOTICE OF NON-COMPLETION OF REGISTRATION.

39. Procedure for giving notice.—The notice which the Registrar is required by sub-section (3) of section 16, to give to an applicant, shall be sent to the applicant at his trade or business address or address for service on Form O-1; but if the applicant has authorised an agent for the purpose of the application, the notice shall be sent to the agent and a duplicate thereof to the applicant. The notice shall specify fourteen days time from the date thereof or such further time as the Registrar may allow, for completion of the Registration.

REGISTRATION.

40. Entry in Register.—(1) As soon as may be after the expiration of two months from the date of the advertisement in the Journal of any application for the registration of a trade mark, the Registrar shall, subject to any opposition and the determination thereof, and to the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 16 and upon payment of the prescribed fee on Form TM-11 enter the trade mark in the Register.

(2) The entry of a trade mark in the register shall specify the date of the registration, the goods in respect of which it is registered, and all particulars required by sub-section (1) of section 4, including both the trade or business address and the address for service of the applicant, particulars of the trade, business, profession, occupation, or other description of the proprietor, particulars of any undertaking by the proprietor entered on the form of application, particulars affecting the scope of the registrations or the rights conferred by the registration, and such other particulars as are prescribed.

(3) In the case of an application as aforesaid which the Registrar accepts only after the applicant has lodged the written consent to the proposed registration, of the registered proprietor of another trade mark or another applicant for registration, the entry made under this rule in the register shall state that it is "By Consent", and shall give the number of the previous registration or the application for registration.

41. Associated marks.—Where a trade mark is registered as associated with any other mark or marks the Registrar shall note in the register in connection with the first-mentioned mark the numbers of the marks with which it is associated and shall also note in the register in connection with each of the associated marks the numbers of the first-mentioned mark as being a mark associated therewith.

42. Death of applicant before registration.—In case of the death of any applicant for the registration of a trade mark after the date of his application and before the trade mark has been entered in the register, the Registrar may, on proof of the applicant's death and of the title of another person to the ownership of the trade mark, enter in the register the name, address and description of that person as the proprietor of the trade mark.

43. Certificate of registration.—The certificate of registration to be issued by the Registrar under sub-section (2) of section 16, shall be in form O-2 given in the Third Schedule to these Rules with such modifications as the circumstances of any case may require; and the Registrar shall annex a copy of the trade mark to the certificate.

CHAPTER III.

DISSOLUTION OF ASSOCIATED MARKS.

44. Entry in the register.—An application made under sub-section (4) of section 12 shall be made on Form TM-14 and shall include a statement of the grounds of the application.

RENEWAL OF REGISTRATION AND RESTORATION.

45. Renewal of registration.—An application for the renewal of the registration of a trade mark, shall be made on Form TM-12 and may be made at any time not more than three months before the expiration of the last registration of the trade mark.

46. Notice before removal of trade mark from register.—At a date not less than one month and not more than two months before the expiration of the last registration of a trade mark, if no application on Form TM-12 for renewal of the registration together with the prescribed fee has been received the Registrar shall notify the registered proprietor in writing of the approaching expiration, at his trade or business address as well as address for service entered in the Register.

47. Advertisement of non-payment.—If at the expiration of the last registration of a trade mark the renewal fee has not been paid, the Registrar shall advertise the fact forthwith, in the Journal and if within one month of that advertisement, the renewal fee on Form TM-12 together with an additional fee prescribed in the First Schedule to these Rules is received, he may renew the registration without removing the mark from the register.

48. Removal of trade mark from register and restoration.—(1) Where, at the expiration of one month from the advertisement mentioned in the last foregoing rule, the fees therein referred to have not been paid, the Registrar may remove the mark from the register, and the removal shall take effect from the expiration of the last registration.

(2) After the mark has been removed from the register, the Registrar may on receipt of a request made in that behalf on Form TM-12 together with a restoration fee upon Form TM-13 restore the mark to the register on being satisfied that it is just so to do, and upon such conditions as he may think fit to impose.

49. Notice of advertisement of renewal and restoration.—Upon the renewal or restoration and renewal of a registration, a notice to that effect shall be sent to the registered proprietor and the renewal or restoration and renewal shall be advertised in the Journal.

ASSIGNMENT AND TRANSMISSION.

50. An application to register the title of a person who becomes entitled by assignment or transmission to a registered trade mark shall be made on Form TM-24 or TM-23 according as it is made by the applicant alone or conjointly with the registered proprietor.

51. Particulars to be stated in application.—An application under rule 50 shall contain full particulars of the instrument, if any, under which the applicant or in the case of a joint application, the person other than the registered proprietor claims to be entitled to the trade mark; and such instrument shall be produced at the Patent Office for inspection at the time of application. The Registrar may require and retain an attested copy of any instrument produced for inspection in proof of title, but such copy shall not be open to public inspection.

52. Case accompanying application.—Where a person applying under rule 50 for registration of his title, does not establish his claim, under any document or instrument which is capable in itself of furnishing proof of his title, he shall, unless the Registrar otherwise directs, either upon or with the application, state a case setting forth the full particulars of the facts upon which his claim to be proprietor of the trade mark is based, and showing that the trade mark has been assigned or transmitted to him. If the Registrar so requires, the case shall be verified by an affidavit on Form TM-18.

53. Proof of title.—The Registrar may require any person who applies to be registered as proprietor of a registered trade mark to furnish such proof or additional proof of title as he may require for his satisfaction.

54. Advertisement of assignment without good-will of trade mark in use.—(1) An application for direction under section 33 shall be made on Form TM-20 and shall state the date on which the assignment was made and shall give particulars of the registration in the case of a registered trade mark, and in the case of an unregistered mark, shall show the mark and give particulars of the registered trade mark that has been assigned therewith in accordance with section 30. The Registrar may call for any evidence or further information and if he is satisfied with regard to the various matters he shall issue directions in writing with respect to the advertisement of the assignment.

(2) The Registrar may refuse to consider such an application in a case to which section 32 applies, unless his approval has been obtained under the said section and a reference identifying the Registrar's notification of approval is included in the application.

(3) A request for an extension of the period within which the application may be made shall be on Form TM-21 and may be made at any time before or during the period for which extension can be allowed. The extension of the period which the Registrar may allow shall not exceed three months.

55. Application for entry of assignment without good-will.—An application under rule 50 relating to an assignment of a trade mark in respect of any goods shall state—

(a) whether the trade mark was, at the time of the assignment, used in a business in any of those goods; and

(b) whether the assignment was made otherwise than in connection with the good-will of that business, and if both those circumstances subsisted, then the applicant shall leave at the Patent Office a copy of the directions to advertise the assignment, obtained upon application under rule 54, and such proof, including copies of advertisements or otherwise, as the Registrar may require, to show that his directions have been fulfilled and if the Registrar is not satisfied that the directions have been fulfilled, he shall not proceed with the application.

56. Separate registrations.—Where pursuant to an application under rule 50 and as the result of a division and separation of the goods of a registration or a division and separation of places or markets, different persons become registered separately under the same registration number as subsequent proprietors of a trade mark, each of the resulting separate registrations in the names of those different persons shall be deemed to be a separate registration for all the purposes of the Act.

57. Registrar's certificate or approval as to certain assignments and transmissions.—Any person who desires to obtain the Registrar's certificate under sub-section (2) of section 31 or his notification of approval under section 32 shall send to the Registrar with his application on Form TM-17 or Form TM-19, as the case may be, a statement of case in duplicate setting out the circumstances and a copy of any instrument or proposed instrument effecting the assignment or transmission. The Registrar may call for any evidence or further information that he may consider necessary and the statement of case shall be amended if required to include all the relevant circumstances and shall, if required, be verified by an affidavit.

The Registrar, after hearing, if so required the applicant and any other person whom the Registrar may consider to be interested in the transfer, shall consider the matter and issue a certificate thereon or a notification in writing of approval or disapproval thereof, as the case may be. Where a statement of case is amended, two copies thereof in its final form shall be left at the Patent Office. The Registrar shall seal a copy of the statement of case in its final form to the certificate or notification

58. Registration of assignment to Company under section 36.—For the purposes of sub-section (3) of section 36, the period within which a Company may be registered as the subsequent proprietor of a registered trade mark, upon application made under rule 50 shall be six months from the date of advertisement in the Journal of the registration of the trade mark or such further period not exceeding six months as the Registrar may allow, on application being made on Form TM-25 by the applicant for registration of title or the registered proprietor, as the case may be, at any time before or during the period for which the extension can be allowed.

REGISTERED USERS.

59. Entry and notification.—(1) An application to the Registrar for the registration under section 41 of a person as a registered user of a registered trade mark shall be made by that person and the registered proprietor on Form TM-28.

(2) The entry of a registered user in the register shall set forth, in addition to the particulars mentioned in sub-section (1) of section 41, his address for service and the date on which the entry is made. A notification in writing of the registration of a registered user shall be sent to the registered proprietor of the trade mark, to the registered user and to every other registered user whose name is entered in relation to the same registration of a trade mark and shall be inserted in the Journal.

60. Registered proprietor's application to vary entry.—An application by the registered proprietor of a trade mark for the variation of the registration of a registered user of that trade mark under clause (a) of section 42 shall be made on Form TM-29 and shall be accompanied by a statement of the grounds on which it is made and, where the registered user in question consents, by the written consent of that registered user.

61. Application to cancel registration of registered user.—An application for the cancellation of the registration of a registered user under clause (b) or clause (c) of section 42 shall be made on Form TM-30 or Form TM-31, as the case may be, and shall be accompanied by a statement of the grounds on which it is made.

62. Notification and hearing.—The Registrar shall notify in writing applications under section 42 to the registered proprietor and each registered user (not being the applicant) under the registration of the trade mark. Any person so notified who intends to intervene in the proceedings, shall within one month of the receipt of such notification give notice to the Registrar on Form TM-32 to that effect and shall send therewith a statement of the grounds of his intervention. The Registrar shall thereupon serve or cause to be served copies of such notice and statement on the other parties, viz., the applicant, the registered proprietor, the registered user whose registration is in suit, and any other registered user who intervenes. Any such party may, within such time or times as the Registrar may appoint, leave evidence in support of his case, and the Registrar after giving the parties an opportunity of being heard may accept or refuse the application or accept it subject to any conditions, amendments, modifications or limitations he may think right to impose.

63. Registered user's application under section 47 (2).—(1) Applications under sub-section (2) of section 47 shall be made on Form TM-16 or Form TM-33 or Form TM-34 as may be appropriate by a registered user of a trade mark or by such person as may satisfy the Registrar that he is entitled to act in the name of a registered user; and the Registrar may require such evidence by affidavit or otherwise as he may think fit as to the circumstances in which the application is made.

(2) In case of the registration of a registered user for a period, in accordance with clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 41, the Registrar shall cancel the entry of the registered user at the end of that period. Where some or all of the goods are omitted from those in respect of which a trade mark is registered, the Registrar shall at the same time omit them from those specifications of registered users of the trade mark in which they are comprised. The Registrar shall notify every cancellation or omission under this sub-rule to the registered users whose permitted use is affected thereby and to the registered proprietor of the trade mark.

APPLICATION FOR ALTERATION OR RECTIFICATION OF REGISTER.

64. Application to rectify, or remove a trade mark from the register.—An application to the Registrar under sections 37, 38 or 46 for the making, expunging or varying of any entry in the register shall be made on Form TM-26 and shall be accompanied by a statement setting out fully the nature of the applicant's interest, the facts upon which he bases his case and the relief which he seeks. Where the application is made by a person who is not the registered proprietor of the trade mark in question, the application and the settlement aforesaid shall be left at the Patent Office in duplicate. The duplicate copies shall be transmitted forthwith by the Registrar to the registered proprietor.

65. Further procedure.—Upon an application mentioned in rule 64 being made and copies thereof being transmitted to the registered proprietor, if necessary, the provisions of rules 31 to 38 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the further proceedings on the application; but the Registrar shall not rectify the register or remove the mark from the register merely because the registered proprietor has not filed a counter-statement. In any case of doubt any party may apply to the Registrar for directions.

66. Intervention by third parties.—Any person other than the registered proprietor alleging interest in a registered trade mark in respect of which an application is made under rule 64 may apply on Form TM-27 for leave to intervene, stating the nature of his interest, and the Registrar may refuse or grant such leave after hearing (if so required) the parties concerned, upon such conditions, and terms as he may deem fit.

ALTERATION OF ADDRESS.

67. Alteration of address in register.—(1) A registered proprietor or registered user of a trade mark whose trade or business address is changed, so that the entry in the register is rendered incorrect shall forthwith request the Registrar on Form TM-34 to make the appropriate alteration of the address in the register, and the Registrar shall alter the register accordingly if he is satisfied in the matter.

(2) A registered proprietor or registered user of a trade mark whose address for service in British India entered in the Register is changed, whether by discontinuance of the entered address or otherwise, so that the entry in the register is rendered incorrect, shall forthwith request the Registrar on Form TM-50 to make the appropriate alteration of the address in the register, and the Registrar shall alter the register accordingly if he is satisfied in the matter.

(3) A registered proprietor or registered user of a trade mark whose registered trade or business address or address for service is altered by a public authority, so that the changed address designates the same premises as before, may make the aforesaid request to the Registrar on Form TM-34 or TM-50, as the case may be, and if he does so he shall leave therewith a certificate of the alteration given by the said authority. If the Registrar is satisfied as to the facts of the case, he shall alter the register accordingly, but shall not require any fees to be paid on the Forms.

(4) In case of the alteration of the address of a person entered in the register as the address for service of more than one registered proprietor or registered user of trade marks, the Registrar may, on proof that the said address is the address of the applicant and if satisfied that it is just to do so, accept an application from that person on a Form TM-50, as amended so as to suit the case, for the appropriate alteration of the entries of his address as the address for service in the several registrations, particulars of which shall be given in the Form, and may alter the entries accordingly.

(5) All applications under this rule on Form TM-50 shall be signed by the registered proprietor or registered user, as the case may be, or by an agent expressly authorised by him for the purpose of such an application, unless in exceptional circumstances the Registrar otherwise allows.

CORRECTION OF REGISTER.

68. Application under section 47.—Where an application has been made under section 47, for the alteration of the register by correction, change, cancellation or striking out goods, or for the entry of a disclaimer or memorandum, the Registrar may require the applicant to furnish such evidence by affidavit or otherwise as the Registrar may think fit, as to the circumstances in which the application is made. Such applications shall be made on Forms TM-16, TM-33, TM-34, TM-35, TM-36, TM-37 or TM-50 as may be appropriate. An application on Form TM-35 or TM-36 or TM-50 shall be signed by the registered proprietor or other person entitled under this rule unless in exceptional circumstances the Registrar otherwise allows, or, in the case of Form TM-50 only, it is signed by an agent expressly authorised for the purpose of such application.

69. Advertisement of certain applications.—(1) Where an application has been made under clause (c), (d) or (e) of sub-section (1) of section 47, on Forms TM-35, TM-36 or TM-37, respectively, the Registrar shall serve or cause to be served a copy of the application on any person who appears from the register to have any interest in the trade mark.

(2) Where application is made under clause (e) of the said sub-section on Form TM-37 to enter a disclaimer or memorandum relating to a trade mark, the Registrar, before deciding upon such application, shall advertise the application in the Journal in order to enable any person to lodge at the Patent Office a statement in writing, showing the reasons for his objections to the proposed entry, within one month from the date of the advertisement.

ALTERATION OF REGISTERED TRADE MARKS.

70. Alteration of registered trade mark.—Where a person applies under section 48 for leave to add to or alter his registered trade mark, he shall make his application in writing on Form TM-38 and shall furnish four copies of the mark as it will appear when so added to or altered.

71. Advertisement before decision and opposition.—(1) The Registrar shall consider the application and shall, if it appears to him expedient, advertise the application in the Journal before deciding it.

(2) Within one month from the date of advertisement under sub-rule (1), any person may give notice of opposition to the application on Form TM-39 and may also send therewith a further statement of his objections. The notice and the statement, if any, shall be sent in duplicate. The provisions of rule 31 to 38 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the further proceedings on such notice.

72. Advertisement, illustration.—If in the opinion of the Registrar an advertisement describing in words the proposed addition or alteration, would not be likely to convey to the mind an exact representation of the mark so altered or added to, he may require the applicant to supply a printing block suitable for advertising the mark with the addition or alteration as aforesaid. The advertisements under sub-section (2) of section 48 shall mutatis mutandis be made in the same manner as advertisements relating to an application for registration of a trade mark.

73. Decision Advertisement Notification.—If the Registrar decides to allow the application he shall alter the mark in the register in the manner applied for and insert in the Journal a notification that the mark has been altered. If the application has not been advertised under rule 71 he shall also advertise in the Journal the trade mark as altered.

RE-CLASSIFICATION OF GOODS IN RESPECT OF EXISTING REGISTRATION.

74. Re-classification in respect of existing registration.—(1) On the classification set forth in the fourth schedule to these Rules being amended, the registered proprietor of a trade mark may apply to the Registrar on Form TM-40 for the conversion of the specification relating to his trade mark, so as to bring that specification into conformity with the amended classification. The application shall include a request for the like conversion of the specification in respect of any registered users under that registration.

(2) The Registrar shall, thereupon notify in writing to the registered proprietor a proposal showing the form which, in the Registrar's view, the amendment of the register should take in consequence of the proposed conversion. Two or more registrations of a trade mark having the same date and in respect of goods which fall within the same class under the amended or substituted classification, may be amalgamated upon conversion in accordance with this rule.

(3) The proposal referred to in sub-rule (2) shall be advertised in the Journal.

(4) Notice of opposition to such proposal shall be given on Form TM-41 in duplicate within one month from the date of the advertisement and shall be accompanied by a statement in duplicate showing how the proposed amendment would contravene the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 49.

(5) The procedure for the disposal of an opposition under this rule shall be regulated by the provisions of rules 31 to 38.

(6) If there is no opposition within the time specified in sub-rule (4), or in case of opposition, if the conversion of the specification is allowed, the proposal as allowed shall be advertised in the Journal, and all necessary entries shall be made in the register. The date when such entries are made in the register shall be recorded therein. Any entry made in the register in pursuance of this sub-rule shall not affect the date of renewal of registration under section 18, which shall be determined in the same manner as before the allowance of the conversion.

MISCELLANEOUS POWERS OF THE REGISTRAR.

75. Extension of time.—If in any particular case the Registrar is satisfied that the circumstances are such as to justify an extension of the time for doing any act or taking any proceeding under these Rules, not being a time expressly provided in the Act or prescribed by rule 54 or 58, he may extend the time upon such notice to other parties, if any, and upon such terms as he may direct, and the extension may be granted though the time for doing the act or taking the proceeding has already expired.

76. Exercise of discretionary power of Registrar.—The time within which a person entitled under clause (c) of section 70 to an opportunity of being heard shall exercise his option of requiring to be heard shall save as otherwise expressly provided in the Act or these Rules be one month from the date of a notice which the Registrar shall give to such person before determining the matter with reference to which such person is entitled to be heard. If within that month such person requires to be heard, the Registrar shall appoint a date for the hearing and shall give 10 days' notice thereof.

77. Notification of decision.—The decision of the Registrar in the exercise of any discretionary power given to him by the Act or these Rules shall be notified to the person affected.

78. Amendment of documents.—Any irregularity in procedure which, in the opinion of the Registrar, may be obviated without detriment to the interests of any person, may be corrected, if the Registrar thinks fit, and on such terms as he may direct.

AWARD OF COSTS BY REGISTRAR.

79. Costs in uncontested cases.—(1) Where any opposition duly instituted under these Rules, is not contested by the applicant, the Registrar in deciding whether costs should be awarded to the opponent shall consider whether the proceedings might have been avoided if reasonable notice had been given by the opponent to the applicant before the notice of opposition was lodged.

(2) Sub-rule (1) shall not apply to costs in respect of fees specified under entries 11, 12 and 13 of the first schedule to these Rules which shall follow the event.

80. Scale of costs.—In all proceedings before the Registrar, the Registrar may save as otherwise expressly provided by the Act award such costs as he considered reasonable, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, provided that the amount of costs awarded in respect of any of the matters set forth in the sixth schedule to these Rules shall not exceed the amount therein specified.

CERTIFICATES.

81. Certificates other than under section 16 (2).—The Registrar may give a certificate [other than a certificate under sub-section (2) of section 16] as to any entry, matter or thing which he is authorised or required by the Act or these Rules to make or do, upon receipt of a request therefor on Form TM-46 from any person who can show, if so required by the Registrar, an interest in the entry, matter or thing to the satisfaction of the Registrar, where a copy of any trade mark has to be included in a certificate, the Registrar may require the applicant to supply a copy thereof suitable for the purpose; and if the applicant fails to do so, the Registrar shall not be obliged to include a copy of the mark in the certificate.

82. Certificate for use in obtaining registration abroad.—(1) Where a certificate relating to the registration of a trade mark is desired for use in obtaining registration in any territory outside British India the Registrar shall include in the certificate a copy of the mark and may require the applicant for the certificate to furnish him with a copy of the mark suitable for the purpose, and if the applicant fails to do so, the Registrar may refuse to issue the certificate.

(2) Where a trade mark is registered without limitation of colour, the copy of the mark to be included in the certificate, may be either in the colour in which it appears upon the register or in any other colour or colours.

(3) The Registrar may state in the certificate such particulars concerning the registration of the mark as to him may seem fit, and may omit therefrom references to any disclaimers appearing in the register. The purpose for which the certificate is issued shall be stated therein.

APPEALS TO HIGH COURT.

83. Time for appeal.—An appeal to a High Court, from any decision of the Registrar under the Act or these Rules, shall be made within three months from the date of such decision:

Provided that in calculating the said period of three months the time, if any, occupied in granting a copy in writing of the decision appealed against, shall be excluded.

CERTIFICATE OF VALIDITY.

84. Certificates of validity to be noted.—Where the court has certified as provided in section 78 with regard to the validity of a registered trade mark, the registered proprietor thereof may request the Registrar on Form TM-47 to add to the entry in the register a note that the certificate of validity has been granted in the course of the proceedings, particulars of which shall be given in the request. An officially certified copy of the certificate shall be sent with the request, and the Registrar shall record a note to that effect in the register and publish the note in the Journal.

INSPECTION OF DOCUMENTS BY THE PUBLIC.

85. Inspection of register, etc.—The Register, the Textile Marks Records, the Refused Textile Marks Lists and the lists relating to trade marks deposited under section 85 shall be open to inspection, on payment of fee specified in the First Schedule to these Rules at such times on all the days on which the Patent Office is not closed to the public, as may be fixed by the Registrar.

86. Distribution of copies of Journal and other documents.—The Central Government may direct the Registrar and the Bombay Registrar to distribute the Journal and any other document which it may consider necessary, to such places as may be fixed by the Central Government in consultation with the Provincial Governments and notified from time to time in the Official Gazette.

ORDERS OF COURTS.

87. Applications made to the Court to be served on the Registrar or the Bombay Registrar, as the case may be.—Every application to a High Court under the Act in respect of a trade mark registered at the Patent Office shall be served on the Registrar, and every application to a High Court under the Act in respect of a trade mark registered at the Bombay Registry shall be served on the Bombay Registrar.

PART II.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR CERTIFICATION TRADE MARKS.

88. Rules to apply to Certification Trade Marks.—Subject to the provisions of this Part, the provisions of Part I of these Rules shall apply to certification trade marks as they apply to trade marks.

89. Application for registration and proceedings relating thereto.—(1) An application for the registration of a certification trade mark under sub-section (1) of section 53 shall be made to the Registrar upon Form TM-4, and shall be accompanied by two duplicates of the application and by six additional representations of the mark. The draft regulations to be forwarded with the application under the said sub-section (1) of section 53 shall be in duplicate and shall be accompanied by Form TM-49.

(2) These rules shall apply to applications for the registration of certification trade marks as they apply to applications for the registration of trade marks except that for references therein to acceptance of application there shall be substituted references to authorisation to proceed with the application and that the applicant shall not be deemed to have abandoned his application if, in the circumstances of rule 23, he does not apply for a hearing or reply in writing.

(3) The address of an applicant to register a certification trade mark shall be deemed to be a trade or business address for all the purposes for which such an address is required by these rules.

90. Case: draft regulations.—The applicant shall send to the Registrar with his application a case setting out the grounds on which he relies in support of his application. Such case shall be furnished in duplicate.

91. Opposition to registration of certification trade marks.—(1) In respect of opposition under sub-section (1) of section 55, rules 29 to 38 shall have effect in relation to the registration of a certification trade mark as if the application had been an application for the registration of a trade mark.

(2) In respect of opposition under sub-section (2) of section 55, rules 29 to 38 shall apply mutatis mutandis with the substitution of Forms TM-8, TM-9 and TM-10 for Forms TM-5, TM-6 and TM-7, respectively. In case of doubt any party may apply to the Registrar or the Central Government, as the case may be, for directions.

92. Rectification of certification trade mark entries.—An application on any of the grounds mentioned in sub-section (1) of section 59 shall be made on Form TM-43 and shall set forth full particulars of the grounds on which the application is made.

93. Alteration of regulations relating to certification trade marks.—An application by the registered proprietor of a certification trade mark under sub-section (2) of section 56 shall be on Form TM-42 and where the Central Government decides to advertise such application under sub-section (2) of section 56, the advertisement shall be made in the Journal.

94. Consent of Central Government to assignment or transmission of certification trade mark.—An application for the consent of the Central Government under sub-section (1) of section 34 shall be made on Form TM-22.

PART III.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR TEXTILE MARKS.

MISCELLANEOUS.

95. Rules to apply to textile marks.—Subject to the provisions of this Part, the provisions of Part I and Part II of these rules shall apply to textile marks and certification trade marks in respect of textile goods as they apply to trade marks and certification trade marks in respect of non-textile goods.

96. Textile Mark.—The expression "textile mark" means a trade mark or a certification trade mark used or proposed to be used in relation to goods specified in rule 97 as "textile goods" for the purpose of Chapter IX of the Act.

97. Textile goods.—The goods to which Chapter IX of the Act shall apply and which are in the Act and these Rules referred to as textile goods shall be the following, viz.:—

(i) goods included in classes 23 and 24 of the Fourth Schedule to these Rules, and

(ii) those of the goods, included in classes 22, 25, 26 and 27 of the said Schedule which are either complete articles of clothing or are composed to a substantial extent of natural or artificial fibres.

98. Communications to and from Bombay Registry.—In all proceedings relating to trade marks or certification trade marks applications for the registration of which lie under the provisions of Chapter IX of the Act to the Bombay Registrar, any act or thing directed by these Rules to be done by, to, or before the Registrar, shall be done by, to, or before the Bombay Registrar, and unless it is repugnant to the context, all references in these Rules to the Registrar shall be deemed to include references to the Bombay Registrar, and all references to the Patent Office shall be deemed to include references to the Bombay Registry.

99. Application to register word mark.—An application for the registration of a trade mark consisting of a word or words relating to textile goods shall be made on Form TM-51.

100. Application to register letters or numerals.—Subject to the provisions of rule 101, an application for the registration of a trade mark consisting of letters or numerals or any combination thereof relating to textile goods shall be made on Form TM-52.

101. Items of textile goods.—A separate application for the registration of a trade mark shall be made in respect of each of the items of textile goods mentioned in the Fifth Schedule to these Rules where the mark consists of letters or numerals or any combination thereof. Such application shall be made on Form TM-53.

102. Entry in the Refused Textile Marks List.—Where the registration of a trade mark in respect of textile goods has been refused, the applicant may file a request on Form TM-44 accompanied by the prescribed fee to enter the trade mark in the Refused Textile Marks List and thereupon particulars in reference to that refused mark shall be entered in the Refused Textile Marks List.

103. Continuance of a mark in the List.—A mark entered upon the Refused Textile Marks List in the manner aforesaid shall remain in that list for a period of seven years from the date of application to register, but it may be continued in the list beyond that period if the applicant for registration, or his successor in business pays the prescribed continuance fee at the Patent Office on Form TM-45.

104. Notice to applicant.—(1) Before removing a mark from the Refused Textile Marks List for non-payment of the prescribed continuance fee, the Registrar shall, at a date not more than six months but not less than three months prior to the date on which the removal of the mark would be due, give notice in writing that the mark will not be continued in the said list after a date to be specified in the notice unless the prescribed continuance fee is paid on or before the said date.

(2) The notice mentioned in the foregoing rule shall be addressed to the applicant at the address appearing in the Refused Textile Marks List. In case such notice is returned by the postal authorities the Registrar may, but without being under any obligation to do so, discover the changed address of the applicant if he be still in business, or of his successor in business, with a view to bring the notice to his attention.

105. Report of Bombay Registrar.—The Registrar shall send to the Bombay Registrar every application for the registration of a trade mark or certification trade mark in respect of textile goods and the Bombay Registrar shall furnish the Registrar with a report thereon which shall form part of the record of the case.

106. Copy of register of non-textile marks.—The Registrar shall supply a copy of every entry in the register relating to trade marks registered in respect of non-textile goods to the Bombay Registrar who shall maintain a permanent record of the copy so received which shall be open to inspection on payment of the prescribed fee.

107. Search.—Upon receipt of an application either in the Patent Office or in the Bombay Registry for the registration of a trade mark or a certification trade mark relating to textile goods, the Bombay Registrar shall cause a search to be made among the registered trade marks and certification trade marks, the Refused Textile Marks Lists, the lists of deposited trade marks, and pending applications, for the purpose of ascertaining whether there are on record in respect of the same goods or description of goods any marks identical with the mark sought to be registered or so nearly resembling it as to render it likely to deceive or cause confusion and the Bombay Registrar may cause the search to be renewed at any time before the acceptance of the application.

108. Application for registration, additional representations.—Every application for the registration of a trade mark (other than a mark consisting of a word or words or letters or numerals or any combination thereof) relating to textile goods shall be made on Form TM-2 and shall be accompanied by six additional representations of the mark. The representations of the mark on the application and its duplicate and the additional representations shall correspond exactly with one another. The additional representations shall in all cases be noted with all such particulars as may from time to time be required by the Registrar. Such particulars shall, if required, be signed by the applicant.

109. Copies of altered trade marks.—Where a person applies under section 48 for leave to add to or alter his registered trade mark relating to textile goods, he shall furnish six copies of the mark as it will appear when so added to or altered.

110. Power of Bombay Registrar to use the Patent Office Seal.—The Bombay Registrar shall be entitled to use the seal of the Patent Office for purposes of the Act.

CHAPTER II.

CONDITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS ON THE REGISTRABILITY OF TEXTILE MARKS CONSISTING OF LETTERS OR NUMERALS OR ANY COMBINATION THEREOF.

111. Definitions.—For the purposes of this Chapter, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

(a) "balanced numeral" means a trade mark consisting of either identical numerals or identical letters of not less than three nor more than seven digits;

(b) "digit" includes a single letter;

(c) "letter fraction" means a fraction containing one or more letters.

112. Non-registrability of certain marks.—In respect of textile goods the following numerals or letters or combination thereof shall not be capable of registration, namely:—

(a) any numeral of one digit or of more than six digits;

(b) a single letter or any combination of letters of more than six letters;

(c) any combination of numerals and letters of more than eight digits;

(d) any fraction or letter fraction consisting of more than eight digits together;

(e) any fraction or letter fraction having less than three digits;

(f) any combination of numerals and fractions of more than six digits;

(g) any combination of numerals and fractions where the numeral portion is already registered in the name of a different person;

(h) any combination of numerals, letters, fractions and letter fractions either having more than eight digits or ending with a fraction of more than one digit in the numerator or in the denominator;

(i) numerals or letters representing cloth dimensions;

(j) a balanced numeral which does not consist of at least two more or two less digits than a balanced numeral of the same series already registered in the name of a different person.

113. Marks likely to deceive or to cause confusion.—(1) A trade mark consisting of numerals, letters, fractions, letter fractions or any combination thereof, and not being a balanced numeral, shall not be capable of being registered as a textile mark if it does not differ from a trade mark registered in the name of a different person—

(a) in the case of a numeral not exceeding four digits, in at least one corresponding digit;

(b) in the case of a numeral of five digits, in at least two corresponding digits;

(c) in the case of a numeral of six digits, in at least three corresponding digits;

(d) in the case of a combination of two letters, in at least one corresponding letter;

(e) in the case of a combination of three or four letters, in at least two corresponding letters;

(f) in the case of a combination of five or six letters, in at least three corresponding letters;

(g) in the case of mark consisting of one letter and one numeral digit, in at least one of them;

(h) in the case of a mark consisting of one letter and two or three numeral digits, in at least one corresponding numeral digit;

(i) in the case of a mark consisting of one letter and four or more numeral digits, in at least two corresponding digits;

(j) in the case of mark consisting of two or more letters and one or more numeral digits, in at least one corresponding letter and one corresponding numeral digit;

(k) in the case of a fraction or letter fraction or any combination thereof in which the total number of digits in the numerator and denominator is three or four, in at least one digit from either the numerator or the denominator;

(l) in the case of a fraction or letter fraction or any combination thereof in which the total number of digits in the numerator and denominator is five or more, in at least one corresponding digit in the numerator and one corresponding digit in the denominator or two corresponding digits in either the numerator or the denominator;

(m) in the case of a combination consisting of a numeral and a fraction:—

(i) where the numeral portion consists of not more than four digits, in at least one corresponding digit;

(ii) where the numeral portion consists of five or more digits, in at least two corresponding digits;

(n) in the case of a combination of letters, numerals, and fractions (including letter fractions):—

(i) where the total number of digits excluding the fraction, is not more than three, in at least one corresponding digit;

(ii) where the total number of digits, excluding the fraction, is four or more, in at least two corresponding digits.

(2) Nothing in sub-rule (1) shall be construed to signify that where a trade mark does not come within the scope of any case specified in the said sub-rule, the mark shall necessarily be regarded as not being likely to deceive or to cause confusion.

114. Exception in the case of 'old' marks.—In the case of a trade mark consisting of letters, numerals or any combination thereof which in respect of the same goods as those in relation to which registration is applied for, has been continuously used (either by the applicant for registration or by some predecessor in his business, and either in its original form or with additions or alterations not substantially affecting its identity) during the period from a date prior to the 25th day of February, 1937, to the date of application for registration, the Registrar shall not refuse registration by reason only of the fact that the trade mark does not satisfy the conditions and restrictions laid down in rule 113 and may register such mark on evidence of user.

CHAPTER III.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE.

115. Constitution.—(1) For the purpose of section 66, an Advisory Committee shall be constituted consisting of members appointed by the Central Government on the recommendation of the Association specified in the Seventh Schedule to these Rules.

(2) The number of recommendations which the Associations will be entitled to make shall be those specified in the said Schedule:

Provided that if within the period allowed by the Central Government for this purpose any of the said Associations fails to make any recommendation or to make the full number of recommendations which it is entitled to make, the Central Government may appoint the required number of members of the Advisory Committee of their own motion without any such recommendation.

(3) The Central Government may appoint other persons versed in the usage of the textile trade as members of the Committee.

116. Tenure of office of members.—The tenure of office of each member shall be two years, but a retiring member shall be eligible for re-appointment to the end of his tenure.

117. Substitution of members.—Whenever any member of the Advisory Committee ceases to reside in British India, or becomes incapable of acting as a member of the Advisory Committee, the Central Government may appoint another person to be a member in his stead, in accordance with the provision of rule 115.

118. Co-option of members.—Whenever it is considered expedient so to do, the Committee may co-opt one or more persons as its members for the purpose of any of its meetings:

Provided that any person co-opted as a member for the purpose of any meeting shall automatically cease to be a member after the termination of the said meeting.

119. Meetings.—(1) The first meeting of the Advisory Committee shall be held in Bombay on a date notified by the Central Government and it shall at that meeting elect two of its members as Chairman and Vice-Chairman respectively. When the Chairman or Vice-Chairman ceases to hold office, the vacancy shall be filled by re-election at the next meeting of the Advisory Committee.

(2) The Advisory Committee shall also appoint a Secretary and deposit the name and address of the Secretary at the Patent Office and at the Bombay Registry.

(3) Place of meetings.—Subsequent meetings of the Advisory Committee shall be convened by the Chairman at Calcutta or Bombay at the request of the Registrar or Bombay Registrar, as the case may be.

120. Manner of consultation.—Any question which the Advisory Committee is required to consider and advise upon may be referred for decision to the members of the Advisory Committee either at their meetings or by circulation of the papers:

Provided that any question referred by circulation of papers, shall, on request of at least ten members of the Advisory Committee, be placed on the agenda of the next meeting of the Committee.

121. The Registrar and the Bombay Registrar shall send in writing to the Advisory Committee the facts relating to the case in which their advice is sought.

122. The advice sought by the Registrar or the Bombay Registrar from the Advisory Committee shall be given by the Committee in writing within 21 days from the date of the receipt of the letter seeking advice, but the Registrar or the Bombay Registrar, as the case may be, may extend the time at the request of the Advisory Committee.

123. Where for the purpose of giving advice sought by the Registrar or the Bombay Registrar, the Committee require further information, they may write to the Registrar or the Bombay Registrar and the required information shall be given by the Registrar or the Bombay Registrar in writing.

124. Presiding at meetings.—The Chairman shall preside at every meeting at which he is present, and if he is absent, the Vice-Chairman shall preside over the meeting. In the absence of the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman, the members present shall elect one of their number to preside over the meeting.

125. Decision by voting.—Whenever the members of the Committee are divided in their opinion on any point at issue, the question shall be decided by a majority of the votes, and the voting shall be by show of hands. The Chairman may vote, and in the case of an equality of votes, shall have a casting vote.

126. Record of meetings.—The Secretary shall maintain a record of all business transacted by the Advisory Committee. The Registrar or the Bombay Registrar shall be entitled to call for copies certified to be true by the Secretary, of the record of the business transacted at any meeting.

PART IV.

REGISTRATION OF TRADE MARKS AGENTS.

127. Definitions.—(1) In this Part, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "Agents' Register" means the Register of Trade Marks Agents kept under rule 132 of these rules.

(b) "Graduate" means a graduate of a University constituted by law in British India or British Burma or of the University of Mysore or of the Osmania University, or of a University in Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

(c) "Registered Agent" means a trade marks agent whose name is actually on the Agents' Register.

(2) For the purpose of interpreting the provisions of this Part, references to the Registrar and to the Office shall be construed to include references to the Bombay Registrar and the Bombay Registry respectively.

128. Register of Trade Marks Agents.—The Central Government shall maintain a Register of Trade Marks Agents wherein shall be entered the name, the address, the business address, the qualifications and the date of registration of every registered agent.

129. Eligibility for registration.—(1) No person shall be eligible for registration as a trade marks agent unless he is a British subject resident in British India, and has been considered by the Central Government to be a fit person to become a registered agent.

(2) A candidate for registration as a trade marks agent shall ordinarily be a graduate, unless the Central Government, in any particular case, otherwise allows.

130. Persons debarred from registration.—A person shall not be eligible for registration as a trade marks agent if he—

(i) has been adjudged by a competent court to be of unsound mind;

(ii) is an undischarged insolvent;

(iii) being a discharged insolvent has not obtained from the court a certificate to the effect that his insolvency was caused by misfortune without any misconduct on his part;

(iv) has been convicted by a competent court, whether within or without British India, of an offence punishable with transportation or imprisonment, unless the offence of which he has been convicted has been pardoned or unless on an application made by him, the Central Government has, by order in this behalf, removed the disability; or

(v) is considered by the Central Government not to be a fit and proper person to become a registered agent by reason of any act of negligence, misconduct or dishonesty committed in his professional capacity.

131. Manner of making application.—All applications under the provisions of this Part, shall be sent to, or left at, the Office, and shall be made in duplicate.

132. Applications for registration as a trade marks agent.—(1) Every person desiring to be registered as a trade marks agent shall make an application on Form TMA-1.

(2) The applicant shall furnish such further information bearing on his application as may be required of him at any time by the Central Government or the Registrar.

133. Procedure on application.—(1) On receipt of an application for the registration of a person as a trade marks agent, the Registrar shall appoint a date on which the candidate will appear before him for an interview.

(2) After a candidate has been interviewed, and any further information bearing on his application, which the Registrar may consider necessary, has been obtained, the Registrar shall forward to the Central Government the application and other relevant papers along with his recommendations thereon.

134. Certificate of registration.—If the Central Government considers an applicant eligible for registration as a trade marks agent, it shall send an intimation to that effect to the applicant, and any person so intimated may pay the prescribed fees for his registration as a trade marks agent. On receipt of the prescribed fees, the Registrar shall send an intimation thereof to the Central Government; and the Central Government shall thereupon cause the applicant's name, to be entered in the Agents' Register, and shall issue to him a certificate of his registration as a trade marks agent.

135. The continuance of a person's name in the Agents' Register shall be subject to his payment of the fees prescribed in that behalf.

136. Removal of agent's name from Agents' Register.—(1) The Central Government may remove permanently or temporarily from the Agents' Register the name of any registered agent—

(a) from whom a request has been received to that effect; or

(b) from whom the annual fee has not been received on the expiry of three months from the date on which it became due; or

(c) who is found to have been subject at the time of his registration or thereafter has become subject, to any of the disabilities stated in clauses (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) of rule 130; or

(d) whom the Central Government has declared not to be a fit and proper person to remain on the register by reason of any act of negligence, misconduct or dishonesty committed in his professional capacity:

Provided that before making such declaration, the Central Government shall call upon the person concerned to show cause why his registration should not be cancelled and shall make such further enquiry, if any, as it may consider necessary.

(2) The Central Government shall remove from the Agents' Register the name of any registered agent who is dead.

(3) The removal of the name of any person from the Agents' Register shall be notified in the Official Gazette and in the Trade Marks Journal and shall, wherever possible, be communicated to the person concerned.

137. Restoration of removed names.—(1) The Central Government may, on an application on Form TMA-2 from a person whose name has been temporarily removed under sub-rule (1) of rule 135, restore his name to the Agents' Register.

(2) The restoration of a name to the Agents' Register shall be notified in the official Gazette and in the Trade Marks Journal and shall be communicated to the person concerned.

138. Alteration in the Agents' Register.—(1) A registered agent may apply on Form TMA-3 for alteration of his name, address, business address or qualifications entered in the Agents' Register. On receipt of such application and the fee prescribed in that behalf, the Central Government shall cause the necessary alteration to be made in the Agents' Register.

(2) Every alteration made in the Agents' Register shall be notified in the official Gazette and in the Trade Marks Journal.

139. Publication of the Agents' Register.—The Agents' Register shall be published from time to time, as the Central Government may deem fit, the entries being arranged in the alphabetical order of the surnames of the registered agents and copies thereof shall be placed on sale.

RESOLUTION.

INDIAN SEAMEN.

New Delhi, the 14th February 1942.

No. 275-M. II (20)/41-War.—The Legislative Assembly, on the 25th February 1941, adopted the following Resolution:—

"This Assembly recommends to the Governor General in Council to take steps to establish schemes providing for the payment from Central Revenues of compensation in respect of war injuries and war damage to effects sustained during the period of the present emergency by masters and seamen employed on sea-going service on ships registered in British India under the Bombay Coasting Vessels Act, 1838, or under the Indian Registration of Ships Act, 1841."

The Council of State adopted a similar Resolution on the 11th March 1941.

2. In pursuance of these Resolutions the Central Government has framed the following schemes of compensation, namely:—

I. The War Pensions and Detention Allowances (Indian Seamen) Scheme, 1942.

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Scheme may be called the War Pensions and Detention Allowances (Indian Seamen) Scheme, 1942.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Persons to whom the Scheme applies.—(1) This Scheme applies to any person [not being a member of His Majesty's naval forces or a person mentioned in sub-clause (2) of this clause] who is employed or engaged in seagoing service as the master or a member of the crew of a British Indian ship.

(2) This Scheme does not apply to any person who is employed or engaged as a member of the crew of a British Indian ship for no remuneration or nominal remuneration only.

3. Interpretation.—(1) The General Clauses Act, 1897, shall apply to the interpretation of this Scheme as it applies to the interpretation of a Central Act.

(2) In this Scheme, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "British Indian ship" means a ship registered under the Bombay Coasting Vessels Act, 1838, or the Indian Registration of Ships Act, 1841:

Provided that a ship which is being used for the purposes of private amusement or pleasure shall not be deemed to be a British Indian ship for the purposes of this Scheme;

(b) "dependant", in relation to a seaman, means any of the following relatives of the seaman, that is to say, a parent, a brother who has not attained the age of fourteen years, an unmarried or widowed sister, a grandchild who has not attained the age of fourteen years and who is a child of a deceased son or, where no parent of the child is alive, a child of a deceased daughter, a paternal grandparent where no parent of the seaman is alive, and such other relative of the seaman as the Central Government may in any special case or class of case direct, being in each case a relative who was in receipt of genuine, regular and substantial support or benefit from the seaman during the relevant period;

(c) "detention", in relation to a seaman, means detention which is consequent on the capture, seizure, arrest or other restraint of the seaman or of his ship effected by reason of the existence of a state of war while he is in the service of a British Indian ship;

(d) "eligible child", in relation to a seaman, means a child of the seaman who has not attained the age of fourteen years and who was born at any time not later than nine months after the relevant date and who is—

(i) a legitimate son or an unmarried legitimate daughter; or

(ii) an illegitimate son, an unmarried illegitimate daughter, or a daughter whether legitimate or illegitimate who is married or widowed, being a son or daughter who, if born before the relevant date, was at that date being wholly or substantially maintained by the seaman;

(e) "pre-war rate of pay", in relation to the capacity in which a seaman is employed or engaged at the relevant date, means the rate of pay on the 31st day of August 1939, of a seaman employed or engaged in that capacity in service of a type and for a period which is the same as, or similar to, the type and period of the service in which the seaman is employed or engaged at the relevant date;

(f) "relevant date" means, in relation to a seaman whose death or disablement is directly attributable to a war injury or to detention, the date on which that war injury was sustained or on which that detention commenced, as the case may be, and, in relation to a seaman who suffers detention, the date on which the detention commenced;

(g) "relevant period" means—

(i) in relation to a seaman whose death is directly attributable to a war injury or to detention, the period commencing twenty-six weeks before the date on which he sustained that war injury or on which that detention commenced, as the case may be, and ending on the date of his death (but excluding any period during which the seaman suffered detention), or such lesser period as the Central Government may direct in any special case or class of case; and

(ii) in relation to a seaman who suffers detention, the period of twenty-six weeks (or such lesser period as the Central Government may direct in any special case or class of case) ending on the date on which that detention commenced;

(h) "seaman" means a person to whom this Scheme applies;

(i) "war injury", in relation to a seaman, means a physical injury—

(i) caused by—

(a) the discharge of any missile (including liquids and gas), or

(b) the use of any weapon, explosive or other noxious thing, or

(c) the doing of any other injurious act, either by the enemy or in combating the enemy or in repelling an imagined attack by the enemy; or

(ii) caused by the impact on any person or property of any enemy aircraft, or any aircraft belonging to, or held by any person on behalf of or for the benefit of, His Majesty or any allied power, or any part of, or anything dropped from, any such aircraft;

being in any case a physical injury sustained by the seaman while he is in the service of a British Indian ship;

(j) "wife", in relation to a seaman, means a wife married to the seaman at the relevant date, and "widow" shall be construed accordingly;

(3) Where a seaman suffers detention, that detention may for the purposes of this Scheme be treated as continuing until whichever is the earlier of the two following dates, that is to say—

(a) the date of his death;

(b) the date on which it is first practicable for him to arrive back in India; or until such other date as the Central Government may direct in relation to that seaman or to any class of such seaman.

4. Classification of Seaman.—For the purposes of this Scheme a seaman shall belong to the class which is specified in the second column of the First Schedule to this Scheme in relation to the pre-war rate of pay appropriate to the capacity in which at the relevant date the seaman was employed or engaged.

5. Ascertainment of degree of disablement.—(1) Where a seaman suffers disablement which is directly attributable to a war injury or to detention, the degree of that disablement shall be assessed and certified in accordance with the following provisions of this clause by a Civil Surgeon or a medical officer of the status of Civil Surgeon or a medical board appointed or recognised by the Central Government for the purpose.

(2) In the case of an injury which is specified in the first column of the First Schedule to the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923, the degree of disablement shall be assessed and certified at the percentage which is specified in the second column of that Schedule in relation to that injury, and, in the case of two or more such injuries, the degree of disablement shall be assessed and certified at the sum of the percentages so specified in relation to those injuries or at one hundred per cent., whichever is the less.

(3) Subject to the provisions of sub-clause (2) of this clause, the degree of disablement shall be assessed by making a comparison between the condition of disablement of the seaman and the condition of a normal healthy male of the same age, without taking into account his earning capacity in his own or any other specific trade or occupation and so that the extent to which that condition has been aggravated by individual factors or extraneous circumstances shall not be included in the degree at which that disablement is assessed:

Provided that, in a case of disablement directly attributable to two or more war injuries or to two or more detentions, or to both a war injury and a detention, the degree of disablement shall be assessed in accordance with this paragraph by reference to the combined effect of each such war injury or detention.

(4) The degree of disablement assessed under sub-clause (3) shall be certified by way of a percentage, total disablement being represented by one hundred per cent., and a lesser degree of disablement being represented by seventy-five per cent., fifty per cent., twenty-five per cent., or less than twenty-five per cent., as may be most appropriate to the degree of disablement.

6. Awards of gratuities for disablement.—(1) Where a seaman suffers disablement which is directly attributable to a war injury or to detention, there may be awarded to him under this clause in respect of that disablement a gratuity of an amount which bears to the sum specified in the second column of the Second Schedule to this Scheme in relation to the class to which he belongs for the purposes of this Scheme the same proportion as the degree at which that disablement has been assessed and certified under clause 5 bears to one hundred per cent.;

Provided that an award under this clause shall only be made in respect of disablement which—

(a) is assessed and certified under sub-clause (2) of clause 5; or

(b) is of a permanent or prolonged character and is certified under sub-clause (4) of clause 5 to be of a degree which is not less than twenty-five per cent.

(2) Where any sum has been paid in respect of the disablement of a seaman by way of a special allowance under clause 7 or by way of a wife's allowance under clause 8, no reduction on account of that sum shall be made in the amount of a gratuity under this clause in respect of that disablement.

7. Awards of special allowances in certain cases.—(1) Where a seaman suffers disablement which is directly attributable to a war injury or to detention and it has not been determined whether an award in respect of that disablement is to be made under clause 6 or what the amount of that award should be, there may be awarded to him under this clause in respect of that disablement a special allowance in accordance with the following provisions of this clause.

(2) A special allowance may only be awarded if the seaman—

(a) is unable by reason of the disablement to provide by his earnings for his own support and that of his family; and

(b) is in need of treatment for the disablement.

(3) A special allowance shall be at the monthly rate of eight rupees.

(4) A special allowance shall not, unless the Central Government in the circumstances of any particular case otherwise determines, be paid after the expiration of the period of twelve months from the date of the war injury or of the end of the detention of which the disablement of the seaman is directly attributable.

8. Awards of wives' allowances in certain cases.—(1) Where the conditions laid down in sub-clauses (1) and (2) of clause 7 are fulfilled in the case of a seaman who has a wife, there may be awarded under this clause in respect of the disablement of the seaman a wife's allowance in accordance with the following provisions of this clause.

(2) A wife's allowance shall be at such rate as the Central Government may from time to time determine having regard to all the circumstances of the case, being a rate which does not exceed the rate specified in the second column of the Third Schedule to this Scheme in relation to the class to which the seaman belongs for the purposes of this Scheme.

(3) A wife's allowance may be paid to the wife of a seaman or may, where there is more than one wife of the seaman, be paid to such one of them or divided between them in such shares as the Central Government may think fit, or may, in any case where the Central Government so directs, be paid to the seaman.

(4) A wife's allowance shall not, unless the Central Government in the circumstances of any particular case otherwise determines, be paid after the expiration of the period of twelve months from the date of the war injury or of the end of the detention to which the disablement of the seaman is directly attributable.

9. Awards of widows pensions.—(1) Where the death of a seaman is directly attributable to a war injury or to detention, and there is a widow of the seaman, there may be awarded under this clause in respect of the death of the seaman a widow's pension in accordance with the following provisions of this clause.

(2) A widow's pension shall be at the rate specified in the second column of the Fourth Schedule to this Scheme in relation to the class to which the seaman belongs for the purposes of this Scheme.

(3) A widow's pension may be paid to the widow of the seaman or, where there is more than one widow of the seaman, may be paid to such one of them or divided between them in such shares as the Central Government may think fit.

(4) A widow's pension or a share of a widow's pension shall cease to be payable on the date on which the widow to whom that pension or share is being paid dies or re-marries or begins to live with any person as his wife.

(5) Where a share of a widow's pension ceases for any reason to be payable to a widow of a seaman, the share of that pension payable to any other widow of the seaman shall not be increased on that account.

10. Awards of children's allowances.—(1) Where the death of a seaman is directly attributable to a war injury or to detention, and there is an eligible child of the seaman, there may be awarded under this clause in respect of the death of the seaman a child's allowance for that child in accordance with the following provisions of this clause.

(2) A child's allowance shall, in a case where the child's mother is dead and the child is neither living with nor under the control of a widow of the seaman, be at the monthly rate of four rupees and shall in any other case be at the monthly rate of two rupees.

(3) A child's allowance may be paid to the widow of the seaman if the child is living with her or under her control and may, in any case where the Central Government so directs, be applied for the benefit of the child in accordance with the provisions of this Scheme.

11. Awards of dependant's pension.—(1) Where the death of a seaman is directly attributable to a war injury or to detention, and there is a dependant of the seaman who is in pecuniary need arising from age or from some infirmity or other adverse condition which is not of a temporary character (hereinafter referred to as an "eligible dependant"), there may be awarded under this clause in respect of the death of the seaman a dependant's pension in accordance with the following provisions of this clause.

(2) A dependant's pension shall be at such rate as the Central Government may from time to time determine having regard to the number eligible dependants, their relationship to the seaman, the extent of their need and the other circumstances of the case:

Provided that the rate of a dependant's pension shall not exceed whichever of the following rates is applicable, that is to say—

(a) in a case where the only eligible dependant has not attained the age of fourteen years, the monthly rate of four rupees;

(b) in a case where the only eligible dependant has attained the age of fourteen years, the monthly rate of eight rupees;

(c) in any other case the rate at which a widow's pension could be awarded under this Scheme in respect of the death of the seaman:

Provided also that in any case where a child's allowance is being paid under this Scheme in respect of the death of the seaman at the rate appropriate in a case where the child's mother is died and the child is neither living with nor under the control of a widow of the seaman, the rate of a dependant's pension shall not exceed the rate which is arrived at by deducting the rate of that child's allowance or where there is more than one such child's allowance, the aggregate rate of those children's allowances, from the aggregate rate which would have been awarded under this Scheme by way of widow's pension and child's allowance or children's allowances if there had been a widow of the seaman and the child or children had been living with her or under her control.

(3) A dependant's pension may be paid to the eligible dependant or, where there are two or more such dependants, may be paid to any one of them or divided between any two or more of them in such shares as the Central Government may think fit.

(4) Where a widow's pension has been awarded under this Scheme in respect of the death of a seaman, an award under this clause in respect of the death of the seaman shall not be made to any dependant of the seaman other than a parent and may only be made to a parent of the seaman if the widow's pension has ceased to be paid.

(5) A dependant's pension or a share of a dependant's pension payable to a female dependant who is unmarried or a widow shall cease to be payable on the date on which she marries or remarries or begins to live with any person as his wife.

12. Special provision for awards in respect of death.—No award shall be made under this Scheme in respect of the death of a seaman—

(a) if his death occurs more than seven years after the date of the war injury or of the end of the detention to which his death is claimed to be directly attributable; or

(b) if a gratuity has been awarded under this scheme in respect of the disablement of the seaman on the basis that the disablement was directly attributable to the war injury or the detention to which his death is claimed to be directly attributable:

Provided that, where the Central Government in the exceptional circumstances of any particular case so directs, an award in respect of the death of a seaman may, notwithstanding the provisions of sub-clause (b) of this clause, be made if—

(i) his death was attributable solely to the war injury or detention to which his disablement was directly attributable; and

(ii) his death occurred not later than two years after the date on which that war injury was sustained or that detention came to an end; and

(iii) the degree of that disablement was assessed and certified at not more than twenty-five per cent.

13. Awards of detention of allowances.—(1) Where a seaman suffers detention, there may be awarded under this clause in respect of that detention a detention allowance for the whole or any part of the period of that detention in accordance with the following provisions of this clause:

Provided that, unless the Central Government in the special circumstances of any particular case otherwise directs, a detention allowance shall not be awarded in respect of the detention of a seaman where a claim to that detention allowance is first made more than six months after that detention came to an end.

(2) A detention allowance shall consist of an allowance (hereinafter called the "reserved allowance") which may be paid to the seaman after his detention has come to an end, and which shall be at the rate specified in the second column of the Fifth Schedule to this Scheme in relation to the class to which the seaman belongs for the purposes of this Scheme.

(3) If and so long as the seaman has a wife, an eligible child or a dependant, a detention allowance shall, in addition to the reserved allowance, consist of an allowance (hereinafter called the "available allowance") which may either during the detention of the seaman or after his detention has come to an end, be paid to or applied for the benefit of his wife, his eligible child or his dependant or any two or more of them.

(4) The available allowance shall be at such rate as the Central Government may from time to time determine having regard to all the circumstances of the case, being a rate which does not exceed the rate specified in the third column of the Fifth Schedule to this Scheme in relation to the class to which the seaman belongs for the purposes of this Scheme.

14. Time limits for claims.—Unless the Central Government in the special circumstances of any particular case otherwise directs, no award shall be made under this Scheme where a claim to that award is first made more than two years after whichever of the following dates is applicable, that is to say—

(a) in the case of an award in respect of disablement which is claimed to have been directly attributable to a war injury or to detention, the date on which the war injury was sustained or the detention came to an end; and

(b) in the case of an award in respect of death, the date of the death.

15. Provision as to certain allowances where wages are paid.—An allowance under clause 7 or under clause 8 or under clause 13 of this Scheme may in respect of any period be withheld or reduced by such amount as the Central Government may determine where, in respect of that period, a payment has been or will be made to the seaman, or to the wife or an eligible child or a dependant of the seaman, by way of or in lieu of his wages or by way of compensation for the loss of his wages or in fulfilment of a contract of service entered into by him.

16. Provisions as to negligence or misconduct.—Where a war injury or detention, or where disablement or death arising from a war injury or detention, is attributable to the serious negligence or misconduct of the seaman sustaining the war injury or suffering the detention, the Central Government may withhold or cancel any award which may be or has been made under this Scheme in respect of the disablement, death or detention of the seaman or may reduce the amount thereof.

17. Determination of medical question.—Where, in connection with an application for an award under this Scheme any medical question arises, that question shall not be determined except upon the certificate of a Civil Surgeon or a medical officer of the status of Civil Surgeon or a medical board appointed or recognised by the Central Government for the purpose.

18. Provision as to making and payment of awards.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Scheme, awards under this Scheme may be made provisionally or upon any other basis and of such amount and, in the case of awards of allowances or pensions, for such period and at such rate as the Central Government may think fit, so, however, that no award shall be made of an amount or for a period or at a rate exceeding the amount, period or rate authorised by this Scheme in the case of that award.

(2) Any gratuity, allowance or pension awarded under this Scheme shall be paid in such manner as the Central Government may direct and any allowance or pension awarded under this Scheme may be paid in advance or in arrear and at such intervals of time as the Central Government may think fit.

19. Administration of awards.—(1) Any gratuity, allowance or pension which may be paid to a person may, in lieu of being paid to that person, be applied for his benefit if the Central Government considers that it is in the interests of that person that it should be so applied.

(2) Any gratuity, allowance or pension which may be applied for the benefit of any person may be so applied by the Central Government or may be paid by it for the purpose of being so applied to any other person whom it considers to be a fit and proper person so to apply that gratuity, pension or allowance.

20. Provision as to conditions on which awards are made.—Any award under this Scheme of a pension or allowance which may only be awarded if a condition is fulfilled shall cease to have effect if and when that condition is found not to be fulfilled.

21. Review of awards.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Scheme, the Central Government may at any time review an award of an allowance or a pension under this Scheme and, if there has been any mistake of fact, or any change in the condition or circumstances of the person to or for the benefit of whom payment under the award is being made, or if that person is in the opinion of the Central Government unworthy to receive a payment out of Crown revenues, or is being supported in whole or in part out of Crown revenues, or if there is any other reason whatsoever which in the opinion of the Central Government is a good and sufficient reason for so doing, the Central Government may cancel or suspend the award or reduce the rate thereof.

(2) The Central Government may, upon such terms and as from such date (including any past date) as it thinks fit, restore in whole or in part any award which has been cancelled or suspended under sub-clause (1) of this clause and amend the rate of any award which has been reduced under that sub-clause.

22. Administration of Scheme.—(1) The Central Government shall be the sole administrator and interpretor of this Scheme and all questions with respect to the effect or operation of this Scheme shall be determined by that Government and its decision thereon shall be final and conclusive.

(2) The Central Government may make regulations for giving effect to the purposes of this Scheme.

(3) The Central Government may by order direct that any power or duty which is conferred or imposed on the Central Government by any of the preceding clauses shall be exercised or discharged by such officer or authority as may be specified in the Order.

II. The Compensation to Indian Seamen (War Damage to Effects) Scheme, 1942.

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Scheme may be called the Compensation to Indian Seamen (War Damage to Effects) Scheme, 1942.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Persons to whom the Scheme applies.—(1) This Scheme applies to any person (not being a member of His Majesty's Naval forces or a person mentioned in sub-clause (2) of this clause) who is employed or engaged in sea-going service as the master or a member of the crew of a British Indian ship.

(2) This Scheme does not apply to any person who is employed or engaged as a member of the crew of a British Indian ship for no remuneration or nominal remuneration only.

3. Interpretation.—(1) The General Clauses Act, 1897, shall apply to the interpretation of this Scheme as it applies to the interpretation of a Central Act.

(2) In this Scheme, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "British Indian Ship" means a ship registered under the Bombay Coasting Vessels Act, 1838, or the Indian Registration of Ships Act, 1841:

Provided that a ship which is being used for the purposes of private amusement or pleasure shall not be deemed to be a British ship for the purposes of this Scheme;

(b) "effects", in relation to a seaman, means any property carried on his person or in the ship in which he is serving at the time when the war damage in question occurs;

(c) "seaman" means a person to whom this Scheme applies;

(d) "war damage", in relation to the effects of a seaman, means loss of or damage to his effects sustained while he is in the service of a British Indian ship and—

(a) caused by—

(i) the discharge of any missile (including liquids and gas), or

(ii) the use of any weapon, explosive or other noxious thing, or

(iii) the doing of any other injurious act, either by the enemy or in combating the enemy or in repelling an imagined attack by the enemy; or

(b) caused by the impact on any person or property of any enemy aircraft, or any aircraft belonging to, or held by any person on behalf of or for the benefit of, His Majesty or any allied power, or any part of, or anything dropped from, any such aircraft; or

(c) caused by or in consequence of his capture or the capture of his effects.

4. Award of compensation.—(1) Where a seaman sustains any war damage to his effects, the Central Government may award him such compensation for the damage as it thinks fit but not exceeding—

(a) in the case of a seaman of rank lower than a tindal, forty rupees, and

(b) in any other case, fifty rupees or one month's wages at the rate to which the seaman was entitled when the war damage occurred, whichever is more.

(2) In the event of the death of a seaman, the Central Government may award any compensation that would have been payable to him under sub-clause (1) if he had survived, to any persons who prove themselves to the satisfaction of the Central Government to be entitled to the effects, if any, of the deceased seaman.

5. Time limit for claims.—No compensation shall be payable under this Scheme, unless the Central Government otherwise directs, in respect of any war damage to effects unless the claim to such compensation has been made before the expiry of one year from the time the war damage occurred.

6. Administration of Scheme.—(1) The Central Government shall be the sole administrator and interpreter of this Scheme and all questions with respect to the effect or operation of the Scheme shall be determined by that Government and its decision thereon shall be final and conclusive.

(2) The Central Government may make regulations for giving effect to the purposes of this Scheme.

(3) The Central Government may by order direct that any power or duty which is conferred or imposed on the Central Government by any of the preceding clauses shall be exercised or discharged by such officer or authority as may be specified in the order.

ORDER.—Ordered that this Resolution be communicated to all Provincial Governments, all Chief Commissioners, the several Departments of the Government of India (including the Financial Adviser, Military Finance and Finance Officer, Communications), the Political Department, the Private and Military Secretaries to His Excellency the Viceroy, all Heads of Departments and Officers concerned subordinate to the Department of Commerce, the Auditor General, all Accountants General and Comptrollers, and the High Commissioner for India.

A. H. LLOYD,

Secy. to the Govt. of India.

New Delhi, the 27th December 1941.

No. 104-Ind. (4)/41.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-rule (2) of rule 81 of the Defence of India Rules, the Central Government is pleased to direct that the following further amendments shall be made in the Newsprint Control order, 1941, namely:—

I. In paragraph 7 of the said Order, clause (a) and the brackets and letter (b) shall be omitted.

II. In the Forms appended to the said Order, Form V and in Form VI, the brackets and letter "(b)" shall be omitted.

NEWSPAPER CONTROL ORDER.

New Delhi, the 29th January 1942.

No. 104-Ind. (28)/41.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-rule (2) of rule 81 of the Defence of India Rules, the Central Government is pleased to make the following Order, namely:—

1. (1) This Order may be called the Newspaper Control Order, 1942.

(2) It shall come into force on the 2nd day of February 1942.

2. (1) For the purposes of this Order—

(a) "newspaper" means a publication—

(i) consisting wholly or in greater part of political or other news, or of articles relating thereto or to other current topics, whether or not it also contains advertisements, and

(ii) published at intervals of not more than thirty-one days, and

(iii) printed, wholly or in part, on newsprint, as defined in the Newsprint Control Order, 1941;

(b) newspapers shall be classified into the three classes specified in the second column of the Schedule annexed to this Order, according to the page-area;

Explanation.—In computing page-area margins clear of print shall be included;

(c) "week" means a period of seven consecutive days beginning on a Monday;

(d) "daily newspaper" means a newspaper not less than 6 issues of which are normally published in a week.

(2) If any dispute arises as to whether a publication is or is not a newspaper for the purposes of this Order, the decision thereon of the Central Government or of an officer appointed by the Central Government in this behalf shall be final.

3. No newspaper having a retail sale price specified in the first column of the Schedule annexed to this Order shall be published, sold or offered for sale by any person, unless it contains a number of pages not exceeding the number specified in the corresponding entry, applicable to its class, in the second column of the said Schedule:

Provided that in the case of a daily newspaper, all issues, or all issues but one, of which in any week have the same retail sale price, the number of pages prescribed in this paragraph may be exceeded in one or more issues during that week, so long as the maximum total number of pages admissible for the actual number of issues during that week is not exceeded.

4. (1) In addition to the normal issues a special issue of two pages only may be published for sale in areas in which no newspaper published after the hour of 3 p.m. is in circulation.

(2) Special issues published in pursuance of sub-paragraph (1) shall not be taken into account for the purposes of paragraph 3.

5. In the case of a daily newspaper referred to in the proviso to paragraph 3, where by reason of the occurrence of New Year's Day or of some day of religious observance, the publication of a normal issue is withheld on that day or on the day next following, the total number of pages admissible during the period comprising the week in which the publication of the normal issue is withheld and the week next following, may be increased by half the number of pages which the unpublished issue might, in accordance with the provisions of the Schedule annexed to this Order, have contained.

6. Where under the operation of any provision of this Order, the number of pages admissible for publication is an odd number, the publication only of the number of pages next below such odd number shall be admissible.

Bills introduced in the Bengal Legislative Assembly; Reports of Select Committees presented or to be presented to that Assembly; and Bills published before introduction in that Assembly

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 631L.A.--5th March 1942.—It is hereby notified for general information that at the meeting of the Bengal Legislative Assembly held on 27th February 1942, a motion was carried that the Bengal Restoration of Landlords Auction Purchased Lands Bill, 1940, by Maulvi Abdul Hakim, Member, Bengal Legislative Assembly, be recirculated for the purpose of eliciting further opinion thereon by 30th June 1942. Expressions of opinion by public bodies or by individuals interested in the said Bill, which is republished together with its Statement of Objects and Reasons in this Gazette, should be sent so as to reach the undersigned before that date.

THE BENGAL RESTORATION OF LANDLORDS' AUCTION PURCHASED LANDS BILL, 1940.

A

to provide for the restoration of certain lands to the former tenants.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide, in the manner hereinafter appearing, for the restoration to the former tenants of certain lands which were sold for arrears of rent between the 1st day of January, 1930, and the 31st day of December, 1938, on account of the inability of the tenantry to pay such arrears by reason of the unprecedented fall in prices between the said dates ;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Bengal Restoration of Landlords' Auction Purchased Lands Act, 1940.

(2) It shall extend to the whole of Bengal.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Provincial Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

Definitions.

2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) the expressions "holding," "landlord," "raiyat," "Collector" have the same meanings as in the Bengal Tenancy Act ;

(b) "decree" includes a certificate signed under the Bengal Public Demands Recovery Act, 1913 ;

Application by raiyat for restoration of land sold for arrears of rent.

3. (1) A raiyat, whose holding or a portion of whose holding was sold at any time between the first day of January, 1930, and 31st day of December, 1938, in execution of a decree for arrears of rent and was purchased by the landlord of such holding and is in possession or under the control of the said landlord, may make an application to the Collector for the restoration to him, of such holding or portion.

(2) Every application under sub-section (1) shall be in the prescribed form and shall contain the following particulars, namely :—

(ii) the date on which and the amount for which the holding was sold ;

(iii) a statement by the applicant that he is willing to pay the amount which may be determined by the Collector as the amount payable to the landlord for such restoration ; and

(iv) such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(3) No application under this section shall be entertained unless it is made within a period of one year from the date on which this Act comes into force.

The Bengal Restoration of Landlords' Auction Purchased Lands Bill, 1940.

(Clauses 4—6.)

Procedure on receipt of application.

4. (1) When the Collector entertains an application made by a raiyat under section 3, the Collector may, if such application does not comply with the requirements of sub-section (2) of the said section, allow the defect to be remedied then and there or within a time to be fixed by him.

(2) If the defect is not remedied then and there or where the Collector has fixed a time under sub-section (1) within such time the Collector shall reject the application.

Notice to landlord.

5. If the application is not rejected under section 4, the Collector shall fix a date for the hearing of the application, and shall forthwith give notice of the application and of the date fixed for the hearing thereof and shall also send along with such notice a copy of the application to the landlord named in the application.

Objection by landlord and disposal of such objection.

6. (1) On the date fixed for the hearing of the application, the landlord may appear and object to the application on any one or more of the following grounds, namely :—

(a) that he is a petty landlord and that he has been cultivating the holding or any portion thereof by himself with his own stock or by his own servants since before the introduction of this Act into the legislature ;

(b) that he has constructed any building or other structure of a permanent nature or planted any garden on the holding or any portion of the holding before the date of introduction of this Act into the legislature and that such building, structure or garden is of such a value that the restoration of the land covered by such building, structure or garden will be unfair ;

(c) that he has excavated any tank on the holding or any portion of the holding before the date of introduction of this Act into the legislature ;

(d) that the holding mentioned in the application or any portion thereof is in the possession of a third person and that such third person is in possession of the holding or such portion on his own behalf or on behalf of some person other than the landlord under a settlement which in the case of a holding or portion of a holding sold before the 31st day of December, 1938, was made in good faith by such landlord before the date of introduction of this Act into the legislature.

(2) The Collector shall thereupon make such inquiry as he thinks fit and if he decides—

(a) that the landlord is a petty landlord and that he has been cultivating such holding or portion as mentioned in clause (a) of sub-section (1), he shall—

(i) where the entire holding or portion sold is being so cultivated, dismiss the application ;

(ii) where only a part of such holding or portion is being so cultivated, reject the application in so far as it relates to such part and order that the application shall proceed with respect to the remaining part of the holding or portion ;

(b) that such building, structure or garden is of such a value that the restoration of the land covered by such building, structure or garden will be unfair, he shall—

(i) if such building, structure or garden covers the entire holding or portion sold, dismiss the application ;

The Bengal Restoration of Landlords' Auction Purchased Lands Bill, 1940.

(Clauses 7, 8.)

(ii) if such building, structure or garden covers only a part of such holding or portion, reject the application in so far as it relates to the site of such building, structure or garden and the lands immediately appurtenant thereto and necessary for its enjoyment, and order that the application shall proceed with respect to the remaining part of the holding or portion sold ;

(c) that the landlord has excavated any tank, he shall—

(i) if such tank covers the entire holding or portion sold, dismiss the application ;

(ii) if such tank covers only a part of such holding or portion, reject the application in so far as it relates to the site of such tank and the lands immediately appurtenant thereto and necessary for its enjoyment, and order that the application shall proceed with respect to the remaining part of the holding or portion sold ;

(d) that such third person is in possession on his own behalf or on behalf of some person other than the landlord under a settlement mentioned in clause (d) of sub-section (1)—

(ii) of a part of such holding or portion, he shall reject the application in so far as it relates to such part and order that the application shall proceed with respect to the remaining part of the holding or portion :

Provided that no order under this clause shall be made unless the Collector has given notice of the application to such third person.

Non-appearance of landlord.

7. If on the date fixed for the hearing of an application made under sub-section (1) of section 3, the landlord named in such application fails to appear after due service of notice, the Collector may proceed ex parte.

Procedure if application is not dismissed.

8. (1) If an application made by a raiyat under section 3 is not rejected under section 4 or dismissed under sub-section (2) of section 6, the Collector shall—

(a) determine the land which is liable to be restored to the raiyat under the provisions of this Act ;

(b) determine the amount which shall be payable by the raiyat for the restoration to him of such land ; provided that such amount shall—

(i) in the case of an entire holding or, if only a portion of a holding was sold, in the case of the whole of such portion, be a sum equal to the entire amount, if any, which the raiyat or any person having a claim against the raiyat may have withdrawn, out of the proceeds of the sale of such holding or portion, and fifty per centum of the aggregate of the amount mentioned in the sale proclamation for the realisation of which the holding or portion was sold and of the amount of costs necessarily incurred by the landlord in connection with his application for delivery of possession ; and

The Bengal Restoration of Landlords' Auction Purchased Lands Bill, 1940.

(Clauses 9, 10.)

(ii) in the case of portion of a holding, if the entire holding was sold, or a part of a portion, if only a portion of the holding was sold, be such part of the sum mentioned in sub-clause (1) as the Collector may deem fair and equitable after considering all the circumstances of the case including the value of the entire land sold and of the portion to be restored;

(c) ascertain whether the raiyat desires to deposit the amount mentioned in clause (b) in one lump sum or in instalments;

(d) if the raiyat desires to deposit or pay the said amount in instalments, determine, having regard to the means and circumstances of the raiyat, the number and amount of such instalments which shall not in any event extend over a period exceeding five years; and

(e) order that the raiyat shall be put in possession of such land—

(i) if the amount determined under clause (b) is payable in one lump sum, after the raiyat has deposited with the Collector such lump sum; and

(ii) if the said amount is payable in instalments, as soon as possible after the raiyat has deposited with the Collector the amount of the first instalment.

(2) When the Collector passes an order under clause (e) of sub-section (1), he shall on the raiyat's application deliver possession of the land mentioned in such order—

(a) in the case mentioned in sub-clause (i) of clause (e) of sub-section (1), as soon as possible after the raiyat has deposited with the Collector the sum mentioned in the said sub-clause; and

(b) in the case mentioned in sub-clause (ii) of clause (e) of the said sub-section, as soon as possible after the raiyat has deposited with the Collector the amount referred to in the said sub-clause.

(3) If the raiyat is unable to pay the sum as determined under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of this section, the Collector on application made to him by the raiyat to this effect shall set apart for the landlord such portion of the land sold as is sufficient to cover the said sum and shall order restoration and delivery of possession of the remaining land to him.

Payment of sums to landlords.

9. (1) When the Collector makes an order that any sum payable by a raiyat to a landlord under any of the provisions of this Act, may be paid by instalments, such instalments may at the option of the raiyat be deposited with the Collector or sent by money order to the landlord.

(2) Any sum deposited with the Collector by a raiyat under this Act, as the amount payable to the landlord, shall be paid by the Collector to such landlord.

Determination of plots to be restored and the rent payable by raiyat.

10. When the Collector directs under any of the provisions of this Act, that only a part of the holding or portion sold shall be restored to the raiyat, he shall—

(a) if the raiyat and the landlord of such holding do not agree as regards the specific plots to be restored, determine the plots which shall be restored to the raiyat, and

The Bengal Restoration of Landlords' Auction Purchased Lands Bill, 1940.

(Clauses 11—13.)

(b) determine the rent which shall be payable by the raiyat for such portion of the holding, and the raiyat shall be liable to pay the same to the landlord.

Application of dispossession to the Collector.

11. (1) Where a person claiming to be in possession of a holding or portion of a holding as mentioned in clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 6 is dispossessed as a result of any delivery of possession made under sub-section (2) of section 8, he may, within two weeks from the date on which he is dispossessed, make an application to the Collector complaining of such dispossession.

(2) Upon the receipt of an application made under sub-section (1) the Collector shall fix a date for investigating the matter and shall summon the party against whom the application is made to appear and answer the same.

(3) If the Collector, after making such inquiry as he thinks fit, is satisfied that the applicant was in possession of the holding or portion as mentioned in clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 6, and had no notice of the proceeding in which the order for delivery of possession was passed, he shall direct that the applicant be put in possession of the said holding or portion.

Rights of raiyats on restoration.

12. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law or in anything having the force of law or in any custom, when any land is restored to a raiyat under the provisions of this Act—

(a) any simple mortgage or charge created by the landlord in respect of such land or any portion thereof shall not be binding on the raiyat; and

(b) all such rights as the raiyat had in respect of the said land and the incidents thereof before its sale shall revive.

Ejectment of raiyats for failure to pay instalments.

13. (1) If a raiyat, who has been restored to the possession of his holding or portion of his holding in pursuance of an order under sub-clause (ii) of clause (e) of sub-section (1) of section 8, fails to deposit with the Collector or send to the landlord by money order during a period of two consecutive years, the instalments fixed under clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 8, the landlord may make an application to the Collector for the restoration to him of the said holding or portion.

(2) On the receipt of an application under sub-section (1), the Collector shall fix a date for the hearing of the application which, in the case referred to in the proviso to sub-section (3), shall not be less than six weeks from the date of the notice, and shall give notice, to the raiyat of the date so fixed and send along with such notice a copy of the application.

(3) On the date fixed for the hearing of the application, the Collector shall hear the parties and shall make such enquiry as he thinks fit and shall, if he is satisfied that the raiyat has failed to deposit with the Collector or send to the landlord by money order such instalments during a period of two consecutive years, pass an order directing that the raiyat shall be ejected from the land and that the landlord shall be put in possession thereof, or shall, if he is satisfied that the raiyat has not failed to deposit the instalments or send them by money order, dismiss the application :

Provided that if the instalments in arrears relate to the last two years of the period during which the instalments fixed by the Collector under clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 8 were payable, the raiyats shall not be ejected from the land if he deposits with the Collector the total amount of the instalments in arrears together with compensation at the rate of five per centum of such total amount within a period of thirty days from the date of the service on the raiyat of the notice mentioned in sub-section (2).

(4) When an order for the ejectment of a raiyat has been passed under sub-section (3), the Collector shall, as soon as possible after the date of such order, put the landlord in possession of such holding or portion.

(5) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law where a landlord is put in possession of any land under sub-section (4), any encumbrance created on such land or any portion thereof by the raiyat shall not be binding on such landlord.

(6) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law, when a raiyat has been ejected from any holding or portion of a holding under this section, he shall not be entitled to make an application to the Collector or institute any suit in any court for a refund of any sum deposited by him with the Collector as an amount payable to the landlord under any of the provisions of this Act or any sum sent by such raiyat to the landlord under sub-section (1) of section 9.

Distraint for arrears of rent.

14. (1) If the rent of a holding or portion of a holding restored to a raiyat in pursuance of an order under sub-clause (ii) of clause (e) of sub-section (1) or sub-section (3) of section 8 falls into arrear while any of the instalments payable by the raiyat under clause (d) of the said sub-section (1) remains unpaid, the landlord may, in addition to any remedy provided by law for the recovery of such arrears, apply to the Collector for the recovery of such arrears by distraining while in the possession of the cultivator—

(a) any crops or other products of the earth standing or ungathered on the holding;

(b) any crops or other products of the earth which have been grown on the holding and reaped or gathered and are deposited on the holding or on a threshing floor or place for treading out grain, or the like, whether in the fields or within a homestead.

(2) The Collector shall, in disposing of any application made to him under sub-section (1), follow, as far as may be, the procedure laid down in the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885.

Finality of orders.

15. Every order passed by the Collector under this Act shall be final and no civil court shall entertain any suit or application to vary or set aside any decision or order given or passed under this Act.

Costs of proceedings.

16. The Collector shall have power to award costs to any party to any proceeding under this Act, and any sum ordered to be paid as costs shall be recoverable from the party by whom it is payable as a public demand under the Bengal Public Demands Recovery Act, 1913.

Collector to be vested with certain powers under Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

17. (1) The Collector, when acting under any of the provisions of this Act, shall have the same powers as are vested in a court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, in respect of enforcing the attendance of any person or examining him on oath or affirmation and compelling the production of documents.

The Bengal Restoration of Landlords' Auction Purchased Lands Bill, 1940.

(Clause 18.)

(2) The Collector may delegate all or any of his powers under this Act to such person as he thinks fit and such person shall thereupon be deemed to be a Collector for the purposes of this Act.

Power to make rules.

18. (1) The Provincial Government may make rules for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, the Provincial Government may make rules to prescribe—

(a) the form of any application under this Act and the particulars to be contained in such application; and

(b) the form of any notice required to be served under this Act and the manner in which such notice shall be served.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It is known to all that on account of the inability of the tenantry to pay the arrears of rent by reason of the unprecedented fall in agricultural prices numerous raiyati-holdings in this Province were sold in auction between the 1st day of January, 1930, and the 31st day of December, 1938, and were purchased and taken to khas possession by the landlords. Moreover, many landlords took advantage of the delay in the establishment of Debt Settlement Boards and caused many holdings to be sold for arrears of rent before the establishment of the aforesaid Boards. This has brought untold misery among the cultivators of this vast agricultural Province where they are living from generation to generation. As a general cry has already been raised amonst the agriculturists for the restoration of these auction purchased lands to the former tenants, these auction purchased lands should be restored to the former tenants for the interest of public order and tranquillity in the country as has been done in Bihar. The Bill has been drafted almost on the lines of the Bihar Act which was passed in 1938. The principal feature of this Bill is that it has made provision for such restoration on condition of repayment by the raiyats of a considerable portion of landlords' decretal demands on instalments spread over a period of five years. Other provisions are more or less consequential.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 634.—5th March 1942.—It is hereby notified for general information that at the meeting of the Bengal Legislative Assembly held on 27th February 1942, a motion was carried that the Bengal Tenancy (Amendment) Bill, 1940, by Mr. Maqbul Hossain, Member, Bengal Legislative Assembly, be re-circulated for the purpose of eliciting further opinion thereon by 30th June 1942. Expressions of opinion by public bodies or by individuals interested in the said Bill, which is republished together with its Statement of Objects and Reasons in this Gazette, should be sent so as to reach the undersigned before that date.

THE BENGAL TENANCY (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1940.

A

BILL

further to amend the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, within the territories under the administration of the Governor of Bengal for the purpose of removing and rectifying inequities and disabilities under which different classes of tenants suffer, it is hereby enacted as follows :—

Preliminary.

Short title and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Bengal Tenancy (Amendment) Act, 1940.

(2) It shall come into force on such date hereinafter called the commencement of this Act as the Provincial Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, appoint in this behalf.

Enhancement of rent.

Repeal of sections 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 31A, 31B, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36 and 37.

2. Sections 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 31A, 31B, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36 and 37 of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, hereinafter referred to as the said Act, shall be repealed.

Reduction of rent.

Addition of new section 37A.

3. After the repealed section 37 the following new section shall be inserted, namely :—

"37A. (1) The existing rent of occupancy holding shall stand reduced to such an extent that the reduced rent shall be equal to the amount of rent at which the holding was held on the expiry of the 31st day of December, 1900, after deducting fifty per cent. therefrom :

Provided that where tenancy has been created after the 31st day of December, 1900, the rent of such occupancy holding shall stand reduced to the amount of rent at which the holding was held at the inception of tenancy deducting 33 per cent. therefrom.

(2) And no rent in arrears on the date of commencement of the Bengal Tenancy (Amendment) Act, 1940, shall be realised in excess of the amount prescribed hereby.

(3) No court shall pass any decree in any suit for such rent pending before it on or after the date on which the Bengal Tenancy (Amendment) Act, 1940, comes into force, in excess of the amount recoverable under sub-section (1).

Interest.

Amendment of section 67.

4. In section 67 of the said Act for the words "six and a quarter" the words "rupees three and one-eighth" shall be substituted.

Damage.

Amendment of section 68.

5. In section 68 of this Act the sub-section (1) shall be omitted.

The Bengal Tenancy (Amendment) Bill, 1940.

(Clauses 6, 7.)

Subdivision of tenancy.

Amendment of section 88.

6. For section 88 of the said Act, the following shall be substituted, namely :—

"88. (1) A division of a tenure or holding or distribution of the rent payable in respect thereof shall be valid and binding upon the landlord or the entire body of landlords and all the co-sharer tenants if—

(i) the notice of such division or distribution in the prescribed form to be served upon landlord or landlords or their common agent and co-sharer tenants, be given to, and

(ii) the mutation fee of rupee one to be paid to landlord or landlords be deposited in union board or union committee as the case may be in whose jurisdiction the tenure or holding is situated, and the union board or the union committee as the case may be shall thereon cause the said notice to be served on the landlord or landlords or their common agent and the co-sharer tenants :

Provided that the notice of division of tenure or holding or distribution of rent payable in respect thereof shall be filed—

(i) in the case of transfer by gift, sale or bequest, to the sub-registrar in whose office the deed of such transfer is registered as soon as the registration is completed, and

(ii) in the case of a sale in execution of a decree or a certificate, signed under the Bengal Public Demands Recovery Act, 1913, where either the purchaser or the decree-holder is not a sole landlord, to the court or certificate officer holding such sale as soon as the sale is confirmed, and the sub-registrar or the court or the certificate officer as the case may be shall thereon cause the notice to be served upon the landlord or landlords or their common agent and the co-sharer tenants.

(2) When notice is served under sub-section (1) of this section, landlord or landlords or co-sharer tenant or tenants shall be entitled before the expiry of thirty days from the date of service of notice to file an objection in the court in whose jurisdiction the tenure or holding or any part thereof is situated, to the effect that the said division of tenure or holding or the said distribution of the rent payable in respect thereof cannot be allowed on the ground that the statement in the notice with regard to the tenure or holding, the amount of rent or quantity of land is inaccurate.

(3) When any objection is filed under sub-section (2), the court on hearing the parties and taking necessary evidence produced before it shall pass such order with regard to the division of tenure or holding or distribution of rent payable in respect thereof with such modification as it deems fit.

(4) If no objection is filed before the expiry of thirty days from the date of service of notice, it shall be presumed that the notice under sub-section (1) has been properly served and that the division of tenure or holding or the distribution of rent payable in respect thereof is valid and binding upon the landlord or landlords and the co-sharer tenant or tenants."

Addition of new section 88A.

7. After section 88 the following shall be inserted, namely :—

"88A. (1) Where the number of co-sharer landlords of any tenure or holding is ten or exceeds ten, all such co-sharer landlords shall be bound to appoint a common agent for the purpose of section 88 of this Act within six months from the passing of the Bengal Tenancy (Amendment) Act, 1940.

(Clause 8.)

(2) One common notice served in the prescribed manner under section 88 of this Act upon such common agent shall be deemed to have been served upon all co-sharer landlords.

(3) Where the number of co-sharer landlords of any tenure or holding is ten or exceeds ten but no common agent is appointed by them, one general notice upon all landlords shall be served by posting one copy of such notice at the court house of the munsif and one copy in the office of the sub-registrar, one copy in the notice board of union board or union committee as the case may be, in whose jurisdiction the tenure or holding is situated. Notices served in this manner shall be deemed to have been served upon all the co-sharer landlords."

Addition of new sections 163A, 163B after section 163.

8. After section 163 of this Act the following new sections shall be inserted, namely :—

"163A. No execution proceeding in respect of any decree for rent in respect of occupancy holding obtained before the commencement of the Bengal Tenancy (Amendment) Act, 1940, shall be proceeded with for the amount in excess of the sum recoverable under section 37A, together with interest, damage and cost, in respect of the said amount :

Provided that the amount, if any, received from the tenant by the decree-holder, shall be deducted from the sum recoverable under section 37A :

Provided also that if the proclamation for sale has already been published before the commencement of Bengal Tenancy (Amendment) Act, 1940, the court shall cause fresh proclamation to be published with necessary correction made in respect of the amount for which the holding shall be put to sale.

163B. (1) Where a decree-holder applies for execution of a decree for arrears of rent due in respect of a tenure or holding or a certificate for such arrears signed under the Bengal Public Demands Recovery Act, 1913, or a decree for payment of money on account of rent payable for a tenure or holding when obtained by a sole landlord or an entire body of landlords in preference to a decree for arrears of rent obtainable under this Act, only that portion of such tenure or holding shall be sold the proceeds of the sale of which will be sufficient to satisfy the amount due under the decree or a certificate under the Public Demands Recovery Act, 1913, and such portion shall not be sold at a price lower than the price specified in the proclamation of sale ; and court or the certificate officer shall, before putting up any such portion of a tenure or holding for sale, estimate the value of the whole tenure or holding and that portion of the tenure or holding, the proceeds of the sale of which the court or the certificate officer considers will be sufficient to satisfy the decree or certificate, and shall specify the price of such portion in the sale proclamation :

Provided if the decree-holder specifies which portion of the tenure or holding should be sold, the court or the certificate officer shall order that such portion or so much of such portion as may seem to him necessary to satisfy the decree shall be sold :

Provided further that if the highest amount of bid for the property included in the sale proclamation is less than the price specified for such property in the proclamation, the court or the certificate officer may sell the property for such highest amount if the decree-holder consents in writing to forego so much of the amount decreed, as is equal to the difference between the highest amount of bid and the price specified for such property in the sale proclamation :

The Bengal Tenancy (Amendment) Bill, 1940.

(Clause 9.)

Provided further that if the court or a certificate officer directs the sale of a portion of a tenure or holding, the provisions of this Act relating to the sale of entire tenure or holding shall, as far as may be, apply to sale of such portion, and the proceeds shall be paid as provided in this Act.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in this Act or in any other law, or in any contract, a decree or a certificate referred to in sub-section (i) shall not be executed—

(i) by the attachment and sale of any movable or immovable property other than the tenure or holding to which the decree or certificate relates, or

(iii) by the sale of houses or other buildings with the materials and sites thereof and the lands immediately appurtenant thereto and necessary for their enjoyment :

Provided that the site of the house and land immediately appurtenant thereto may be sold in execution of a decree for arrears of rent due in respect of the site of such house only."

Addition of new sections 173A and 173B after section 173.

9. After section 173 the following new sections shall be inserted, namely :—

"173A. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provisions of this Act, any person within one year from the date on which the Bengal Tenancy (Amendment) Act, 1940, comes into force, whose tenure or holding or portion of tenure or holding has been sold and the sale has been confirmed and the possession of the said sold property has been delivered, in execution of a decree for arrears of rent due in respect thereof, or a certificate for such arrears signed under the Bengal Public Demand Recovery Act, 1913, may apply to have the sale set aside—

(1) in the case where possession of the tenure or holding or any portion thereof so sold has not been delivered, in the manner as provided under sub-section (1) of section 174, and

(2) in the case where possession of the tenure or holding or any portion thereof so sold has been delivered—

(a) on depositing the decretal amount together with the cost incurred in bringing the tenure or holding for sale, and

(b) interest at the rate of rupees three and one-eighth on the decretal amount from the date of sale up to the date of deposit, for payment to the auction-purchaser :

Provided that the provision of this section shall not apply to the sale made in execution of the decree for arrears of rent in respect of a tenure or holding, which has been made before the first day of January, 1930.

173B. (1) Where application has been made under clause (1) of section 173A, the court or the certificate officer shall deal with the application in the manner as provided by sub-section (6) of section 174 and sub-sections (1) and (2) of section 174A of this Act.

(2) In the case where the application has been made under clause (2) of section 173A and deposit has been made as provided under the sub-clauses (a) and (b) of the said clause the court or the certificate officer shall make an order setting aside the sale and direct the auction-purchaser to deliver the possession of the tenure or holding, as the case may be, to the applicant."

The Bengal Tenancy (Amendment) Bill, 1940.

(Clauses 10, 11)

Amendment of section 174.

10. (1) In section 174 of this Act sub-secion (1) shall be omitted and the following new sub-section shall be inserted, namely :—

"(1) Rules 80 and 90 of Order XXI in Schedule I to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, shall not apply in cases where a tenure or holding or any portion or portions sold in execution of a decree for arrears of rent due in respect of such tenure or holding or a certificate for such arrears signed under the Bengal Public Demand Recovery Act, 1913, but in such cases the judgment-debtor or any person whose interests affected by the sale, may at any time within one year from the date of sale, apply to the court or the certificate officer under the order of which such sale has been made, to set aside the sale stating in his application that he shall pay in twelve equal yearly instalments the amount recoverable under the decree up to the date of sale with costs for payment to the decree-holder or the auction-purchaser as the case may be."

(2) After sub-section (5) the following new sub-section shall be added, namely :—

"(6) When an application has been made under sub-section (1) of this section the court or the certificate officer shall direct the applicant to pay into the court the amount prescribed under sub-section (1) of this section in twelve equal yearly instalments."

Amendment of section 174A.

11. In section 174A of this Act the sub-sections (1) and (2) shall be omitted and the following new sub-section shall be inserted, namely :—

"(1) Where no application is made under sub-section (1) of section 174 within one year from the date of sale or where such application is made but not a single instalment has been paid the court or the certificate officer, as the case may be, shall make an order confirming the sale and thereupon the sale shall become absolute.

(2) Where an application is made under section 173A or under sub-section (1) of section 174 any instalment or instalments have been paid into the court or to the certificate officer within twelve years the court or the certificate officer shall make an order setting aside the sale to the extent of the instalment or instalments so paid :

Provided that if the applicant fails to pay six consecutive instalments he shall be debarred from paying any further instalment unless the court or the certificate officer permits him by an order in writing to make any further deposit of instalments, but the sale shall be set aside to the extent of the instalment or instalments paid before or after such default :

Provided further that the court or the certificate officer shall not direct to make any payment of instalment which may fall due after the expiry of twelve years from the date on which the first instalment falls due."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Preliminary.—The opinion that real benefit can only be bestowed upon the tillers of the soil of Bengal by extending their rights not only in the political field but in the economic sphere as well is gradually gaining ground. There is no denying of it that chronic economic incapacity of the cultivators is responsible for the fact that the lands are rapidly passing away from their hands and that the cultivators are gradually turning into so many landless agricultural labourers. It has become obvious that the last general amendment of the Bengal Tenancy Act of 1885 made in 1937 has failed to solve the major economic problems of the tenants and there has been a persistent demand for further amendment of the Act for the extension of the rights of the cultivators and for the removal of disabilities from which still they have been suffering. It is with these objects in view that amendments to certain sections of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, and certain additions of sections to the Act have been proposed in this Bill.

Clauses 2 and 3.—The difference between the amount of revenue paid by the zemindars and the amount of rent paid by the tenants is becoming day by day inequitous and oppressive. The existing rate of rent cannot but be considered excessively disproportionate when compared with the revenue paid by the zemindars. This is one of the causes of the crushing indebtedness of raiyats. General economic conditions of the country also demand that the enhancement of rent should be stopped and the rent of the tenant should be reduced to the level of their economic capacity. Hence, it has been proposed in the Bill to repeal sections 27 to 37 to stop enhancement of rent of occupancy holding and to insert new section 37A to reduce the rent of occupancy tenants by proposing a more equitous method.

Clause 4.—Section 67 to be amended to reduce the excessive rate of interest.

Clause 5.—Section 68 to be amended to relieve the tenants from further economic pressure of damage as the interest proposed in section 67 is considered sufficient.

Clause 6.—Section 88 to be amended to simplify the present complicated procedure and to make a division of tenure or holding or distribution of rent payable in respect thereof an easy one and to abolish heavy mutation fee.

Clause 7.—New section 88A to be added to make it obligatory upon landlords where their number is ten or exceeds ten to appoint a common agent.

Clause 8.—That tenants are in arrears is solely due to their inability to pay the rent accentuated by heavy fall in the price of agricultural products in recent years. Hence, new section 163A to be inserted after section 163 to extend the benefit of section 37A to the tenants in respect of whose occupancy holding an execution proceeding is pending before a court at the commencement of this Act. This section is of temporary nature.

New section 163B to be inserted after section 163A for sale of a portion or portions of the tenure or holding sufficient to meet the amount under decree and to save the tenants from being deprived of the entire tenure or holding whose market price is always more than the amount decreed together with costs of suit and those of execution proceeding. Besides the tenants should not be deprived of their homestead land; hence, provision to this effect has been made in section 163B.

Clause 9.—New sections 173A and 173B to be inserted after section 173 to extend the benefit of sections 174 and 174A to the tenants whose tenure or holding has been sold, confirmed and possession delivered between the first day of January, 1930, and the date of commencement of this Act. These sections are of temporary nature.

Clauses 10 and 11.—Sections 174 and 174A to be amended to give more facilities to judgment-debtor to set aside sale and save his tenancy thereby.

PART V

Acts of the Indian Legislature assented to by the Governor-General and Ordinances promulgated by the Governor-General.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Commerce Department.

ORDINANCE No. IX OF 1940.

As Amended by Ordinance No. XII of 1941.

AN

to make certain provisions for the insurance of goods in British India against damage by enemy action.

WHEREAS an emergency has arisen which renders it necessary to make certain provisions for the insurance of goods in British India against damage by enemy action;

NOW, THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 72 of the Government of India Act as set out in the Ninth Schedule to the Government of India Act, 1935, the Governor General is pleased to make and promulgate the following Ordinance:— (26 Geo. 5, c. 2.)

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Ordinance may be called the War Risks (Goods) Insurance Ordinance, 1941.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint.

Definitions.

2. In this Ordinance, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "agricultural products" means products of agriculture, horticulture or sylviculture and includes growing crops, plants and trees;

(b) "goods" means any materials, commodities or articles and includes materials or articles used in or for the construction of ships up to the time at which a ship after construction is launched;

(c) "war risks" means such risks arising from [—]

[(i)] action taken by an enemy or [...] action taken in combating an enemy or in repelling an imagined attack by an enemy, [......]

[(ii) measures taken under proper authority to avoid the spreading of, or otherwise to mitigate, the consequences of damage occurring (whether accidentally or not) as the direct result of any such action as aforesaid,

(iii) precautionary or preparatory measures taken under proper authority with a view to preventing or hindering the carrying out of any attack by an enemy, being measures involving a substantial degree of risk to property,

(iv) precautionary or preparatory measures involving the doing of work on land and taken under proper authority in any way in anticipation of enemy action, being measures involving a substantial degree of risk to property, as may be prescribed;]

(d) "live-stock" includes animals of any description;

(e) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Ordinance;

(f) "seller of goods" includes a seller of goods acting as an agent, and, in relation to any person carrying on the business of selling goods as an agent, any reference in this Ordinance to goods produced by him or to goods not produced by him shall be construed as including a reference to goods produced, or, as the case may be, not produced by his principal.

[......].

Goods insurable under this Ordinance.

3. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section—

(a) the following goods shall, in relation to any person carrying on business in British India as a seller of goods of any description produced by him, be deemed to be goods insurable under this Ordinance, that is to say, all goods situated in British India being either—

(i) goods of that description, or

(ii) goods used as material from which goods of that description are produced or as ingredients or component parts of goods of that description; and

(b) the following goods shall, in relation to any person carrying on business in British India as a seller of goods of any description not produced by him, be deemed to be goods insurable under this Ordinance, that is to say, all goods of that description being goods situated in British India.

(2) In relation to a person carrying on in British India the business of selling agricultural products produced by him, all agricultural products and live-stock for the time being situated in British India shall, subject to the following provisions of this section, be deemed to be goods insurable under this Ordinance:

Provided that the Central Government may by general or special order direct that the provisions of section 7 shall not operate so as to require a person to be insured in respect of any goods which, in relation to that person would not, apart from the provisions of this sub-section, be goods insurable under this Ordinance.

(3) Things which, in relation to a person carrying on any business as a seller of goods, are at any time goods insurable under this Ordinance shall not cease to be goods so insurable by reason only that they are subsequently placed in or affixed to land under a contract of sale entered into by that person in the course of that business.

(4) The Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, direct that goods of any description specified in the notification shall, notwithstanding anything contained in this section, be deemed not to be goods insurable under this Ordinance.

Ownership.

4. [......] [(1) Save in so far as is otherwise expressly provided in this Ordinance, any goods shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be deemed for the purposes of this Ordinance to be owned—

(a) if the property in the goods is for the time being vested in a person in relation to whom they are insurable under this Ordinance, by that person;

(b) if the property in the goods is not so vested, by any person in relation to whom the goods are insurable under this Ordinance and who is for the time being entitled, either unconditionally or conditionally, to have the property in the goods vested in him:

Provided that where—

(i) any goods would, under the foregoing provisions of this sub-section, be deemed to be owned by a person in whom the property therein is vested otherwise than in the course of a business carried on by him in British India, or who is entitled to have the property therein vested in him otherwise than in the course of such a business, and

(ii) any person carrying on business in British India is for the time being entitled to sell the goods as agent,

(2) Where in the course of any business a ship is being, or has been constructed under contract, and the ship or any part thereof or any goods appropriated for the construction thereof—

(a) would, apart from the provisions of this sub-section, have been deemed for the purposes of this Ordinance to be owned at any time by the person from time to time carrying on the business; or

(b) have at any time been accepted, in pursuance of a contract made with him, by the person from time to time carrying on the business, then, notwithstanding that they would not, apart from the said provisions, be deemed for the said purposes to be owned by the person from time to time carrying on the business, the ship and any part thereof and any goods so appropriated as aforesaid shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), be deemed, in a case to which clause (a) applies, to continue to be owned by the person from time to time carrying on the business until the acceptance of the ship, in pursuance of the contract in question, by the person for whom it is being, or has been, constructed, and in a case to which clause (b) applies, to be owned by the person from time to time carrying on the business at all times between the acceptance referred to in the said clause (b) and the acceptance of the ship as aforesaid by the person for whom it is being, or has been, constructed.

(3) The provisions of sub-section (2) shall apply in relation to the construction under contract in the course of a business of part of a ship, not being part of a ship which is being, or has been, constructed by the person from time to time carrying on the business, as they apply in relation to the construction of a ship—

(a) with the substitution for references to a ship of references to part of a ship;

(b) where the contract for the part of the ship is with the person for whom the ship is being constructed, with the substitution for references to the acceptance of the ship under the contract in question of references to the acceptance of the ship under the contract for the construction thereof;

(c) where the contract for the part of the ship is with any other person, with the substitution for references to the acceptance of the ship under the contract in question of references to the acceptance of the part of the ship under the contract for the construction of the part by the person for whom it is being, or has been, constructed.

(4) Where the person from time to time carrying on a business receives any money, under a policy issued in pursuance of the War Risks (Goods) Insurance Scheme, in respect of the loss of or damage to a ship, part of a ship or goods which are deemed to be owned by him by virtue of sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), the money shall be held by him on trust for the person who apart from the provisions of those sub-sections would be deemed for the purposes of this Ordinance to be the owner of the ship, part or goods, subject, however, to any lien or charge which would otherwise be enforceable against the ship, part or goods, and subject also to the right to retain out of the money the amount of any expenses reasonably incurred by the first mentioned person in making good any part of the loss or damage which he is liable to make good.]

War Risks Insurance Scheme.

5. (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, put into operation a scheme [in this Ordinance referred to as the War Risks (Goods) Insurance Scheme] whereby the Central Government undertakes, in relation to persons carrying on business in British India as sellers of goods, the liabilities of insuring such persons against war risks in respect of goods insurable under this Ordinance which are from time to time owned by such persons in the course of such business.

[(1A) The War Risks (Goods) Insurance Scheme may also extend—

(a) to the undertaking by the Central Government, in relation to any person carrying on business in British India as a seller of goods, of the liability of insuring such a person against war risks in respect of goods insurable under this Ordinance which are not owned by him but in which he has an interest arising in the course of that business;

(b) without prejudice to the provisions of clause (a), to the undertaking by the Central Government, in relation to a person carrying on any business in British India, of the liability of insuring such a person against war risks in respect of—

(i) any goods situated in British India which are in his possession, otherwise than under a hire purchase agreement, for the purposes of that business,

(ii) any goods situated in British India which are subject to a mortgage in his favour held by him in the course of that business, being in either case goods which are not owned by him but which are insurable under this Ordinance in relation to the person by whom they are owned.]

(2) The War Risks (Goods) Insurance Scheme shall be such as to secure—

(a) that any liability of the Central Government as insurers under the scheme is determined by a policy of insurance issued in the prescribed form and in respect of a period not exceeding the period for the time being prescribed in this behalf, by a person acting on behalf of the Central Government,

(b) that any premium under a policy so issued is payable at such rate as may be prescribed, and

(c) that the amount of any one premium payable under a policy so issued is not less than such sum as may be prescribed in this behalf.

(3) Different forms of policies, different rates of premium and different periods may be prescribed under sub-section (2) in relation to different discriptions of goods and according to the place at which and the circumstances in which the goods insured are situated.

[.........]

Employment of agents by Central Government.

6. The Central Government may employ or authorise the employment of any person or firm to act as its agent for any of the purposes of this Ordinance and may pay to persons or firms so employed such remuneration as the Central Government thinks fit:

Provided that no person or firm shall be so employed unless that person or firm is either—

(a) a member of an association prescribed in this behalf, or

(b) a person who in British India has a standing contract with underwriters who are members of the Society of Lloyd's, whereby such person is authorised within the terms of such contract to issued protection notes, cover notes or other documents granting insurance against war risks.

Compulsory insurance.

7. (1) No person shall, after such date as may be specified in this behalf by the Central Government by notification in the official Gazette, carry on any business in British India as a seller of goods, unless, in respect of any goods insurable under this Ordinance which are for the time being owned by him in the course of that business, there is in force a policy of insurance against war risks issued in accordance with the War Risks (Goods) Insurance Scheme, whereby he is insured in respect of such goods for a sum not less than the value thereof for the time being:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall restrict the carrying on of business as aforesaid by any person, if and so long as the value of all goods insurable under this Ordinance which are for the time being owned by him within one and the same Presidency-town or district in the course of that business does not exceed such amount as may be prescribed in this behalf:

[Provided further that the Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, declare that the provisions of this sub-section shall not apply to the carrying on of business as aforesaid by any person in respect of goods of any description specified in such notification.]

(2) Whoever contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees and with a further fine which may extend to five hundred rupees for every day after the first on which the contravention continues.

Restriction on carrying on certain insurance business.

8. (1) After the date on which the War Risks (Goods) Insurance Scheme is put into operation, no person shall, except as a person authorised by the Central Government as their agent to issue policies in pursuance of that scheme, carry on the business of insuring persons carrying on business in British India, as sellers of goods, against war risks in respect of goods insurable under this Ordinance which are from time to time owned by such persons in the course of such business as is last mentioned.

(2) Whoever contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees and with a further fine which may extend to one thousand rupees for every day after the first on which the contravention continues.

War Risks Insurance Fund.

9. (1) The Central Government shall establish a fund for the purposes of this Ordinance, to be called the War Risks (Goods) Insurance Fund, into which shall be paid all sums received by the Central Government by way of insurance premiums under the War Risks Insurance Scheme [or by way of payments made on composition of offences under section 12A], and out of which shall be paid all sums required for the discharge by the Central Government of any of its liabilities under the War Risks Insurance Scheme, or for the payment by the Central Government of the remuneration and expenses of agents employed for the purposes of that scheme.

(2) If, at any time when a payment is to be made out of the said fund, the sum standing to the credit of the fund is less than the sum required for the making of that payment, an amount equal to the deficiency shall be paid into the fund as an advance out of general revenues.

(3) If at any time, the amount standing to the credit of the fund exceeds the sum which, in the opinion of the Central Government, is likely to be required for the making of payments out of the fund, the excess shall be paid into general revenues.

(4) The Central Government shall prepare in such form and manner as may be prescribed, and shall publish either annually or at such shorter intervals as may be prescribed, an account of all sums received into and paid out of the War Risks (Goods) Insurance Fund.

Power of Central Government to obtain information.

10. (1) [......] [Any person authorised in this behalf by the Central Government may, for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not any person has insured any goods against war risks, and, if so, for what value,—

(a) require any person carrying on in British India the business of fire insurance or of a seller of goods to submit to him such accounts, books or other documents or to furnish to him such information as he may reasonably think necessary, or

(b) at any reasonable time enter any premises occupied by any person carrying on in British India any such business, and inspect the premises and require any person found therein who is for the time being in charge thereof to produce to him and allow him to examine such accounts, books or other documents as may relate to the business carried on in the premises or to furnish to him such information as he may reasonably think necessary.]

(2) Whoever wilfully obstructs any person in the exercise of his powers under this section or fails without reasonable excuse to comply with a request made thereunder shall, in respect of each occasion on which any such obstruction or failure takes place, be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

(3) Whoever, in purporting to comply with his obligations under this section, knowingly or recklessly makes a statement false in a material particular, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

Refund of premiums in certain cases.

11. Where goods of any description have been insured by a seller of goods for any period, and before that period has elapsed goods of that description have ceased, by virtue of a notification under sub-section (4) of section 3, to be goods insurable under this Ordinance, the person who has insured such goods shall be entitled to a proportionate refund of premium.

Limitation on prosecutions.

12. No prosecution for any offence punishable under this Ordinance shall be instituted against any person except by or with the consent of the Central Government or an authority authorised in this behalf by the Central Government.

Composition of offences.

[12A. Any offence punishable under sub-section (2) of section 7 may, either before or after the institution of the prosecution, be compounded by the Central Government or by any authority authorised in this behalf by the Central Government, on payment for credit to the War Risks (Goods) Insurance Fund of such sum as the Central Government or such authority, as the case may be, thinks fit.]

Bar of legal proceedings.

13. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Ordinance.

Power to make rules.

14. (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, make rules to carry into effect the provisions of this Ordinance.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may prescribe—

(a) the risks which shall be deemed to be war risks for the purposes of clause (c) of section 2;

(b) the forms of the polices of insurance referred to in sub-section (2) of section 5, the maximum period in respect of which such policies shall be issued, the rates at which premiums on such policies shall be payable, and the maximum amount which shall be payable as any one premium on such policies;

(c) the associations to be prescribed for the purposes of clause (a) of the proviso to section 6;

(d) the maximum amount to be prescribed for the purposes of the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 7;

(e) the form of and the manner of preparing the account referred to in sub-section (4) of section 9 and the intervals at which such account shall be published.

CORPORATION OF CALCUTTA.

Central Municipal Office, the 6th March 1942.

NOTICES.

It is hereby notified for general information that the Corporation of Calcutta, under powers vested in them in this behalf, have by a resolution, dated the 10th February 1942, modified a portion of the 40 feet alignment of Jamadar Khansama Lane at its junction with the old boundary of Shamsul Huda Road in Ward No. 21, extending northwards to the same width to meet the present boundary of Shamsul Huda Road through the abandoned road land of the Corporation.

It is hereby notified for general information that the Corporation of Calcutta, under powers vested in them in this behalf, have by a resolution, dated the 18th February 1942, cancelled the portion of the alignment of New Kasiabagan Lane, marked B and B on the plan in modification of any resolution to the contrary as the same runs over a mosque and a Darga property in Ward No. 21.

S. CHATTERJI,

Chief Executive Officer.

DISTRICT REPORTS ON WEATHER AND CROPS.

For the week ending on the 4th March 1942.

Summary.—Weather is seasonable. Cultivation of autumn crops is proceeding. Harvesting of rabi crops continuing in full swing. Prospect of standing crops is generally favourable. In Tippera 22,760 persons were employed in test relief work and 114 persons given gratuitous relief during the week. The average price of common rice for the province this week is about $7\frac{13}{16}$ seers per rupee. It has remained practically stationary as compared with that of the previous week.

A. Ahmad, Personal Assistant, for Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

Dacca, the 9th March 1942.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Dacca, the 28th February 1942.

Second Forecast of the Spring Oilseed Crops of Bengal, 1941-42.

(Note.—On an average of the five years ending 1939-40, the area under linseed in Bengal has represented some 3·4 per cent. and that of rape and mustard 12·6 per cent. of the total area under these crops in India.)

Character of the season.—Since the submission of the first forecast, the weather and its effect on the growth of the crops have been favourable although at places drought has adversely affected the crop. Some damage has been caused by insect-pests. The present condition of the crops is fairly good.

Area sown.—Oilseeds are chiefly grown in the Dacca, Rajshahi and Presidency Divisions. In the other two divisions the cultivation is not extensive. The total area under these crops (excepting sesamum for which separate forecasts are issued) is returned at 945,700 acres this year as against 951,100 and 952,300 acres in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year.

Outturn.—From the District Officers' estimates the average outturn of the different oilseed crops for the province works out at 79 per cent. of the normal as against 67 and 66 per cent. reported respectively in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year.

M. CARBERY,
Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

Office of the Secretary to His Excellency the Governor of Bengal

NOTIFICATION.

No. 803H.—10th March 1942.—The following is republished for general information:—

OFFICE OF THE PRIVATE SECRETARY TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE VICEROY.

NOTIFICATION.

New Delhi, the 4th March 1942.

No. 44-H.—His Excellency the Viceroy has been pleased to award the Indian Police Medal to the following officer:—

Bengal.

Radha Prosad Pandey, Constable No. 1493, of the 24-Parganas district.—On the night of the 20th November 1941, Constable Radha Prosad Pandey, while on patrol duty with a Head Constable, heard sounds of gun-fire and cries of alarm in the distance. He and the Head Constable ran to the place whence these sounds came, and found that a dacoity was in progress in a house there, the inhabitants of which were putting up a spirited resistance. On their arrival the dacoits fled, and although none of the inhabitants came to their assistance, these two Police officers gave chase, despite the fact that they had reason to believe that the dacoits were armed with guns Constable Pandey succeeded in overtaking and pulling down one of the dacoits, who seriously wounded him by stabbing him in the thigh with a dagger. Despite this injury the Constable clung on to his adversary until the Head Constable arrived and felled the latter with a lathi. Constable Pandey showed great promptitude and initiative and his conduct was of a most gallant character.

This award is made for gallantry under regulation (d) (i) of the regulations governing the grant of the Indian Police Medal and consequently carries with it the allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police.

L. G. PINNELL,
Private Secy. to H. E. the Viceroy.

By order of H. E. the Governor,

M. O. CARTER,
Secretary to the Governor.
